

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

GENERAL RULES.

NAME.

THIS Association shall be called, "THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION, FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND, AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL INSTITUTION AT CLAREMONT."

OBJECT.

The exclusive object of this Association shall be, to collect funds for educating and supporting children, elected by the Association.

CONSTITUTION.

This Association shall consist of Annual and Honorary Members, a Committee, Three Secretaries, and a Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP.

Every Subscriber or Collector of Ten Shillings Annually, shall be a Member, his or her name having been previously submitted to, and approved of by the Committee. Honorary Members shall be created at the Annual General Meeting, with privileges similar to other Members.

PRIVILEGE OF MEMBERS.

Each Member shall be entitled to vote at all elections.

RULES FOR VOTING.

At every election for Pupils, Each Member of the Association, and each Auxiliary shall be entitled to one vote for the first Ten Shillings, and one vote for every additional Five Shillings, contained in the sum which may have been paid to their respective Treasurers by such Member.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

The Business of the Association during the interval of General Meetings, shall be entrusted to a Committee, to be chosen Annually, consisting of Thirteen Members, with power to add to their number, and fill up vacancies, three of whom attending, shall constitute a Quorum; the corresponding Members of the Committee, the Treasurer and Secretaries, Ex-Officio Members of the Committee. The especial duty of the Committee shall be to supervise the interests of the Pupils elected by the Association, to extend it by means of Auxiliaries, and to augment its funds.

OFFICE BEARERS.

No person can be elected Secretary or Treasurer, unless he shall have been previously, one year a Member of the Committee: any vacancy occurring in these offices during the current year, may be filled, by election, at a Special Meeting of the Association.

MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Annual General Meeting shall be held at Claremont, on Easter Monday, when the Members present shall breakfast together—the proceedings of the past year reported—Committee and Office Bearers appointed, and such other business transacted as may be deemed necessary. Quarterly Meetings of the Association shall be held in March, June, September, and December, and special Meetings whenever a requisition to that effect, specifying the object of such Meetings and signed by 17 Members, shall have been presented to the Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In case any child elected by the Association shall not be sent to Claremont with the proper engagements at the time directed, his election shall be null and void; and the Committee are authorized to admit the child who shall have the greatest number of votes, next to those who were the successful candidates.

The Corresponding Members of Committee shall be Honorary Members.

It shall not be competent for any Meeting of the Association to make, alter, or revoke, any fundamental law, unless notice shall be given at the previous Quarterly Meeting.

MINUTES

OF

THE PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION, HELD AT CLAREMONT, ON EASTER MONDAY, 20TH APRIL, 1835.

About Eighty Members breakfasted at the Institution, at half past nine o'clock.

At 11 o'clock, Dr. CHARLES E. H. ORPEN having been unanimously called to the chair, the Meeting was opened by the reading of a portion of Scripture and by prayer.

Mr. NUGENT DUNCAN read the Report of the Committee for the present year, and the Statement of Accounts.

On the Motion of Mr. BARTON, seconded by Mr. MARJORIBANKS,

RESOLVED—That the Report now read be received, and with the cash account and such appendix as may be deemed necessary, be printed and circulated by the Committee for the ensuing year.

On the Motion of Mr. E. POLLOCK, seconded by Mr. WILLCOCKS,

RESOLVED—That the Laws as now read be considered those binding on the Association.

On the Motion of Mr. THEOPHILUS CAMPBELL, seconded by Mr. J. J. TWEEDY,

RESOLVED—That seeing the great success which has hitherto attended the operations of this Society, we do feel it no less a duty, than a privilege, humbly and heartily to return our thanks to that gracious God, who has, in His inscrutable wisdom, made use of such unworthy instruments in the forwarding of a work, which, we have good reason to believe will, with His blessing, ultimately prove pre-eminently useful in promoting the glory of Him, who shall one day "come to be glorified in His Saints, and to be admired in all them that believe."

On the Motion of Mr. H. J. PORTER, seconded by Mr. J. SHAW,

RESOLVED—That while we acknowledge that God alone can grant any measures of success to our undertaking, yet that we feel ourselves bound to return our grateful thanks to those kind friends, our Auxiliaries, as honoured instruments in His hands, for the warm and steady support which we have received from them, at the same time expressing our hope that they will not only continue, but even increase their exertions in behalf of a cause which God has recognized as His own.

On the Motion of Mr. H. TWEEDY, seconded by Rev. JAMES JOSEPH FREW,

RESOLVED—That while we acknowledge with thankfulness the vast interest which is at present evidently taken in many of the large Schools in this city, as also throughout the country, with a view to alleviating the wants of Ireland's Deaf and Dumb; we do feel it to be a matter demanding no trifling degree of gratitude to the great Author of our being, that so many of the youth of our land are actively engaged in assisting in a work, which has for its object the honour of God, the good of man, and the salvation of the soul that never dies.

On the Motion of Mr. JAMES DUNCAN, seconded by Rev. A. J. WADE,

RESOLVED— That the following Gentlemen be appointed Officers of the Association for the ensuing year, (see page 3.)

An Election for Thirty-seven Pupils having taken place, the following were declared the

* This boy's name having been forwarded to the Office last year, but not entered on the printed list of Candidates from some inadvertency in the Office, arising from a slight informality in the form of application, at the request of his friends the Committee suffered him to stand the Election; his claim has, however, been since withdrawn and another child appointed in his stead.

† The Committee have since received intelligence from his friends that M'Gowan died suddenly on Easter Tuesday.

R E P O R T .

ANOTHER year in the existence of the Juvenile Association has rolled by, and is now to be numbered with the past, affording to your Committee on its termination, the privilege of presenting you with a statement of their proceedings during its progress—a privilege which they with pleasure avail themselves of—not that they desire in aught to boast of those proceedings, for while with every true friend to the desolate deaf mute, they must rejoice at the measure of success with which it has pleased the Almighty Disposer of all events, to bless their humble exertions in the discharge of the duty confided to them, they cannot but feel that His alone has been the strength and increase, whilst to themselves must be ascribed but weakness and insufficiency.

The year that has closed has been marked by many and trying difficulties to your Committee; yet with gratitude must they acknowledge the goodness of the Lord, in continuing to them the kind assistance of many tried and valued friends—in raising up to them many new and warm advocates—in bestowing such a blessing on their unworthy weak endeavours, and in turning their darkness into light, to the glory of his own great name. A slight review of the events of such a period, a scene so chequered by perplexities, so marked with a favorable result, cannot, your Committee conceive, but be interesting to the Association in general—to their successors in office, beneficial in the extreme.

Circumstances, over which your Committee had no control, caused them much embarrassment, in the procuring of Clergymen, to advocate the claims of your Association on the benevolence of your country friends, the Auxiliaries. The want of accommodation in the Institution for the pupils already within its walls—the inconveniences and impediments resulting therefrom to regularity in the internal management, and to the proper and satisfactory education of your pupils, obliged your Committee to devote much time to mature deliberation, as to how best they might remedy these defects; and the constant solicitations from the country to receive those, whom, indigent and distressed, you had last year elected; the endeavours to accommodate some of these, and satisfy the friends of the remainder, required from your Committee no small attention.

Yet have we now a brighter prospect to present you with. Your Auxiliaries increased in number—your funds considerably augmented by the continued support of some—the greatly increased exertions of others, while there is but slight diminution in the remittances of any, and those, resulting from palpable causes—the being able to admit more than half so large a number of pitiable applicants, and the knowledge that there is now opportunity for maintaining in comfort, regularity and cleanliness, a greatly increased number of the children of sorrow, if you but raise the funds. All these facts your Committee desire to congratulate you for, as affording proof that the Lord is still our sun and shield—that the work we have taken up is indeed the Lord's work, and that He who said—"Go forth into all nations and teach all people," is not willing that any, even these poor outcasts, should perish, for that they too are among the people, since with him there is no respect of persons.

Of the different subjects to be this day brought before your notice, there is none perhaps of more importance than that of the enlarged accommodation that is now being made, for the reception of a greater number of children, and the better maintenance of those already in the Institution.

You were informed at your last annual meeting of the need there was for such alteration; and allusion has been made in the Quarterly Papers, to the progress of the work; yet it may be desirable on the present occasion to state in full the reasons that influenced your Committee in the step they have taken relative to the matter, and to give a succinct account of the improvements that are being effected.

Your Committee had for a long time, in common with visitors to the Institution, regretted the crowded state of the school-rooms, dormitories, and other apartments appropriated to the children, and the several inconveniences thence arising; as also the total want of room for the reception of such other children as your funds would enable you to elect. They accordingly urged upon the Parent Committee, the propriety of either making such alterations in these premises as would remedy the defects; or of joining your Association in building a new house in some more convenient and suitable situation. The latter, on a review of the present circumstances, and future prospects of the Institution, was deemed quite impracticable. The former, the Parent Committee were totally unable to effect, unassisted by you. Nothing remained to your Committee then but either to leave the great and important work your Association had taken up unperfected, suffering those funds which the mercy of the Almighty, and the liberality of the public, had placed at your disposal, to lie unemployed, while so many poor deaf mutes, were daily perishing for lack of knowledge; or as faithful stewards, to employ those funds, either in supporting those children elected by you, that could not be received here, at the schools of other countries, there being none in Ireland but the one, or in co-operating with the national institution to improve and enlarge this; but having on inquiry ascertained, that the expenses attending their education in England or Scotland, would be considerably greater than at home, while at the same time, no superintendence could be exercised over, or attention paid to them, your Committee determined to adopt the latter course, and accordingly appropriated the sum of £300, in addition to the sum of £100, voted by your Association on Easter Monday, 1833, making a total of £400, as the proportion to be paid by your Association towards the expense of such alterations as were deemed absolutely necessary, which expense was estimated at £1400; having first obtained from the Parent Committee, an understanding, that the contemplated improvements were to be completed, without any further call on your Association for pecuniary aid, as also a resolution to the effect, "that it was their opinion (which opinion should be morally binding upon their successors) that if ever the Claremont property should be disposed of, your Association should be entitled to a share in the proceeds of such disposal, proportionate to the sums advanced." Your Committee also reserved the right of inspecting the plans and estimates, suggesting alterations and improvements in the same, and superintending the progress of the work.

Your Committee are aware that some persons might object to such an appropriation of your funds; to such would they say, they did not hastily adopt such a measure, and they sincerely trust that the same Holy Spirit, whose guidance they acknowledge in every good and successful issue; the same, they trust, has been their Director in this matter—besides they conceive themselves borne out by the law, which lays down the object of your Association, as the "collection of funds, for educating and supporting children elected by the Association;" for how, they would ask, are children to be supported and educated, without rooms for them to dwell and be taught in; and since the National Institution, and the Juvenile Association are but divisions of the same great society, united in a common cause; is it not the same in result, whether the Juvenile Association build the house and pay the National Institution so much for the education and support of its pupils, or the National Institution build the house, and receive so much the more, for the education and support of each pupil ; the object and expense are the same—in propriety alone consists the difference. This difference your Committee are willing to admit ; yet conceive the course they have adopted, the only one left them, consistent with the principle your Association has always, and they trust always will, profess—the speedy amelioration of the distressed deaf mutes, seeing they should otherwise have suffered those objects of your choice, whom you were unable to receive last year, together with those whom you have this day elected, to remain for years, perhaps for ever, unblessed with the knowledge of the Gospel, unaided by the hand of Christian sympathy.

From many plans laid before the joint committees, that which has been adopted, was selected, as combining, with many other advantages, the least expense ; one of these advantages is, that it can be enlarged at any time, with comparatively little cost or trouble. The whole of the new buildings are designed for the occupancy of the girls and their teachers, and comprise on the ground floor an excellent school-room, work-room, and two smaller apartments ; on the floor above, the whole is thrown into one spacious and airy dormitory, capable of accommodating 70 girls, with two small rooms for teachers. The front of the house has also been improved, and a suitable Committee-room made over the hall of entrance.

DEPUTATIONS.

On the subject of Deputations, your Committee regret to say they were, from causes before alluded to, not so numerous or extensive as they could have desired ; but an account of them having been already furnished in the Quarterly Papers, they will merely in this place give a connected general view of all they were enabled to effect in this matter, during the past year.

On the 12th of August, the Rev. A. Sillery, accompanied by a member of Committee and one of your pupils, proceeded to visit your Auxiliaries on the southern route. Of the fifteen visited, Clonmel, Fermoy, Youghal, Charleville, and Doneraile, in the large attendance at the meetings, and the great interest apparently excited, caused a pleasing hope, that their remittances this year would give evidence of continued attachment to your Association, and increasing ardour in the cause—a hope that in most instances has been fully realized. Visits were also paid to your Auxiliaries at Cahir, Cashel, Mitchelstown, Mallow, Cork, Cove, Middleton, Lismore, Cappoquin, and Dungarvan, and meetings held in each of these towns. In their progress your Deputation availed itself of an opportunity to form a new Auxiliary, by which the name of Monkstown, county Cork, has been added to your list. The Deputation was received with kindness and attention, throughout the entire route, and returned on the 30th of the same month, pleased with the comparatively prosperous state of these your valuable helps.

On the 22d of August, your Committee having previously, without success, endeavoured to obtain the aid of a clergyman, deputed Mr. Theophilus Campbell, with one of your pupils, to visit your Auxiliaries on the South Eastern route; upon this occasion, thirteen were visited—of which the meetings held in Wicklow, Rathdrum, Gorey, Enniscorthy, Wexford, Kilkenny, Castlecomer, Carlow and Thomastown, were extremely gratifying and encouraging. Your friends at New Ross, Waterford, Naas and Athy, were also stimulated to renewed exertions in the cause; and three new Auxiliaries were added to your number—in Tullow, Leighlin-bridge, and Mrs. Brown's school, Rosemount, New Ross—from which considerable remittances have already been received.

On the 29th of October, your experienced and highly esteemed friend, the Rev. Robert Noble, accompanied by a pupil, set forth on the South Western route, visited nineteen Auxiliaries, and formed one new one at Moate; the meetings held in, Kinsale, Bandon, Clonakilty, Tralee, Tarbert, Ennis, Galway, Loughrea, Athlone and Moate, were fully attended, and gratifying in the extreme; the auditory at the meetings in the other towns on this route, though not quite so large, yet evinced apparently very great anxiety in the cause.

On the 29th of November, the Rathdowne Auxiliary was visited by three members of Committee, and a pupil, on which occasion they were kindly aided by the Rev. Messrs. Sillery, Grant, and West. The chair was taken by the Venerable the Archdeacon of Kildare, in Mr. M'Caul's school-room, kindly offered by that warm friend to your Association. The meeting, though not large, was respectable, and separated seemingly much interested by the subjects brought before them. Visits by members of Committee, attended in most instances by a pupil, were paid to your Auxiliaries in the schools of John Lardner Burke, Esq. Rev. T. P. Huddart, Rev. Thomas Flynn, and Daniel Flynn, Esq. previous to the Christmas recess; the usual attention to the interests and welfare of the Deaf and Dumb was shown by the young gentlemen, and the same kindness on the part of the principals of those several seminaries.

On the 29th of December, the Rev. Edward Nixon, accompanied by a pupil, visited your Auxiliaries on the Home route; at a few of the meetings he was aided by your Assistant Secretary; the season of the year was unpropitious, which caused a thin attendance at those held in Edenderry, Mullingar, and Kells. Those held at Athboy and Navan were, however, much crowded, and afforded real pleasure to all concerned.

On the 17th of March, the same Reverend gentleman kindly proceeded to your Auxiliary in Tanderagee, in company with a member of Committee, and a pupil. They were received by a very numerous and anxious meeting, and the amount of their remittance since, has fully proved that the interest excited was not apparent merely, but lively and heartfelt.

On the 18th of same month, the Rev. Henry Dobbin, of Hillsborough (one whom, your Committee trust, will prove a valuable, as he is a warm friend to your Association,) attended by a member of Committee and a pupil, departed to incite your Auxiliaries on the North Central route; thirteen of those Auxiliaries received your deputation with well attended and interesting meetings; and those of Ramelton, Derry, and Dungannon, were overflowing: indeed all the others, at Fintona, Strabane, Coleraine, Magherafelt, Money more, Stewartstown, Lurgan, Armagh, and Monaghan, were very gratifying, and evinced increasing attachment to the cause. The kindness and attention to your deputation, from every one, was extreme, so much so that through the great exertions, and marked courtesy of several individuals, there were new Auxiliaries formed at Letterkenny Moy, and Mrs. Drought's Seminary, Keady; from each of which comparatively large contributions have been forwarded already.

Thus it will appear that sixty-five of your old Auxiliaries in the country, and eight in Dublin, or its vicinity, have been visited during the past year, and seven new ones formed: and your Committee do the more deeply regret the fact that all were not visited, by how much they are aware, that on the annual visitation of every single one, followed by the blessing of the Almighty, does the prosperity of your Association in its present enlarged sphere, mainly depend.

Your object is national, and Christian—therefore should your funds be collected from the length and breadth of the land; but without making known the nature of your Association, and keeping its claims continually before those who have been once enlisted in the cause, this cannot be done: nothing more clearly proves this, than the fact, that almost every Auxiliary, in whose remittance there has been a decrease from that of last year, is one of those to which a deputation has not proceeded during the last twelve months. Your Committee would, therefore urge on their successors, as a most important duty, attention to this subject.

Of the 121 Auxiliaries on your list at the printing of last Report, one has ceased operation, in consequence of the principal of the seminary in which it was formed, having broken up his establishment and retired. One has withdrawn from connexion with your Association, applying its income to the support of a pupil of their own, and twenty others have not yet sent any remittance for the present year—the rest continue apparently warm and comparatively prosperous, some eminently. Your Committee are sure they will be excused for particularizing one, to whom all would yield the palm—"the Ladies"—whose exertions during the past year, have been vigorous and effective, especially one of their Auxiliaries, Miss Nickson's school of Rathmines, whose strong attachment to the cause is best evinced by its greatly increased contribution. To "the Ladies'" Auxiliary your Association has hitherto been much indebted, nor is the gratitude you owe on behalf of the deaf mutes, diminished this year.

PUPILS.

Your Committee beg leave now to call your attention to the more immediate object of your Association, that you may be made acquainted with the changes that have or are likely to take place relative to your pupils.

Daniel Quigley, as stated in the last report, appearing to have greatly recovered in health, has been permitted to return to the Institution ; fears are, however, entertained, that it will be necessary to remove him again at no distant period.

Joseph Farrell, who in the same report was declared incapable of receiving instruction, has been suffered to remain in the Institution, from the peculiar circumstances of destitution in which he has been placed by the emigration of his relatives. Application has, however, been made for his admission into an Asylum for Incurables in this city, and a promise of his reception as soon as possible, obtained.

Thomas Scott, Robert Tuite, and John Mc'Carthy, having been five years in the Institution, and having attained considerable proficiency, returned to their respective friends in May last.

Martha Clinton, also reported as having been five years in the Institution, has remained till the present time under instruction, such having been in her case deemed desirable—it is expected she will return home on the 1st of May.

The following ten children will also leave on that day, as their five years of instruction will then have terminated :—Joseph Darby, David Wright, David Arthur, James Beatty, James Deviney, Andrew Talon, Catherine Gallagher, Patrick Magee, Johanna Walsh, and William Allen.

Johanna Moroney, having been permitted to return to her friends, for a short time early in the past year, has not since been sent back ; nor is she now expected again. Of the twenty-six children elected last Easter Monday, only fourteen have as yet been received; it is hoped that but a short period will elapse ere the remaining twelve, and those whom you have this day elected, shall be admitted, as the buildings are at present in such a state of forwardness.

John Baker, elected at last anniversary, has been declared idiotic, and as such must be removed immediately.

Bonaventure Clarke was, during the past year, removed at the request of his friends, to be bound to a shoe-maker; his education had been in a very forward state, as he had been, for some time previous to admission at Claremont, attending the Deaf and Dumb day-school, in the Dorset Institution.

Of the ninety-two children, including Quigley and Farrell, on your books last year, twelve have not yet been admitted; and five, viz. Scott, Tuite, M'Carthy, Moroney, and Clarke, have been removed—leaving seventy-five at present in the Institution. Of these the ten already mentioned, as being five years at school; and three others, Martha Clinton, six years, Farrell and Baker, incapable of receiving instruction, are to leave on the 1st of May: so that thirteen are going out, and the twelve not yet received, coming in; thus reducing the number to seventy-four, who, with those thirty-seven, whom you have to-day elected, make a total of one hundred and eleven Deaf Mutes, supported by your Association and Auxiliaries. This is indeed a pleasing fact; well may this Association, with heartfelt gratitude, with reverent adoration, ascribe to the Lord of all power and might, thanksgiving and praise.

Since last Anniversary, your Association has been deprived of the more immediate services of an old and zealous member, in the person of the Rev. A. J. Wade, your late active and esteemed Secretary—one who, in the several duties of member and office bearer, ever had the cause of the Deaf Mute warmly at heart; and though in the Providence of God, called to a more extended sphere of usefulness, even the preaching of salvation to souls spiritually deaf and dumb; yet will he not, your Committee feel assured, forget, at least before the throne of grace, that cause he once so loved; but by counsel and advice, and in every way possible for him, endeavour to promote it.

Little further remains for your Committee to notice, ere they resign their charge—to that little would they call the particular attention of their successors. They have endeavoured to render the Quarterly Meetings of your Associations as interesting to the members as possible, if by any means a greater number might be induced to attend—convinced that these are strong links in sustaining mutual co-operation and intercourse, and are means highly instrumental in keeping warm and effective the interest excited at your annual meetings, and inciting to redoubled exertions. Yet must they lament that, except by a very few, their calls have been unanswered ; the meeting in March last, they are happy to admit, was more numerously attended, and trust it may be but the earnest of future zeal. The publication of Quarterly Papers, your Committee are persuaded, has already been productive of much good to the cause ; affording the same stimulus to members incapable of attending the quarterly meetings, as if actually present, and encouraging with a silent, yet effective call, your distant friends, the Auxiliaries, to be "up and doing."

In conclusion, your Committee beg to remind you, not of the claims of the deaf mute, nor of the duty incumbent on you of educating them—this they conceive, you at least are fully sensible of ; their claims, they are satisfied, you duly appreciate—but of the extent of exertion those claims demand. They would put you in mind of the exalted position which, by the grace of God, you now occupy ; they would intreat you to remember, "that forasmuch as great mercy has been shown to you, will the more exertion be required at your hands."

Your Association in the short space of eleven years, from being an unknown, unhonoured few, scarce able to support one pupil, and proud of that achievement—now, with 130 members, and 120 Auxiliaries, with an income capable of supporting 111 of the most pitiable objects of humanity—is loudly spoken of throughout the entire country ; even remote corners of the sister land having heard of your doings. Yet let not these things cherish pride in the breast of any—let not the vanity of any be flattered, rather grieve, that while leaving so many thousand deaf mutes still ignorant of the Gospel of salvation, still unblessed with the knowledge that a God exists, you should be spoken of. What avail the praises of man if God's own word condemn us ; or what shall it profit us to have rescued some from the gall of bitterness, if we have not put forth our utmost strength, and with the mightiest energies we were capable of, sought to bring all to salvation. If then, such be our duty, think what must needs be done, ere we again meet within these walls—if we come with but an equal amount of funds, we shall be guilty—those funds would but support the number of pupils then in the Institution ; whereas we should every successive year be adding to the number of each preceding, till at length, not a deaf mute be found in all Ireland, without these walls.

And who shall say "this is chimerical," or who shall set bounds to the power of the Almighty. Has not the Lord, in your Association, given a lesson to mankind that none should henceforth doubt His omnipotence, or dispute His will—He has placed you in circumstances, which, if with all humble confidence in him, you but use aright, must render the achievement of this mighty purpose, simple. May He of his infinite mercy, enable you so to, "use your present privileges as not abusing them," that thus speedily his name may be known—His commands honoured by every deaf mute in the land. May he so lead you into all truth, and righteousness of life, that even those too, blessed with the faculties of speech and hearing, viewing your good works, may be led to seek the knowledge of that God, that has been with you, that thus Christ's kingdom may be quickly extended upon earth.

EXTRACTS

FROM

REPORTS OF AUXILIARIES.

KEADY, BRANCH OF ARMAGH.

We are much obliged by your Society's sending us a Deputation, much interest has been excited among the Pupils, and we hope elsewhere in favour of our Mute Friends. We all look forward to another visit next year, and are happy our Collection is larger than last year.

BALLINASLOE.

An Annual visit by means of a Deputation essentially necessary, in order to procure Contributions here.

BANDON.

Although the sum now remitted from this Auxiliary is not equal to that sent on its first formation in 1834, yet as the amount of Subscriptions has increased, we would be inclined to think that the interest felt for the object of this Society is not declining. The deficiency arises altogether from the Collection at the door after the last Public Meeting, being much less than what was received on the former occasion. Your Deputation from Dublin having visited us late last year, immediately after the Meetings of the other Societies, may, in some measure, account for this.

BELTURBET.

The Belturbet Auxiliary feels deep regret at there being so great a decrease in the last year's Collection: this may partly be attributed to many deaths having occurred, but more particularly to there being no Public Meeting; we, therefore, earnestly hope you will deem it expedient to favour us with a Deputation, which will tend to keep alive that interest already excited in the public mind. But we are not cast down, our hope being in the Lord who can make the stony heart to melt, and flow out in "works of faith and labours of love." In His strength, we will exert ourselves to the utmost of our power, in promoting the interests of your truly Christian Society.

CORK.

Your Secretary has to lament the small amount of contributions this year from Cork. He hopes the necessity of a Deputation to the city will not be overlooked next year, and that sufficient notice will be given of its arrival.

DUNGANNON COLLEGE.

Another year, the Sixth of our existence as a Society, Auxiliary to your Association, has passed over us. Well may we at its close praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men. He has not only sustained, but has imparted new energy to our exertions in the cause of the Deaf and Dumb—He has taught us to sympathize still more tenderly with our afflicted fellow-creatures, and to pray still more fervently that the veil of ignorance which obscures their mental vision, may be drawn aside, and the light of the glorious Gospel beam upon their dark souls.

We have much pleasure in stating that our contribution to your funds exceeds the sum which we sent you last year—a sum which then exceeded our most sanguine expectations. Into His hands, who has given us the increase, we confidently commit the result of our future operations.

We are happy to say that the Lord has been pleased to bless the exertions of the Dungannon Ladies' Society, and that a lively interest in the cause of your Association has been excited in this neighbourhood, to the existence and extension of which an interesting Meeting held by your Deputation has in no small degree contributed.

GRACEHIL.

All that can be done here is to make occasional Collections in aid of the Juvenile Association, when a Deputation is sent into this neighbourhood.

KILKENNY CITY.

We have heartfelt pleasure in returning our List, an evidence that God suffers not the interest for your Society to decline amongst us. Would that every member of the family of Adam blest with that sense which God in his wisdom withholds from this one class of our care, the Deaf Mute, might look with bowels of compassion on their less favoured brothers and sisters—would that they hastened with becoming feeling to their help, and soon should the ears of the Deaf be unstopped, and the tongue of the Dumb should sing. This would be to follow the example of Christ.

KILKENNY COLLEGE.

Our Report may be comprised in a few words; regarding your Society as one branch of the great Missionary plan, which is now in progress of evangelizing the world, we commend you to the Lord, and to the power of his grace, that your Society may be the means of bringing many souls into the faith and obedience of Jesus Christ.

DUBLIN LADIES.

Our Auxiliary has now been in existence for the space of six years, during which it has been enabled by the Divine blessing to go on from strength to strength, following the example of its Parent Society in this respect, as also, it trusts, being influenced by the same spirit of zeal for God's glory, and love towards their fellow-creatures.

Our funds, we rejoice to state, have this year increased to a greater amount than at any former period; we feel the more rejoiced, and the more encouraged at this circumstance, because that we have been stripped of some support, by which, when our Collections were even less, we were assisted. To our Dublin Members, therefore, who have been mainly the cause of our present prosperity, we would, in behalf of the objects of our mutual solicitude, return our warm acknowledgments.

We are sorry to report a very considerable deficiency in the remittance from our Dundalk Auxiliary this year, when compared with the amount of its Collections during the year before. Hitherto, however, the Society has received such steady and warm support from it, that we feel disposed to attribute its present failure to circumstances not lying within the limits of its controul. Perhaps some who were more immediately connected with it have only been drafted off to swell the ranks of other Auxiliaries, and thus though it may individually feel the loss, the general funds of the Society may yet be unimpaired. Whatever be the cause, we exhort them as we would exhort ourselves, more and more, in dependance upon God's blessing, to persevere in the good cause, and to consider any diminution in their numbers that may arise, an additional obligation on themselves to redouble their exertions.

Several Schools in Dublin have been visited by a Pupil and a Member of the Committee; but we fear the fruits, if any be produced, will not answer the expectations we had fondly formed. We must, however, rest satisfied with such a measure of success as it has pleased Providence to bestow upon us; and, indeed, when we consider what has been done, we have every reason to return our grateful thanks to Almighty God, who has been pleased, through our humble means, to confer the blessings of an education, founded upon his own unerring Word, upon so many benighted minds. Collecting into one sum the amount of our contributions for the past six years, and dividing the product by 17, the number of pounds paid annually by the Juvenile Society to the National Institution for each Pupil, it appears that at least 46 children have been thus rescued from a state little surpassing the brute creation, and taught, as far as man can teach, the knowledge of their God and Saviour.

We cannot close this brief report of our proceedings, without alluding to the continued favourable countenance which we meet with in Miss Nickson's School at Rathmines; delicacy forbids us to express our gratitude in those terms which Miss Nickson's warm attachment to the cause might warrant; and we have only here to add, that her zeal in the cause of the Deaf Mutes, which was commented on in our last Report, continues still unabated, if possible increased.

LURGAN.

Your Institution is at last beginning to be duly and properly appreciated, not here only, but all over Ireland; this year the amount of our Subscriptions has greatly increased. The examination of your Pupils is showing to the Public, the capability of the Deaf and Dumb being taught.

NEW ROSS.

We do not feel discouraged, though our annual remittance be somewhat smaller in amount than that of the preceding year, which deficiency, we regret to say, has been caused by the removal of some of our Collectors to another country. However, the activity of the present Collectors has been indefatigable, as will appear from the remittance, and we anticipate much from our benevolent patron, the Rev. H. Helsham, becoming a resident in the neighbourhood. On the whole, our affairs wear rather a promising aspect.

In concluding this, our Seventh Report, we humbly entreat the Almighty to bless those engaged in this great work of philanthropy with all spiritual blessing in the Lord Jesus.

PARSONSTOWN.

We are extremely sorry our Collection is so small, but in consequence of having no public Meeting this year our Society has suffered great loss. We pray that the Great Head of the Church may bless it and prosper it for his own glory.

RAPHOE.

In making up our Accounts for the past year, we have to lament that, from various causes, there has not been so much exertion made in the good cause, it is our privilege to be engaged in, as there might have been; and that we have in consequence such a very small sum to transmit to the Society. For this we must take ourselves shame, and to avoid the recurrence of a like reproach in future, we must pray the Lord, whose cause it is, to preserve us from a lukewarm spirit, to quicken us in His service, and to stir up a spirit of active zeal and exertion in all the members of our Auxiliary.

ROSEMOUNT.

The Rosemount Ladies' Auxiliary, in sending this, their First Report, regret that the sum subscribed should be so small, which is partly owing to the Auxiliary having been formed late in the year, and partly from the interest at first excited in behalf of the Deaf Mute having diminished. Those who have passed the age of childhood should not be induced to collect merely from the love of novelty, but should be influenced by a higher motive. However, they trust, that the remittance next year will be much increased. May the Lord raise up fresh labourers in this work of love, and let not those at present engaged in it be weary in well doing.

SLIGO.

It would be well to stir up the minds of the people by an exhibition of one of the Pupils of the Institution at an early period, as there does not appear any thing so likely to improve the funds of the Society. We are happy to say that the funds have not decreased here since last year.

FEINAIGLIAN SCHOOL, KILDARE PLACE.

In remitting the amount of our Contributions for the past year, we have to regret, that our present offering should be less ample, than those of preceding years, but we can, in some degree, account for this deficiency. Our Easter holidays commenced this year a week earlier than usual, and this circumstance, by dispersing those who had taken cards before the ordinary period for the remittance of their Subscriptions, caused some of our former friends to send in their Collections separately. We feel grateful, however, to the giver of all good, that we have been enabled to co-operate, even thus far, in this work of mercy; and we trust, the ensuing year will be productive of increased exertion.

REV. E. H. ALLEN'S SCHOOL.

The Subscriptions from this Auxiliary are not as large as we could wish; we hope, that by a Deputation visiting our School earlier this year, others will be excited to take Collecting Cards, and that under the blessing of God we may be enabled to increase, if not to double, our Subscriptions.

GENERAL NOTICES.

1. CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee having recently received a communication relative to the Post-Office privilege, request the particular attention of their Correspondents to the following regulations, under which the privilege of transmitting letters at a reduced rate of postage, is enjoyed; as any departure from them will not only subject the Society to a heavy charge of postage in an individual case, but may be the means of occasioning the withdrawal of the privilege altogether:—

1st. The sum of two pence must be paid with every letter at the time of the depositing it in the Country Post Office, or else it will be charged full postage.

2d. Letters must relate solely and exclusively to the business of the Society, and are to be transmitted unsealed. They are not to exceed one ounce in weight, and are not to contain Cash, Bill, Draft, or Order for the payment of Money.

3d. In case you should not have in your possession, at the time of writing to the Society, one of its printed covers, you are requested to address your communications as follows:

NATIONAL DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION.

TO THE SECRETARIES,

16, Upper Sackville-street,

(Paid two-pence.)

Dublin.

4th. It is suggested that remittances may be made by means of Orders upon Dublin from any of the branch Banks, but, as stated above, such orders cannot be transmitted under the privilege.

2. CANDIDATES.

The printed form of application may be procured at the Office, No. 16, Upper Sackville-street. Their eligibility as indigent boarder pupils, depends on their being Deaf and Dumb, not idiotic, in good health, between eight and twelve years of age, and having had the small or cow pock. And the Answers, Certificates, and Engagements, in the printed form of application, must be filled up.—Any deception in these will subject the child to exclusion or expulsion. Paying Pupils are admissible after twelve.

3. PROXIES.

May be sent by Members, if signed and filled up, as explained in the printed Form sent to every Member.

4. ACCOUNTS.

As the periods for settling the accounts are quarterly, for receiving advances on account of paying Pupils, all Subscribers and Collectors, Securities for paying Pupils, and Auxiliary Societies, are requested to be punctual in remitting money, as soon as due.

5. VISITERS.

Visitors to the School at Claremont, are admissible only between twelve and three, P. M. on Fridays.

6. COLLECTING CARDS.

Members are requested to send in their Cards, with the amount collected, on or before the 26th March, 1836, in order that they may be acknowledged in the Report for the next year.

GENERAL RULES.

NAME.

THIS Association shall be called, "THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND, AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL INSTITUTION AT CLAREMONT."

OBJECT.

The exclusive object of this Association shall be, to collect funds for educating and supporting children elected by the Association.

CONSTITUTION.

This Association shall consist of Annual and Honorary Members, a Committee, Three Secretaries, and a Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP.

Every Subscriber or Collector of Ten Shillings annually shall, be a Member, his or her name having been previously submitted to and approved of by the Committee. Honorary Members shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting, with privileges similar to other Members.

PRIVILEGE OF MEMBERS.

Each Member shall be entitled to vote at all elections.

RULES FOR VOTING.

At every election for Pupils, each Member of the Association, and each Auxiliary, shall be entitled to one vote for the first Ten Shillings, and one vote for every additional Five Shillings, contained in the sum which may have been paid to their respective Treasurers by such Member.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

The Business of the Association during the interval of General Meetings, shall be entrusted to a Committee, to be chosen annually, consisting of Thirteen Members, with power to add to their number, and fill up vacancies, three of whom attending shall constitute a Quorum,—the corresponding Members of the Committee, the Treasurer, and Secretaries, Ex-Officio Members of the Committee. The special duty of the Committee shall be to supervise the interests of the Pupils elected by the Association, to extend it by means of Auxiliaries, and to augment its funds.

OFFICE BEARERS.

No person can be elected Secretary or Treasurer, unless he shall have been previously, one year a Member of the Committee. Any vacancy occurring in these offices during the current year may be filled, by election, at a Special Meeting of the Association.

MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Annual General Meeting shall be held at Claremont, on Easter Monday, when the Members present shall breakfast together—the proceedings of the past year reported—Committee and Office-Bearers appointed, and such other business transacted as may be deemed necessary. Quarterly Meetings of the Association shall be held in March, June, September, and December; and special Meetings, whenever a requisition to that effect, specifying the object of such Meetings and signed by seventeen Members, shall have been presented to the Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In case any child elected by the Association shall not be sent to Claremont with the proper engagements at the time directed, his election shall be null and void; and the Committee are authorized to admit the child who shall have the greatest number of votes, next to those who were the successful candidates. They are also authorized to place in the Institution as many children, over and above the number elected at each anniversary, as the funds of the Society, and the accommodations at Claremont, may permit; those children having the greatest number of votes always to be preferred.

The Corresponding Members of the Committee shall be elected annually, and be Honorary Members of the Association.

It shall not be competent for any Meeting of the Association to make, alter, or revoke any fundamental law, unless notice shall have been given at the previous Quarterly Meeting.

OF

THE PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION, HELD AT CLAREMONT, ON EASTER MONDAY, 4TH APRIL, 1836.

Eighty Members breakfasted at the Institution at half past Nine o'clock.

At 11 o'clock, Dr. CHARLES E. H. ORPEN having been unanimously called to the Chair, the Meeting was opened by the reading of a portion of Scripture, and by prayer.

Mr. THEOPHILUS CAMPBELL read the Report of the Committee for the past year, and the Statement of Accounts.

On the Motion of Mr. RALPH, seconded by Mr. GELSTON,

RESOLVED—That the Report now read be received and printed, together with the Abstract of the Cash Account and such Appendix, as may be deemed necessary; and that it be circulated among the members and friends of the Association.

On the Motion of Mr. GRIFFIN, seconded by Mr. MARJORIBANKS,

RESOLVED—That seeing it has pleased the great and wise God, year after year to bless our efforts for the promotion of His glory, we do call upon all the members and friends of the Association, fervently to return to Him their heartfelt praise; and in deepest humility to approach the footstool of His mercy, that while they labour to bestow on others "the unsearchable riches of Christ," they may themselves have "administered unto them an abundant" entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

On the Motion of Mr. NUGENT DUNCAN, seconded by Mr. J. J. TWEEDY,

RESOLVED—That we would be wanting in gratitude to those kind friends throughout the country, who have, during the past year, by their advocacy, either public or private, or in any other way advanced the cause of the Association, did we not thus publicly express our acknowledgment of the same; and that we do call upon them not to remit their exertions in this good cause, while a single Deaf Mute remains uneducated in our land.

On the Motion of Mr. THEOPHILUS CAMPBELL, seconded by Mr. HENRY TWEEDY,

RESOLVED—That the Committee be empowered to admit into the Institution, from among the unsuccessful Candidates, as many children, over and above the number elected at each Anniversary, as the Funds of the Association and the accommodations at Claremont may permit; those children having the greatest number of votes, being always to be preferred.

On the Motion of Mr. W. WILLOCKS, seconded by Mr. R. HANNA:

RESOLVED—That the following be the Officers of the Association for the ensuing year (see page 2.)

An election for Thirty Pupils having taken place, the following were declared the

REPORT.

THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION for promoting the Education of the Deaf and Dumb poor of Ireland are this day called upon to receive from their Committee the TWELFTH Annual Report of their proceedings.

The Committee do not appear before them with a tale of sorrow and despondency; they have not to relate the desertion of friends, or the abatement of interest in the cause; but they have to tell of the loving-kindness of their God—they have to proclaim His fostering care—to show forth His faithfulness and truth, and to tell it out among the people, that He, whose dwelling is so high, hath yet humbled Himself to behold the things that are on earth, and has not disregarded the feeble, and in themselves inefficient labours of the Juvenile Association in His vineyard. They have to show how God is prospering their work so as that He may visit this nation, to take out, even from among them, a people for His name, and how He is answering their prayer offered up by the Committee as a body weekly, and, we trust, by every real member and friend of the Association daily, that He “would bless the instruction given to the Deaf and Dumb in this Institution, to the conversion of their souls, and to raise up many to co-operate with us in our labour of love, and assist us by their contributions, their exertions, and their prayers.” To Him then, the God of all increase, be the praise, and the glory, and the thanksgiving, for any good done; while to us be but shame and confusion of face, for ingratitude, unfaithfulness, and doubt.

DEPUTATIONS.

Your Committee have been principally engaged, during the past year, in forwarding deputations to the different parts of the country, convinced, as they hope all their friends now are, that such are absolutely necessary, not only for extending the knowledge and operations of the Society, but of actually keeping up an interest among those who have already ranked themselves in the number of our friends.

Nor let any one suppose that deputations are in the least expensive to the Society. Independent of the interest they excite, the sums collected at the respective meetings invariably exceed, and sometimes more than double the expense of each tour. The item of expenditure in the cash account for deputations during the past year is £68. 9s. 7d, while the receipts under the same head amount to £131. 6s. 2d.

Your Committee were enabled to send out only five during the year, in which they visited forty-five of your old Auxiliaries, formed nineteen new ones, and revived three, which had been previously constituted, but had, from various causes, principally their not having been visited, fallen away.

The Rev. L. W. Hepenstall preached on behalf of your Society at Portadown on Sunday the 20th of March; the collection amounted to £5. He also held a meeting at Tanderagee on the following day, aided by Mr. Porter, a corresponding member of the Committee. The attendance was numerous and respectable; collection at the door £2.

Your Committee visited, with a pupil, your Auxiliaries in the various schools in Dublin; one of them since last quarterly meeting, Mr. D. Flynn's, Harcourt street, where the same kind attention was experienced as on their visits to the other seminaries.

Through some mistake, the visit of your Committee to Kingstown on the 16th of September last has not been notified in the Quarterly Papers. The deputation consisted of the Rev. W. Cooper of Zion Chapel, Mr. James F. Duncan, and a pupil. A highly respectable (though not very numerous) meeting was held in the Rathdown School-house, the Rev. Mr. West in the chair. There was not any collection, but many cards were distributed. After a very interesting examination of the pupil, the Rev. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Duncan severally advocated the claims of the Deaf Mutes, powerfully and judiciously. Several members of Committee also attended.

Owing to the unexpected kindness of the Rev. John Whitty, Kilcooly, Johnstown, your Committee have been able to form an Auxiliary in that neighbourhood. Mr. Whitty, unasked, preached on behalf of the Association; the proceeds of sermon amounted to £5. 8s. 1d., which, with contributions, both amounting to £7. 10s. he kindly forwarded to the Treasurer, and at the same time consented to become Secretary and Treasurer to the Johnstown Auxiliary. We hope that the Clergymen of every parish in Ireland will follow the example here set before them, as it is impossible for the Committee to hold meetings in many places, where the Minister of the parish might, by a little exertion, excite a sympathy for the unhappy objects of the Society's care.

The Committee, having given this short summary of the proceedings of deputations, would refer the members to the Quarterly Papers published since last anniversary, for a more particular account; and would now pass on to another subject of very general interest, namely that of

PUPILS.

Of the thirty-seven elected at last Easter Monday five have not been forwarded to the Institution. In their place, the Committee, according to the power vested in them by the general rules of the Association, have elected the next on the list of unsuccessful candidates after the election of last year.

Of those actually placed within the walls of the School, some have been removed as idiotic. Of those who had been a longer time under instruction, some from various causes, others as having completed their education, have been sent home to their friends. However, for a more full account of these matters too, the Committee would also refer to the Quarterly Papers of the Society.

Though the Committee have already reported to the Association the unavoidable and painful necessity they were under of electing an Assistant Secretary in the room of Mr. W. H. Bourns, they would again advert to it here. This necessity arose from his continued indisposition, and there not being any prospect of his being able to resume his duties with safety to himself, till a period to which the Committee would not feel themselves justified in waiting, especially as they had been obliged to engage Mr. Hopper, the Parent Society's Assistant Secretary, at an additional expense. They trust that the Association will sanction their having paid Mr. Bourns his salary at the same time, as they could not have turned off an old and faithful officer at once, because of illness increased, if not altogether contracted, by continued assiduity to the business of the office, and of whom the Committee in truth can say, His zeal knew no bounds. They also trust that his successor, Mr. George William Robertson, will display the same interest in the cause as he ever did.

Your Committee also have to report that since the establishment of "the Apprentice Fund," they have had three applications, to all of which they have acceded, (though all the fees have not yet been handed over to applicants' friends;) namely, from David Arthur, Lucan; John Howard, Lismore; and Andrew Tallon, Kingstown; the united sums granted amounting to £20. They would earnestly call upon all their friends to contribute to this fund, as it will render the operations of the Society complete, and remove objections which some have raised to it, that inasmuch as the friends of many of the children are too destitute themselves, to pay an apprentice fee after they have been educated, it is useless to instruct them, to send them back to their homes to idleness and want. The Committee had long felt this; but, at the same time, not feeling themselves justified in appropriating to this object, any of the funds committed to their care for other purposes, were obliged to suffer the objection to remain unanswered by them, until the establishment of the fund already alluded to. Again, then, they express a hope that their friends will enable them to carry the design into full operation.

For all other matters not specified in this Report, your Committee would refer you to the Quarterly Papers. They regret to find that so many of the members and Aux.

liaries are careless about these. They are printed with the view of circulation among the public; a few are forwarded to the Secretary of each Auxiliary every quarter, yet scarcely ever is an application made to the office for more. Every collector is entitled to four copies of each paper. There are yet some numbers since the first, lying in the office, for which the Committee would be gratified by the members applying. In consequence of these papers, your Committee have curtailed this report, scarcely introducing into it any thing that has already appeared in them; and they hope each succeeding Committee will act in like manner.

And now, dear friends, before we bid you farewell, we would say one word about some remarks which have reached our ears, as to the style of our reports, viz. That they are too religious! Too religious! oh, if religion, and that the pure religion of the revelation of Jesus Christ, be not the basis of our instruction, we would not be deserving of the support we have received from so many of the disciples of Jesus. Nay for ourselves we say, if we be not permitted to make it so, we will withdraw all our exertions from the cause. We would not labour to teach "the wisdom of the princes of this world that comes to nought," were we not also permitted to tell of the knowledge of "the Prince of Life," which, when the other shall fail, and leave its votaries still in "the dark valley of the shadow of death," shall bestow on its possessors life, and that "eternal life:" for "this is life eternal, to know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." Then, that such is our object, we will proclaim at our meetings, in our speeches, in our reports; they shall begin and end with "Him who is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the ending;" and if any be offended, we will only say, We pity, yet will not follow; we will hold on the even tenor of our way, knowing that it shall stand at the last.

Your Committee, in thus drawing their Report to a close, assure the members of the Association that they have faithfully, while as briefly as possible, laid before them an abstract of the proceedings of the Society during the year they were in office. As most of the more experienced members of the Committee will soon be called to avocations, many to the ministry of the word, which will prevent their continued attention to the increasing and important business of the society, your Committee would earnestly recommend to all succeeding Committees, and to the Association at large, the importance of due precaution in the selection of every officer to whom to confide the interest of the Deaf Mutes of our land.

And in sincerity, while they sincerely thank the great and wise God for His favour and direction to themselves, they fervently pray that He may pour out upon them a far greater measure of His Spirit, that, with a single eye solely to His praise, they may devote themselves, in this work, to the eternal interests of the Deaf and Dumb; and, in conclusion, they again approach the throne of grace for you, Dear Friends and Fellow-labourers, to whom we this day give account, and before whom we may never stand again, and for the loved objects of our care, that you, and we, and they, may so learn Christ here, "that an abundant entrance may be administered unto us into the everlasting kingdom of God's dear Son." that when the heavens shall rend asunder, and Jesus appear—when the trumpet shall sound, and the graves shall burst, and mortality and corruption shall put on immortality and incorruption, you, and we, and they may be found among that happy, happy band, who shall then share with Jesus His crown, His throne, His glory, and be for ever with their Lord. Amen and Amen.

EXTRACTS

FROM

REPORTS OF AUXILIARIES.

REV. E. H. ALLEN'S SCHOOL.

The collections from this Auxiliary, though nearly £4 larger than last year, are not so extensive as we could wish, or as the importance of the cause advocated demands. We accompany our contributions with our most earnest prayers to Almighty God, by whose blessing alone the efforts of any Society can be made available, that by an abundant outpouring of his Holy Spirit on the united efforts made for the education of the Deaf and Dumb, they, with all who advocate their cause, may be blessed in time and in eternity.

BANTRY.

The Bantry Auxiliary to the Juvenile Association for Promoting the Education of the Deaf and Dumb Poor of Ireland, in sending their Report for the present year, have to regret the diminution of their funds; and respectfully beg leave to impress upon the Parent Institution the necessity (in order to keep alive an interest for the Deaf Mutes) of sending out deputations.

CARRICKMACROSS.

We feel happy in saying, that though but few weeks have elapsed since your deputation arrived here, yet has a strong feeling of sympathy been awakened in behalf of your valuable Institution. Until we heard their statement, we were not aware of the state of atheism in which the Deaf and Dumb are sunk, and of their capability of receiving under your system a knowledge of Gospel truths. Be assured we feel the importance of these things; we fully appreciate the valuable labours of your Society; and if by our humble efforts but one instance can be found where a Deaf Mute has received these blessings, we shall have no reason to complain that we have "run or laboured in vain."

CORK.

Although the amount of our collections, as stated herewith, is treble what we remitted last year, yet we feel that it is far short of what it ought to be; and we are confirmed in this opinion by the receipt of your last Quarterly Report, in which we find that the average number of Deaf and Dumb in our county far exceeds that of any other, and yet our contribution is miserably small. We hope, however, as we have made one advance, that the Lord will bless it by a continued increase year after year.

We again impress upon the Committee the necessity of sending an efficient deputation if possible every year, as we are persuaded that the success of all our charitable institutions, dependent upon voluntary contributions, rests mainly upon the information detailed, and the impulse given at our public meetings.

COVE.

We feel happy to say, that the amount of our remittance is greater than that of any former year, notwithstanding the late period of the season when your deputation visited us, and the unfavourable state of the weather at the time, which prevented the possibility of having a good Meeting.

DUNGANNON COLLEGE.

We trust our Auxiliary is resting under the shadow of the Almighty, enjoying his fostering care, and supported in his everlasting arms. He has not only sustained, but has imparted new life to our interest—fresh vigour to our exertions in the cause of your Association. He has taught us to sympathise still more tenderly with our afflicted brethren—to desire still more ardently that the dark veil of ignorance which obscures their mental vision may be drawn aside—and to pray still more fervently that the Sun of Righteousness may arise upon their benighted souls, dispelling the dark mists which envelop their understandings, and melting down that hardness which ossifies their hearts.

Our contribution to your funds for the present year exceeds even that for the preceding—a sum which then more than fulfilled our most sanguine expectations. Fully aware as we are of the weakness of the instruments, we are assured of the all-sufficient power of Him who employs them, and to him we look for support—to Him we apply for strength—into His hands we commit the result of our future operations.

The Ladies' Association, established in 1834, has proved a most valuable Auxiliary to your Society. Its members are deeply interested in the cause; and we have every expectation that, under the divine blessing, it will continue to prosper, and to afford material assistance to the Institution.

ENNIS.

In forwarding our list of Subscriptions for the past year, we cannot avoid expressing our regret that they fall so far short of the former collections, where an Institution so beneficial in its effects, and so meritorious in its results is concerned. There are some local causes which may have contributed to this result, but such as, we trust, will neither be permanent in duration, nor greatly injurious in their effects; and independently of these, it appears that the absence of any deputation or stimulant from the establishment, tended to weaken the efforts of many who are well disposed to lend a helping hand in advancing this "work and labour of love."

ENNIS COLLEGE.

In transmitting a collection so much inferior to those heretofore made by this Auxiliary, your Committee would fain hope that "the love of many has not waxed cold," yet they cannot but acknowledge that, although the establishing of other branches may have tended to diminish their own collection, there exists ground for apprehending that suitable exertions have not been made, as the list of Collectors (although there were upwards of seventy persons in connexion with this branch) exhibits but seven names.

Your Committee beg to state their conviction, that an annual visit by a deputation from the Parent Society would materially stimulate the exertions of others; for their own part, believing that the cause of the destitute Mutes is in an especial degree acceptable to HIM who can prosper the weakest attempts to advance the temporal and eternal interests of the brethren, they, relying on ~~our~~ aid and blessing, purpose unceasingly to labour in this excellent and holy work of charity.

KEADY.

Much disappointment has been felt that no deputation has this year come to Keady. James Beatty interested the Collectors so much last year, that they are very anxious to see another pupil. An interest has been awakened, not only among the better classes in this neighbourhood, but among many respectable persons of the working classes also. A man of this class who gave six pence, said, when asked to subscribe, that he would rather want a supper for one night than refuse six pence to so useful an Institution.

KELLS.

Blessed be God, there are in this town and neighbourhood, many individuals who have the cause of Christ and his Gospel deeply at heart—who consider it a privilege to be employed in his service, and the extension of his kingdom on earth. They are necessarily the steady friends and supporters of your benevolent and Christian Society; and whilst we confidently hope they will continue to evidence their faith by their works, it is our earnest prayer that their example may be made instrumental, through divine grace, in exciting a spirit of Christian zeal and charity in the hearts of others.

KILKENNY COLLEGE.

In transmitting our Annual Subscriptions, we commend your labours to the Lord for his blessing, and have only to express our regret that it should still be necessary, from the deficiency of funds, to refuse admission to any of these poor objects, who, with "mute eloquence," are craving instruction in the word of life.

DUBLIN LADIES.

Your Branch of the Juvenile Association, being now called upon to tell you something of its proceedings for the past year; set upon the present, as upon many former occasions, much to sorrow over with respect to themselves and others, as members of this Society. Many "talents," given by the Lord, they believe might, if used with a single eye to his glory, have been productive of much blessing. But we do not presume to reckon with our friends, as the Lord will when he comes; yet, as "He has given to every one according to his several ability," we would only, in much humility, request that each of our members would put the query to herself, "How much have I gained by trading with the same?"

We rejoice to say, the children in whose behalf we would interest the young, have mourned unto those who not only wept for their sorrow, but, with the sympathising kindness of our master Jesus, seem to have asked, "What will ye?" and to have acted upon the answer likely to be received, "That our understandings may be opened." To those, as to our young and valued friends at Rathmines, we would say, our earnest wish is that the spark of Christian love thus lit may become a soft and steady light, to shine upon their path through life, and cheer the mourning spirits of many a dark and sorrowful heart. We gratefully acknowledge at their hands the sum of £22. 10s. From our valuable Auxiliary at Dundalk we also acknowledge the sum of £17. 18s. 1d. Making in all from our Association for the present year, an amount of £150. 16s. 2d.

NAVAN.

Though the remittance sent up this year from Navan is not equal to last year's, you will perceive that the increase in the funds last year arose from sources independent of this neighbourhood. That the interest in the objects of your Society has not lessened, will appear from the fact, that no name is wanting (without good cause) among your Subscribers or Collectors; and that £80 has been collected from four individuals, and paid as an apprenticeship for a girl who left your Institution in December last.

NENAGH.

It is with sincere concern we perceive the great diminution in the collections of this Branch, which in the commencement of its formation afforded a very cheering prospect, and seemed to excite the liveliest interest. Would that that interest had in any measure increased with the urgency of the claims that are being made upon this most valuable Institution, and that by our exertions we were permitted to aid it in advancing its objects, in accordance with the blessed example of Him "who made both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak;" thereby seeking to rescue from everlasting misery, and to cheer some of the dark and solitary hours of this deeply afflicted portion of our suffering brethren and sisters.

OMAGH.

We sincerely regret that our collection is so small, owing to carelessness or want of excitement of our juvenile friends. We think a Deputation would be of the greatest use, and stop the fast decreasing amount of our funds.

PORTARLINGTON.

We feel very happy in sending up the collection this year, it being larger than that of the last year, for which we have reason to be very thankful.

RATHFRILAND.

In giving a report of the Rathfriland Auxiliary to the Juvenile Association for promoting the education of the Deaf and Dumb Poor of Ireland, the friends of that Institution feel great pleasure in stating, that the amount collected here has much exceeded their most sanguine expectations, which they attribute principally to the very interesting examination of the Pupil who accompanied the Deputation at the time of the formation of their Auxiliary.

In order to ensure its success in future, they beg to suggest the propriety of the Society sending a similar deputation yearly, as thereby an excitement will be kept up, which will surely promote the interests of the Association.

SLIGO.

The meeting held by your Deputation in this town, in August last, was attended by the happiest results; a degree of anxiety on the subject of the Deaf Mutes was excited hitherto unknown here. The two Mutes produced on that occasion, Anne Mulligan and George M'Kenzie, created great interest, which has been followed by increased exertions in the collection of funds to secure their admission. Eighteen persons took cards at that meeting, thirteen of which have produced £20. 16s. 2d., which, with £2. 12s. 6d. subscribed at the moment, has this day been remitted to your Secretary, by an order on Messrs. La Touche for £22. 8s. 7d. There are two other young persons, highly interesting, for whom an interest has been created, and every means will be employed to raise further subscriptions.

WICKLOW.

This Auxiliary has now completed its fifth year, having been formed in 1831, and every year has, under Providence, crowned its labours of love with increasing zeal, and with corresponding success, and has witnessed many interesting young persons of both sexes, warmly engaged in endeavours to procure a Scriptural education for a class of their fellow-creatures, perhaps the most destitute and helpless. In the year previous to the last, one of these young persons, who had been an ardent friend of the Deaf Mute, was in the bloom of childhood, snatched away by the unsparing hand of death, not we believe, without having given some evidence of a renewed spirit; she was one of those little ones, who have indeed been "suffered to come unto Christ, and not forbidden"—and we trust, she is now in the enjoyment of a glorious, because a heavenly kingdom.

It is interesting to remark, that our Auxiliary did not suffer, although deprived of the valuable assistance of our dear departed young friend—that on the contrary, in the succeeding year, the mantle of her youthful zeal in the cause of charitable and scriptural education, seemed to have fallen on her companions and successors, so that, instead of falling off, our collection was larger last year, than it had ever been before, and the number of our collectors increased, as well as their diligence.

Our Auxiliary has from its formation, like the Juvenile Association itself, steadily and progressively increased in the number and exertions of its friends, and that, too, notwithstanding that this parish did, in the month of January last, respond liberally to the call of the Parent Institution at Claremont, and sent in the largest contribution that was received on that occasion.

Should we not unfeignedly thank and praise the Lord our God, who alone doeth wondrous things, and earnestly redouble our humble efforts to communicate unto others of the unsearchable riches of his grace, that multitudes who are, like ourselves, poor and needy, may indeed give praise unto his name, who loved us and gave himself for us.

Extracts from the Rev. Walter Harman's Report of his Tour in the South of Ireland, in October and November, 1835.

Cashel, October 20, 1835.

Our meeting, held in the Court-house, was not very large, but highly respectable, and apparently much interest was excited. The chair was taken by the Rev. Mr. Edwards. I had the pleasure of being assisted in the advocacy of your cause by the Rev. Dr. Bell and Rev. Robert Bell, of Clonmel, Edward Norman, Esq., Rev. Mr. Poole, and Mr. H. Overend, who kindly assisted in the examination of the pupil. Mr. Penuefather and Mr. Phelan, who had been private pupils at Claremont, were present. Collection in the room, £1. 18s. 1d.

Cahir, October 21.

At Cahir the meeting appeared to me to be small, but, I understand, was a good one for that town. I seldom met an assembly who appeared more interested; and I feel sure you may expect good results from the meeting. While waiting for the meeting to assemble I asked a little girl if she knew of any Deaf and Dumb children in the neighbourhood. She replied she did know two in one family; one it appears is an adult, the other of admissible age. The gentry to whom I subsequently spoke had never heard of their existence. Collection, 18s. I think you may expect an increased remittance from Cahir.

Clonmel, October 22.

Our meeting here to-day, though large, was not so full as I had expected, as our Fethard friends did not attend, probably owing to the bad state of the weather. The Rev. Mr. Rhoades, Rector, took the chair, and gave us very efficient aid. Our valued friends, the Rev. Dr. Bell, Rev. Robert Bell, Rev. Mr. Bleakley, Mr. E. Norman, and Mr. Overend, assisted me in the advocacy of your cause. I think you may expect that the next remittance from this town will more than double the last. Your pupil acquitted himself excellently well. Collection, £2. 8s.

Dungarvan, October 23.

Our meeting in the Court-house was not attended by any of the resident or neighbouring gentry, with the exception of perhaps one or two families, probably owing to the severity of the weather. The Rev. Mr. Dickson expected that we should have had persons present from eight miles distant, but they did not venture out, and we had a very thin assemblage. I was much disappointed indeed, for you should be in especial favour in Dungarvan, having elected so many children from that town and neighbourhood. Collection, 18s. 1½d.

Cappoquin, October 24.

The meeting at Cappoquin this day was very badly attended, from what cause I know not. The Rev. Mr. Gumbleton and Rev. Mr. Brown, from parishes adjoining, were present. I was surprised to find that £1. was collected, besides a subscription of £1. from Mr. Chearnley. There were few persons to take cards—those whom I could I enlisted; and though the meeting was unfavourable in point of numbers, I think you shall not have a falling off. The Rev. Mr. Archdall kindly offered his assistance.

Lismore, October 25.

In consequence of sufficient notice not having being given, we had not any meeting here; and I, therefore, waited on the Rev. Thomas Parks, and procured his permission to preach in the Cathedral to-day; the weather was so incessantly wet that very few were able to attend, and the few that came had no notice of the Sermon, yet the collection amounted to £4. 18s. Had notice been given, had the usual congregation attended, I am assured that the collection would have amounted to from £15. to £20.

Tallow, October 26.

From Lismore I came to Tallow to-day, and was kindly received by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Jackson, the Rev. Mr. Greene, Curate, and the Rev. Mr. Gwynne, the minister of a parish adjoining. The meeting held in the Barracks was full, and the persons present appeared much interested. I believe the Tallow people cordially assist in every good work, and though you cannot expect a large remittance, they will do something for you. I learned that there are several Deaf and Dumb persons in the neighbourhood, some of whom will be claimants for admission at your next election. £1. was collected in the room, and £1. was sent after the meeting to the Rev. Mr. Greene, who has consented to act as Local Secretary.

Youghal, October 27.

The lateness of the hour at which our meeting was arranged to take place prevented a large attendance of the gentry; however, the meeting held in the Mall-house was tolerably crowded. Mr. Greene took the chair. The boy's answers gave much satisfaction. The Rev. H. Swanzy and the Rev. J. B. Grey spoke warmly in the Society's favour. The Rev. Pierce Drew regretted that he was unable to be with us. Collection £1. 11s. and several cards distributed.

Middleton, October 28.

In Middleton my prospects of a good meeting were very bad indeed; the weather was particularly severe. The Rev. Mr. Jones, Rector of the Parish, and Patron to your Auxiliary, was from home, and Mr. Wilkinson, with whom you corresponded, was also absent. I, however, held the meeting, and received much valuable aid from the Rev. Mr. Freeman and Rev. G. Cotter, ministers of neighbouring parishes. We had no collection, but I trust some interest was excited.

Cove, October 29.

Here we had a very small meeting, though every necessary notice had been given by the Rev. T. E. Nash, who spoke in the Society's favour. I was much disappointed at witnessing the apathy of the residents; from the number of respectable persons living in the town I expected a large attendance, but found not more than thirty persons assembled in the School-house; this is the more to be regretted as I never yet held a meeting that did not find the persons present warmly interested in the cause.

Passage, October 29.

In the evening we had a very well attended, respectable, and particularly interesting meeting at Passage. An Auxiliary was formed, to be called the Monkstown Association, to which the Rev. Mr. Stuart is Secretary and Treasurer, and from the active interest he takes in the cause, I am confident it will prove a valuable one, though the place is inconsiderable in point of extent and population. 14s. collected, and several cards distributed.

Cork, October 30.

At Cork I found that every arrangement had been made, and notice given of the meetings. The first meeting, held in the Scots' Church, was tolerably full, but very badly attended indeed for a city so large, and having such a highly respectable neighbourhood. Mr. Cooke, an old member of your Society, gave me very kind assistance. Mr. McCarthy was called to the chair, and testified to the advantage of educating the Deaf and Dumb, from circumstances which had come under his own observation. Among many instances, he gave that of a friend of his, who, though thus afflicted, has so far profitted by education as to have become a most able conveyancer, and to be now considered one of the most eminent persons in that department at the English Bar. The Rev. Dr. Beaufort spoke also warmly in the Society's favour, and feelingly alluded to the case of three Deaf and Dumb members of his own family, who, through the instrumentality of education, are enabled to hold intercourse with others, with as much facility as hearing persons can do. The Rev. Messrs. Wigmore and Lombard (the latter of whom was much gratified by the satisfactory answers of your pupil to questions proposed upon religious subjects) ably advocated the cause; as did the Rev. Mr. Wallace, minister of the Scots' Church. Several cards were issued by Mr. Wigmore, who is a most valuable assistant, and a collection was made, amounting to £2. 13s. 6d. I attended in the same place in the evening at seven o'clock, but the severity of the weather prevented good attendance. The Rev. Mr. Duncombe assisted me, in advocating your cause. The collection amounted to but 12s. 6d.

Mallow, October 31.

The meeting here was thinly attended. The Rev. Mr. Hamilton in the chair. Several clergymen were present. The Rev. Messrs. Chester, Williamson, and Baldwin, were much pleased by the pupils' answers. £1. 9s. was the amount of the collection.

Doneraile, November 2.

At Doneraile I preached in the Society's behalf yesterday, and was much disappointed by the small congregation. The collection amounted to £4. 6s. Our meeting this day was very small. Few of the towns-people attended, and the gentry resident in the neighbourhood did not come in, with the exception of a very few. This is very much to be deplored; as if they could be prevailed upon to attend, they must necessarily feel interested, this being a Society which at once excites the good-will, and ensures the support of all classes. Rear-Admiral Evans took the chair, and very forcibly appealed to the meeting to come forward and assist; and the greatest interest was excited by the examination. After it had concluded, your pupil took upon himself the part of examiner, and put several questions to the boys of the Doneraile school. I took occasion to mention that two children had been elected from this place, for whom the Society are at an annual expense of £34, while the contributions did not amount to £4. Admiral Evans made some forcible observations upon the point, and set a good example, by handing £1 to Mr. Hill, and declaring himself an annual subscriber to the same amount. The meeting was also addressed by Rev. E. Spring. There are in the neighbourhood two deaf and dumb children, who will be candidates at the next election.

Charleville, November 3.

Few of the gentry were able to attend, in consequence of the great severity of the weather. The examination of the pupil, and statement in favour of the Society, appeared to interest those present, and a sum of £1. 3s. 6d. was collected. Miss Maxwell issued several collecting cards, and I hope good results may follow. There is a candidate for admission here at present on your list. I heard of another who is not yet of the eligible age.

Mitchelstown, November 4.

The weather has been equally severe to-day, and indeed I did not expect that we should have had any meeting in consequence. There were, however, a few assembled, including the Rev. Dr. Graves and his curate; and, as usual, the examination excited much interest. Dr. Graves expressed his perfect satisfaction at the answering of the pupil, and his determination to promote, as far as possible, the advancement of our cause.

Fermoy, November 5.

Our meeting at Fermoy was respectably attended. All present were warmly interested, and I hope you will have a satisfactory return. The Rev. Mr. White gave much valuable assistance in making the arrangements. There is a deaf and dumb child in the neighbourhood, who will be a candidate at next election.

The weather has been exceedingly severe, and my meetings consequently have been in general very badly attended. I trust, however, that the visit will prove to have been profitable to the Society. In only a few instances do I anticipate a falling off in the collections, which, I think, will be more than counterbalanced by an increase in other places.

GENERAL NOTICES.

I. CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee request the particular attention of their Correspondents to the following regulations, under which the privilege of transmitting letters at a reduced rate of postage, is enjoyed; as any departure from them will not only subject the Society to a heavy charge of postage in an individual case, but may be the means of occasioning the withdrawal of the privilege altogether:

1st. The sum of two pence must be paid with every letter at the time of the depositing it in the Country Post Office, or it will be charged full postage.

2d. Letters must relate solely and exclusively to the business of the Society, and are to be transmitted unsealed. They are not to exceed one ounce in weight, and are not to contain Cash, Bill, Draft, or Order for the payment of Money.

3d. In case you should not have in your possession, at the time of writing to the Society, one of its printed covers, you are requested to address your communications, "To the Secretaries of the Juvenile Association," under cover, as follows:—

NATIONAL DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION,

TO THE SECRETARIES,

16, Upper Sackville-street.

(Paid two-pence.)

Dublin,

4th. It is suggested that remittances of money may be made by means of Orders upon Dublin from any of the branch Banks, but, as stated above, such orders cannot be transmitted under the privilege.

2. CANDIDATES.

The printed form of application may be procured at the Office, No. 16, Upper Sackville-street. Their eligibility as indigent boarder pupils, depends on their being Deaf and Dumb, not idiotic, in good health, between eight and twelve years of age, and having had the small or cow pock. And the Answers, Certificates, and Engagements, in the printed form of application, must be filled up.—Any deception in these will subject the child to exclusion or expulsion. Paying Pupils are admissible after twelve.

3. ACCOUNTS.

As the periods for receiving advances on account of paying Pupils are quarterly, all Securities for paying Pupils, are requested to be punctual in remitting money, as soon as due.

4. VISITERS.

Visitors to the School at Claremont, are admissible only between twelve and three, P. M. on Fridays.

5. MONEY LETTERS.

All Letters of Credit are to be made payable to the Treasurer, James B. Kennedy, Esq.

GENERAL RULES.

NAME.

THIS ASSOCIATION shall be called, "THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND, AUXILIARY TO THE NATIONAL INSTITUTION AT CLAREMONT."

OBJECT.

The exclusive object of this Association shall be, to collect funds for educating and supporting children elected by the Association.

CONSTITUTION.

This Association shall consist of Annual and Honorary Members, a Committee, Three Secretaries, and a Treasurer.

MEMBERSHIP.

Every Subscriber or Collector of Ten Shillings annually shall be a Member, his or her name having been previously submitted to, and approved of by the Committee. Honorary Members shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting, with privileges similar to other members.

PRIVILEGE OF MEMBERS.

Each Member shall be entitled to vote at all elections.

RULES FOR VOTING.

At every election for Pupils, each Member of the Association, and each Auxiliary, shall be entitled to one vote for the first Ten Shillings, and one vote for every additional Five Shillings, contained in the sum which may have been paid to their respective Treasurers by such Member.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS.

The Business of the Association during the interval of General Meetings, shall be entrusted to a Committee, to be chosen annually, consisting of Thirteen Members, with power to add to their number, and fill up vacancies, three of whom attending shall constitute a Quorum,—the corresponding Members of the Committee, the Treasurer, and Secretaries, Ex Officio Members of the Committee. The special duty of the Committee shall be to supervise the interests of the Pupils elected by the Association, to extend it by means of Auxiliaries, and to augment its funds.

GENERAL RULES.

OFFICE BEARERS.

No person can be elected Secretary or Treasurer, unless he shall have been previously, one year a Member of the Committee. Any vacancy occurring in these offices during the current year, may be filled, by election, at a Special Meeting of the Association.

MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

The Annual General Meeting shall be held at Claremont, on Easter Monday, when the Members present shall breakfast together—the proceedings of the past year reported—Committee and Office-Bearers appointed, and such other business transacted as may be deemed necessary. An half yearly Meeting shall be held in Dublin, in the month of October, or such other month as may seem expedient; Quarterly Meetings in March, June, September, and December; and special Meetings, whenever a requisition to that effect, specifying the object of such Meetings and signed by seventeen Members, shall have been presented to the Committee.

MISCELLANEOUS.

In case any child elected by the Association, shall not be sent to Claremont, with the proper engagements at the time directed, his election shall be null and void; and the Committee are authorized to admit the child who shall have the greatest number of votes, next to those who were the successful candidates. They are also authorized to place in the Institution as many children, over and above the number elected at each Anniversary, as the funds of the Society, and the accommodations at Claremont, may permit; these children having the greatest number of votes always to be preferred.

The Corresponding Members of the Committee shall be elected annually, and be Honorary Members of the Association.

It shall not be competent for any Meeting of the Association to make, alter, or revoke any fundamental law, unless notice shall have been given at the previous Quarterly Meeting.

MINUTES

THE PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MEMBERS AND FRIENDS OF THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION, HELD AT CLAREMONT, ON EASTER MONDAY, 27TH MARCH, 1837.

Sixty-eight Members breakfasted at 16 Upper Sackville-street, at Nine o'clock.

At 12 o'clock, Dr. CHARLES E. H. ORPEN having been unanimously called to the Chair, the Meeting was opened by the reading of a portion of Scripture, and by prayer.

Mr BENJAMIN WADE read the Report of the Committee for the past year, and the Statement of Accounts.

*On the Motion of Mr. W. H. BUCK, seconded by Dr. NUGENT B.
DUNCAN.*

RESOLVED—That the Report now read be received, and together with the Abstract of the Cash Account and customary Appendix, be printed and circulated for the benefit of the Society.

*On the Motion of Mr. THEOPHILUS CAMPBELL, Seconded by Mr.
JOHN J. TWEEDY.*

RESOLVED—That as at all former times, so now we acknowledge, with deepest gratitude, the blessing which our Gracious and Heavenly Father has bestowed on our labours; and moreover, that we offer to Him our fervent prayer, that he would not suffer our work, in its grand end, to be in vain: but enable many, if not all, of the children placed under our care, so to testify to Jesus, as lights in the midst of the surrounding darkness of a "world that lieth in the wicked one," that when His kingdom shall come, they may shine as the Sun in it for ever and ever.

On the Motion of Mr. BENJAMIN WADE, Seconded by Mr. JOHN N. GRIFFIN.

RESOLVED—That we thus publicly express our great sense of the valuable aid which we have received from our many friends throughout the country during the past year: and that for them too, we lay our united supplications at the Throne of Grace, that the Father of glory would grant unto them that, being the sons and daughters of the Lord God Almighty, they may so walk worthy of this their high vocation and calling, as finally to sit down with Christ in His eternal kingdom, to share with Him His throne and glory.

On the Motion of Mr. CHARLTON S. RALPH, Seconded by Rev. C. H. MINCHIN.

RESOLVED—That the following be the Officers of the Association for the ensuing year (see page 2.)

An Election for Five Pupils having taken place, the following were declared the

REPORT.

For a period of Thirteen years has the Juvenile Association, instituted for the purpose of promoting the temporal and eternal welfare of the Deaf Mutes of Ireland, already been in existence; during which space of time, with the exception of a few solitary instances, it has ever been the happy privilege of its Officers, at the close of their respective years of office, to report to the Society an increase in its funds—a proof, we have reason to believe, that He whose glory is thus sought to be advanced, has accepted our imperfect labours, and vouchsafes His presence amongst us. And though upon the present occasion it cannot but be with regret, that your Committee announce to the Society, not only a want of increase, but a positive deficiency in their available income for the present year, below what they had to meet the expenditure of the past one; they are very far, they trust, from representing this fact with murmuring, as though it were to be received as evidence that the Society is not in its usual prosperous condition. They have not such narrow views of the real importance of the work, or the good it has already effected, as to think that those engaged in it, can be induced on any trifling ground to pronounce it unprofitable; nor can they entertain so shallow an idea of their love to God, or their love to man, as for one moment to imagine they would desert the list of its supporters, without finding, either that the end it had in view was not desirable, or that past experience had shown our inability to secure it. Least of all can they bring themselves to think, that He who has once shown His approval of the work, should cease to extend to it His favours. They leave the fact, then, before the Society, satisfied that could they see the cause, it would only furnish an additional proof that “God is love,” borrowing from the knowledge of it another motive to increased energy and zeal.

DEPUTATIONS.

Of the various Deputations which have proceeded during the past year, your Committee feel it unnecessary to give a detailed account, as such has already appeared in the Quarterly Papers of the Society. They would here merely mention the number that have been sent out, the parts of the country they visited, the persons who formed them, and the success which in general they met with.

During the past year, they were enabled to send out six; the first of which, consisting of Rev. C. M. Minchin, (a member of Committee) and a pupil, in the month of June last, visited your Auxiliaries in the towns of Wicklow, Rathdrum, Greystown, Enniscorthy, Wexford, New Ross, Thomastown, Kilkenny, Carlow, Tullow, and Baltinglass.

In the following August, the Rev. Walter George Harman, accompanied by a pupil, proceeded to visit your Auxiliaries in Duadalk, Newry, Warrenpoint, Rosstrevor, Rathfriland, Newcastle, Downpatrick, Banbridge, Pottadown, Hillsborough, Lisburn, Carrickfergus, Ballymena, and Glacehill.

In the month of October, the Rev. George Shaw, and the Rev. B. S. Clifford, of Carrick-on-Shannon, together with Mr. John J. Treedy, (a member of Committee) and a pupil, visited the South Western Route, consisting of Meath, Athlone, Loughrea, Galway, Ennis, Limerick, Turbert, Tralee, Killarney, Kenmare, Bantry, Skibbereen, Dumanway, Clonakilty, Bandon, and Kinsale.

Associations were formed, one at Roscommon, the other in the school of Dr. Brown, Bandon, and four which had discontinued their operations, viz. those at Gort, Tarbert, Kintowel, and Kenmare, were revived and reorganized.

The Rev. L. W. Hepenstal, with a pupil, visited in the months of October and November, the following towns: Cahir, Cashel, Clonmel, Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Tallow, Youghal, Cloyne, Middleton, Monkstown, Gork, Mallow, Charleville, Doneraile, Mitchelstown, and Fermoy. Through some mistake as to the place where the meeting was to be held, the deputation did not arrive in time for the meeting of your Monkstown Auxiliary.

The meeting held in Cloyne, was for the purpose of establishing an Auxiliary in that town, which was effected under very encouraging circumstances; and the amount then received contributed to your funds, considering the smallness of the town, and the fact, that there is another Auxiliary within three miles, at Middleton, has proved, that the expectations formed were not without foundation.

Your Committee were unable to make the necessary arrangements for visiting the Home Route, till late in the month of February, when Mr. Griffin, with a pupil, aided by the valuable assistance of your tried friends, the Rev. Robert Noble, Rev. Edward Nixon, and Rev. Walter George Harman, formed a deputation to the towns of Edenderry, Mullingar, Athboy, Navan, and Kells.

Separate meetings were also held during the past year at Kingstown and Bray. In both of these places your deputations were kindly received, and the cause of the Society warmly advocated by the respective local clergy. The Rev. Wm. B. Kirkpatrick, of the Scots Church, attended your deputation to the former town.

By a reference to past reports it will be found, that the number of towns visited in behalf of your Society, during the past year, though surpassing that of those visited in some former years, yet falls short of the exertions your Committee have been enabled to effect in many others. For this, however, they can furnish a very satisfactory account—the extreme difficulty of procuring the assistance of Clergymen, able to leave their respective charges for the length of time required by your Committee. The late appearance also, of your Annual Report, which it was not in the power of your Committee to prevent, was, in the early part of the year, another considerable impediment. Yet would they desire to feel thankful to the All-wise Disposer of events, for such a measure of success as he has seen fit to grant them. Nor have they any just cause for despondency; throughout the various towns mentioned above, with very few exceptions, your deputations received ample evidence, that the same love for the Deaf and Dumb, the same zeal in their cause, which has marked every former visit, still continues, and seems to be gaining greater strength, and to be assuming daily more and more a character of fixedness, in proportion as they have the more frequently presented to their view, satisfactory and convincing evidence, that the object contemplated by this Society, is no chimerical or rash attempt; that the Deaf and Dumb are capable of being taught—and taught the saving knowledge of the gospel. Yes, this once despised and degraded portion of our race are now no longer aliens in their own homes, or strangers in their father's house. The prejudice which led proud man to think, that because less afflicted, he was therefore less stained with sin; and consequently, more in the favor of his God, than others, who bore more palpably than he, the marks of guilt and tokens of its future penalty, is now dispelled before the light of truth, and succeeded by benevolence to all God's rational creatures; and strenuous effective exertions to compensate by our own talent for the privations of our less-favoured brethren.

Such was the spirit manifested by the sons of the Irish clergy in the Edgeworthstown Institution; who, unsolicited by your Committee and without their previous knowledge, formed themselves into an Auxiliary to your Association ; and the first intimation received by your officers of such a step having been taken was, a letter informing them that the sum of £14 3s. 8d. had been collected there for the benefit of the Society, and would be shortly forwarded to the office. If each school in Ireland, which your Committee have not yet been, and possibly never shall be able to visit, were to "go and do likewise," the parents or friends of 40 candidates for admission, who have been this day rejected, might not be compelled to receive the unwelcome, sad intelligence, that those objects of pity and children of distress, must still continue in homes where, if not neglected, they must at least be denied, from the impossibility of their friends conferring upon them, the blessings of a Christian education. Such also were the feelings indicated by the conduct of your Belturbet friends; who finding, that your Committee were not likely to send them a deputation this year, determined, even without that assistance, to hold their Annual Meeting ; at which the claims of the Deaf and Dumb were ably and effectively advocated, by the Rev. Messrs. McCreight, Beresford, Moffat and Winder ; and your Committee would beg leave respectfully to suggest to the various Auxiliaries, which may not happen to be visited during each successive year, (and that such should sometimes be the case, your Committee feel it impossible to prevent, owing to the difficulty of procuring clerical assistance,) to adopt that step which the Belturbet Auxiliary has thus shown to be a practicable and not unprofitable one; of holding an Annual Meeting amongst themselves.

As your town Auxiliaries had been visited so frequently during past years, your Committee thought it unnecessary to send a deputation to any but such as feeling the want, might call for one. And as the Bective house Auxiliary alone has done so, it accordingly has been the only one visited during the year.

PUPILS.

Of the Candidates for admission elected at your last anniversary, there were four ; viz. Isabella Tiggart, Elizabeth Aldgate, Alexander Acheson, and Laurence Reilly, whom their friends, after their election had been secured, declined forwarding to the Institution. Your Committee, therefore, according to the powers vested in them for that purpose, elected in the stead of the two former, Robert Atkinson, and Patrick Conway, deeming it more advisable, in consideration of the state of your funds, to leave the two remaining vacancies to be filled up at the present election. The rest of the successful candidates have been received, some at a later period than your Committee could have wished; circumstances, however, which they thought it imprudent for a time to obviate, obliged them to defer their admission for a few months.

During the past year, nine of your Pupils have been removed.

Mary McGennis, who had been in the Institution only for about one year and three months, died of Measles, on the 24th of September last. As she had been only for a short time under their care, your Committee are unable to state any thing satisfactory, as to her state of mind prior to death.

The number of your pupils in the school at the last Annual Meeting was 87; of these, by death or other causes, ten have been since removed, and to the remainder eight and twenty added—thus making the total number of Children that have been under your care for the past year, one hundred and five.

Does it require any further argument than the bare statement of the fact, that you are now pledged for the maintenance and education of these hundred and five Children, to induce you to more than continue, to increase your past exertions? If it does, your Committee know of none stronger, none that ought to be better calculated to awaken in you powerfully, every best motive to energy and zeal—than the additional statement, that you have this day closed the gates of Claremont against 49 applicants, anxiously seeking for admission. It is true, that with the exception of one, they are all eligible for future elections. But who can tell the haunts of vice and scenes of misery to which these unhappy objects may be exposed ere Easter Monday 1838 arrives? Who can tell how many of them ere then, may have exchanged time for eternity? and though it rests not with us, in unauthorized surmises, or unhallowed speculations, to follow them beyond the gates of the grave, yet this much it is for us to consider, that had we been more active, more self-denying—we will add more free from every wrong motive, more filled with love to God and man,—some at least of their number might have been brought within the reach of Gospel truth—within the means of knowing their own native and inborn corruption, and the one only shelter which they, or we, or any can fly to, as a “covert from the storm.” Fellow Members! let this consideration increase our zeal, and add vigour, energy, and love, to all our future labours.

Two of your pupils are, at present, absent on leave, viz:—

Edward, Payne and Charles Chitson, the latter, we regret to say, in consequence of ill health.

Your Committee feel it right to account for one item in the expenditure of the past year, which may appear beyond your particular province; it is the sum paid to the Governors of the Whitworth Hospital, for Margaret Gilleran, who has been under medical treatment, in that establishment, for the past eighteen months. However, as the medical attendants gave it as their opinion, that she could not be forwarded to her friends in the country without endangering her life, your Committee felt, that the inviolable principles of humanity called upon them, in this instance, to outstep the limits of their commission, in this application of a portion of your funds.

The friends of Isaiah Harris and Bridget Dunnegan have received the sums of £7 and £5, respectively, as apprentice fees for those children.

The Committee beg leave to inform the Association, that they have appointed Mr. William Hopper their Assistant Secretary, in the room of Mr. Robertson, an appointment which past experience leads them to believe, will much redound to the interests of the Society.

By referring to the Report published in the Quarterly paper of September last, the Association will find, that a new plan for the general management of the Institution, and for the arrangement of a less objectionable settlement between the Committees of the Parent and Juvenile Societies, was, at that time, under the consideration of both. Your Committee rejoice, that they have it in their power to report, on the present occasion, that this plan has now been finally arranged, and agreed upon, and that they expect to carry it into effect during the ensuing year.

To enter into a full detail of the errors and inconveniences of the late system would be useless; but the general outline of that now adopted, together with the peculiar advantages that may be expected to be derived from it, your Committee would desire, briefly, to lay before their friends.

Hitherto, the Head Master has received a certain sum, annually, for each pupil, which was to cover all the expenses of the Institution, with the exception of rent, taxes, salaries of teachers, and such extraordinary demands as were not included in his contract. According to the new plan, he is merely to provide food for the pupils, teachers, and servants, and the Parent Committee undertaking to furnish the rest, and to meet the remaining wants of the Institution, by contract.

or whatever other means their judgment may fix on as the most expedient. As his salary, the head master is to retain the dwelling house at Claremont, which he at present occupies, together with the ground attached to it, and to receive £1 per pupil. Thus freed from very many of the unnecessary and heavy burdens which he laboured under before, he will be enabled to devote more time than he otherwise well could, to what ought to be his more appropriate office, the personal instruction of the pupils. Your Committee are therefore, to pay to the Parent Committee, the sum which the head master is to receive for each pupil; and, besides, to meet their proportionate share in the other expenses. But, as the Parent Committee have still to discharge the rent and taxes, your Committee felt it reasonable and just, that as they have the benefit of the establishment, so they should, also, incur a portion of the expense, (not, certainly, an equal one, as they have no right of property in it,) and have, therefore, voted the sum of £50 per annum for that purpose.

In looking back at the proceedings of the past year, your Committee feel much cause for thankfulness. They see in the review many difficulties overcome—many barriers to success now removed, which they could never have hoped to surmount in their own strength. They use no feigned or insincere language in stating it as their belief, that there never was a period in the past history of the Juvenile Society, during which, its Committee had to face more formidable and discouraging perplexities; but they trust that they have ever looked to the only true source of deliverance from them, and if they have “waited patiently on the Lord,” they have not been disappointed. They are far from saying, that they have ever reposed in Him that confiding faith which His past dealings with the Society would warrant; but in so far as they have failed, they condemn themselves, and pray that God will never suffer their shortcomings to turn to the detriment of the Deaf and Dumb.

In conclusion, they can scarcely surrender their charge without a word of exhortation to their Fellow Members. It is true that you have done much, that under God you have been the means of diffusing an interest for the Deaf and Dumb throughout the country; but we trust it is not true, that you can ever so far forget what is left undone, as to rest satisfied with the past. No; never let it be said, that enough has been accomplished, until there cannot be found without the walls of your institution, or of similar ones, a single uneducated member of this unhappy, too-long forgotten class.

ELIZA WOOD has been elected a Pupil, and will shortly be admitted into the Institution. The amount received for her admission over the sum required, will be applied to meet the deficiency in the Cash Account, for the support of the Pupils during the year.

EXTRACTS

FROM

BANTRY.

Your Bantry Auxiliary feel rejoiced in being able to state that the interest for the Deaf Mutes was never more deeply felt in this place than it has been during the past year.

Your Auxiliary are glad that the large increase of the Funds they are this year enabled to send to your Institution, now fully justifies the suggestion they made last year, as to the necessity of sending Deputations to visit your remote Auxiliaries.

BELTURBET.

Your Auxiliary regrets that the amount now collected is not equal to that of the preceding year; the decrease, however, is not from want of zeal or interest in the welfare of your Association, the blessings and benefits of which, are being more and more appreciated. We pray that the Bountiful Giver of all good will be pleased to bless your exertions, and strengthen your hands in your most excellent work.

CARRICKMACROSS.

We sincerely hope that a Deputation from your Society will visit us next year, to put us in remembrance that it is not a mere worldly matter we are engaged in, but in the service of our Lord and Master Jesus Christ, and that "on, on," should be our motto, in defiance of every obstacle we may have to encounter in the performance of our duty.

CASHEL.

The examination of the Deaf and Dumb Pupil, at the last meeting, gave decided satisfaction to the interested auditors, and afforded ample proof of the utility of the Society. To dispel the clouds of superstition from the mind—to eradicate the atmosphere of ignorance in which the unconverted dwell, are objects worthy of the highest ambition; and surely to open the heart of the Deaf Mute—to draw forth and cultivate his reason—to make him a partaker of the happiness enjoyed by rational creatures, is an object to accomplish which we should all join heart and hand.

DUNGANNON COLLEGE

With sincere gratitude to our gracious God for employing us in His service, and sealing with success our exertions in His cause, we close the eighth year of our labours, engaged in for the relief of our afflicted fellow-creatures.

Believing that the work in which we are engaged is the Lord's, and feeling assured that He can make even the weakest instruments powerful to accomplish His own purpose, we desire to place all our trust in—and to give all the glory to the Lord of Hosts; and whilst we confess that our exertions have been but few and feeble, when compared with the greatness of the work, still we feel, that as the Divine blessing has evidently rested on these exertions, we have much encouragement to proceed with confidence, depending on the strength of the Lord, and the power of His might.

During the period of our existence, we have contributed to the Funds of the Parent Society a sum not much short of Two Hundred Pounds, and have been made instrumental in establishing three new Auxiliaries, viz. : the Dundalk Ladies', the Dungannon Ladies', and the Moy Ladies' Associations— all of which, it has pleased the Lord to prosper, and to render efficient fellow-labourers in the great and glorious work.

We would, therefore, earnestly call upon all our Members to be “steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as they know that their labour is not in vain in the Lord.”

ENNIS TOWN.

When we reflect on the unusual degree of destitution and misery prevailing amongst the humbler classes in this neighbourhood, and the frequent appeals made, both in public and private, to every individual capable of affording the slightest relief to the unhappy sufferers, we have reason to be thankful to the Lord for enabling us to send your Society our contribution, exceeding that of the former year, by even a trifling sum. Your Committee will perceive from the amount of our collection, though far inferior to what we would wish, that our exertions in this good cause are by no means diminished; this is attributable, in a great measure, to the interest excited by your Deputation, and we trust that “He who maketh the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak,” will raise up many more instruments to advance His own work, and to come forward in single-mindedness in the cause of religion and humanity.

ENNISKILLEN.

In forwarding our Subscriptions for this year, we regret that they fall short of those of last year. A new Auxiliary having been formed in the immediate neighbourhood of the town, in the Royal School, to which many of our friends have attached themselves, we trust, that although there may be an apparent diminution in the amount of the Collections from our Auxiliary, there will be in reality an increase in the contributions from this town and neighbourhood.

KELLS.

It is truly gratifying to all connected with this Auxiliary Branch of your benevolent and Christian Institution, that amidst the multiplied and pressing demands on public and private charity, which a season of unprecedented sickness and distress occasioned, the cause of the Deaf Mute has not been forgotten ; and that in closing our accounts for the present year, we are enabled to transmit for your wise and judicious disposal a sum of money, exceeding in a slight degree, that which accompanied our last report. "Not unto us, O Lord—not unto us, but unto thy name be the praise."

LOUGHREA.

It is with sincere pleasure and thankfulness that we find ourselves enabled to send in a remittance much larger than that of last year. The whole has been collected since the visit of your deputation and pupil in last October, by which very great interest for the Association was revived or created, as will be seen by the increased number of Collectors.

When we remember the severe sickness, and deep distress so generally prevalent during the past winter, we cannot, without grateful surprise, view the success with which our efforts in behalf of the Deaf Mutes of our country have been crowned. We desire to ascribe all the praise to the God and Father of all, and pray Him to bless the work similarly in future.

LURGAN.

In transmitting to you our annual Collection, we have to regret the falling off in its amount this year, which is chiefly attributable to the loss of several of our Collectors. We hope, however, to be able to supply their places during the ensuing year, and your friends here feel assured that a Deputation from your Society would materially further its interests, as they have not been visited since March, 1835.

OMAGH.

The people generally, of this neighbourhood, are anxious for, and interested in, the welfare of your Society. Our Funds are not so large as we would wish, owing to the many calls upon the inhabitants. A deputation would be of the greatest use. The good effects of your Association have been already felt here : who could attempt, with effect, to picture the rapturous joy of a parent when he embraces his sentient offspring on his return home after a short absence.

RATHFRILAND.

We cannot avoid expressing regret, that in forwarding our List of subscriptions for the present year, the amount falls short of the former collection ; amongst other circumstances which had contributed to this result, is the removal of some respectable individuals from this neighbourhood, who were much interested in the welfare of your Institution ; however, we are thankful that we have been enabled to send so much, and trust that we shall be visited this year by a Deputation from your Society, which would materially stimulate the exertions of our collections.

GENERAL NOTICES.

I. CORRESPONDENCE.

The Committee request the particular attention of their Correspondents to the following regulations, under which the privilege of transmitting letters at a reduced rate of postage, is enjoyed ; as any departure from them will not only subject the Society to a heavy charge of postage in an individual case, but may be the means of occasioning the withdrawal of the privilege altogether :

1st. The sum of two pence must be paid with every letter at the time of the depositing it in the Country Post Office, or it will be charged full postage.

2d. Letters must relate solely and exclusively to the business of the Society, and are to be transmitted unsealed. They are not to exceed one ounce in weight, and are not to contain Cash, Bill, Draft, or Order for the payment of Money.

3d. In case you should not have in your possession, at the time of writing to the Society, one of its printed covers, you are requested to address your communications, "To the Secretaries of the Juvenile Association," under cover, as follows :—

NATIONAL DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTION,

TO THE SECRETARIES.

16, Upper Sackville-street,

(Paid two-pence.)

Dublin.

4th. It is suggested that remittances of money may be made by means of Orders upon Dublin from any of the branch Banks, but, as stated above, such orders cannot be transmitted under the privilege.

2. CANDIDATES.

The printed form of application may be procured at the Office, No. 16, Upper Sackville-street. Their eligibility as indigent boarder pupils, depends on their being Deaf and Dumb, not idiotic, in good health, between eight and twelve years of age, and having had the small or cow pock. And the Answers, Certificates, and Engagements, in the printed form of application, must be filled up—Any deception in these will subject the child to exclusion or expulsion. Paying Pupils are admissible after twelve.

3. ACCOUNTS.

As the periods for receiving advances on account of paying Pupils are quarterly, all Securities for paying Pupils, are requested to be punctual in remitting money, as soon as due.

4. VISITERS.

Visitors to the School at Claremont, are admissible only between twelve and three, P. M., on Fridays.

5. MONEY LETTERS.

All Letters of Credit are to be made payable to the Treasurer, James B. Kennedy, Esq.

Quarterly Paper

OF THE

JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

NUMBER I.

*Committee's Office, 16, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin,
October 8th, 1834.*

At a Quarterly Meeting of the Association, held at No. 16, Upper Sackville-street, on Saturday, 27th ult., the following resolution was passed unanimously:—

“RESOLVED—That Quarterly Papers, not exceeding eight pages in length, be printed by this Association, containing an account of each Quarterly Meeting, extracts from the correspondence of the Committee, and such other matters as may hereafter be deemed useful.”

In pursuance of this resolution, the Committee beg to lay before their friends a brief report of their proceedings in furtherance of the object committed to their charge, and some other matters touching the interests of the Deaf and Dumb.

In entering on this duty, upon the discharge of which they supplicate the blessing of Almighty God, the Committee feel that they propose one likely to be beneficial, as well to themselves as to those who already are, or remain to be interested in the education of Deaf Mutes. They trust that with their friends, this little paper, which they purpose to print after each Quarterly Meeting, may tend to preserve those feelings of zeal for their cause which might otherwise subside—that it may, with the indifferent to, or uninformed of their claims, be, in not a few instances, the means of creating fresh support—and that with themselves it may serve to maintain constantly before their view the path of duty, and lead them to persevere in that course of active exertion which is alone compatible with proper hopes of success.

The space to be occupied by such matter is intended to be small, similar to that employed by other societies for a like purpose ; and though in doing so the expense will necessarily be light, yet even this would not have been incurred were there not a sanguine expectation that such outlay will be more than compensated by the increased interest which shall be awakened.

GENERAL MEETING.

The second quarterly meeting of the Association for the present year was held at 16, Upper Sackville-street, on Saturday, 27th September, 1834, at three o'clock.

The meeting opened with prayers.

Two letters were read, from the Rev. A. Sillery and Mr. Buck, regretting their inability to attend the meeting.

Mr. Secretary Shaw read the following Report of the Committee's proceedings since last meeting of the Association :—

REPORT.

“ Your Committee, in compliance with the wish of the Association, conveyed in a resolution passed at last meeting, beg to render a written and necessarily brief account of their proceedings during the interval.

Your Secretaries have forwarded a copy of last Annual Report to each member—some of the Auxiliaries have not been supplied, in consequence of not having answered the requisite enquiries.

On the subject of Deputations, your Committee have to report that since last Quarterly Meeting two have proceeded in behalf of our Association. The first of these, consisting of the Rev. A. Sillery and Mr. E. Pollock, accompanied by one of our pupils, commenced on 12th August, and visited successively 15 Auxiliaries, and formed one at Monkstown, Cork. On this route, the meetings at Clonmel, Fermoy, Youghal, and Charleville, were most encouraging. Your deputation received particularly kind attention at Clonmel. At Doneraile the meeting was small, but apparently much interested. Meetings were also held at Cahir, Cashel, Mitchelstown, Mallow, Cork, Cove, Middleton, Lismore, Cappoquin, and Dungarvan. Deputation returned on 30th August.

The efforts of your Committee to procure a clergyman to accompany the second deputation, which left town on 22d August, were ineffectual. It consisted of Mr. Theophilus Campbell, accompanied by one of our pupils, visited 13 Aux-liaries, and established three new ones. On this route, the meetings at Wicklow, Rathdrum, Gorey, Enniscorthy, Wexford, Kilkenny, Castlecomer, Carlow, and Thomastown were well attended and very encouraging. Meetings were also held at New Ross, Waterford, Naas, and Athy. Auxiliaries were formed at Tullow, Leighlin-bridge, and Mrs. Browne's school, New Ross. On the whole, your Committee have every reason to feel satisfied that, with God's blessing, the interests of the Association have been considerably promoted by both these deputations. There yet remain six routes to be visited previous to our anniversary, containing 67 Auxiliaries; and although there appears as yet much difficulty in the prospect of obtaining competent assistance for the work, your Committee hope to have realized to them the faithfulness of the Lord's promise, that "He will provide"—and trust that His spirit may continue to influence their old and valuable friends—that in the hour of need they may not be found wanting. The Association should now duly appreciate the importance of their Auxiliaries, and the value of having them regularly visited; and your Committee would urge upon each individual member to aid as far as possible their efforts in this behalf.

Your Committee have had, through a sub-committee appointed for the purpose, a careful and important consultation with the Parent Committee, as to the best means to be adopted for meeting the deficient accommodation at Claremont, and after mature deliberation, are of opinion, that the most proper remedy exists in the enlargement of the present premises. Plans and estimates for this purpose have been submitted and duly considered, and the work is now in progress. In consequence of the increased accommodation having been rendered necessary by the large addition to the number of pupils belonging to the Association, and the inability of the Parent Society, of themselves, to effect the requisite alterations, your Committee, agreeably to an intimation conveyed in last annual report, have decided it as proper, that a sum equal to about one-fourth of the whole outlay should be contributed by them. Your Committee obtains an equivalent interest in Claremont property, which cannot be disposed of without a proportionate reimbursement. They feel, however, that so long as God enables our Society to prosper, such a measure cannot be contemplated.

In consequence of the necessary change in the arrangement of the dormitories, occasioned by the alterations whilst in progress, it was deemed expedient that the friends of those pupils, for whose immediate admission there was not urgent occasion, should be requested to retain them until the buildings shall be completed. It appeared that 10 out of the 26 elected on Easter Monday should be admitted as soon as possible, and accordingly accommodation has been provided for them.

Your Committee have received a communication from the publishers of the "Happy Mute," offering to purchase the copyright, or urging an immediate reprint of a new edition. Fourteen thousand copies of this interesting little volume have already been disposed of, and the Committee fondly and gratefully perceive in this circumstance "the blessing of the Lord which giveth the increase." A correspondence upon the subject of a new edition is now being held with our valuable friend, through whose kind influence this little volume was obtained.

Your Committee have to mention that three cases of cholera and one death occurred in the Institution during last month; but have to express their sense of God's gracious mercy in thus early staying the plague. No fresh case has since occurred.

Whilst recording the many cases of grateful acknowledgment to God for his providence over their exertions, the Committee, though feeling that it is ordered by the wisdom of his unerring counsel, cannot refrain from expressing their deep regret at the legislative enactment which, coming into operation this day, deprives the Association, in common with all other religious societies in this country, of the valuable privilege which they enjoyed in the liberty of having their letters transmitted (formerly without any charge) at a very small rate of postage.

Your Committee trust that this impediment to the cause of Religion, at home and abroad, may not long be permitted to exist, but that strenuous and united efforts will be made by the several societies so deeply interested in its removal.*

Your Committee would conclude by requesting the prayers of each member of the Association, that they may in all things be directed by wisdom from on high.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were passed unanimously:—

1st. Resolved—That the Report now read be received, and inserted on the minutes of the Association.

2d. Resolved—That the names of the members in attendance at meetings of the Association, be regularly entered upon the minutes.

* The Committee gladly and thankfully announce, that since this Paper was put to press, this valuable privilege has been restored.

3d. Resolved—That it is with deep regret we have learned from the Report just read, that the valuable privilege of sending letters on the business of the Association to our several Auxiliaries, for the sum of two-pence each, has been withdrawn; and that we request our Committee to take such steps for the recovery of this privilege as may seem to them expedient, and, if necessary, to confer with the other religious societies for this purpose.

4th. Resolved—That it affords us real pleasure to find from the Report, that under the Divine blessing, the advocacy of our respected friends who have gone on Deputations for our Society, has proved useful in advancing the cause of the Deaf and Dumb Poor of our country.

The next resolution is that cited at the commencement of this Paper.

6th. Resolved—That each member of the Association be entitled to receive four copies of these Quarterly Papers gratis, and that for every additional copy one half-penny be paid; also that the same charge be made to non-subscribers for each copy.

Notice was given of a motion for next meeting, to alter the day of the Annual Meeting from Easter Monday to Easter Tuesday.

EXTRACTS FROM CORRESPONDENCE.

The following is extracted from the Rev. A. Sillery's account of his late deputation in aid of the Association. Some names have been omitted for obvious reasons, but any friend of the Association can consult the original document by calling at the Committee's office.

"At M—— a poor woman called at the hotel whilst we were at breakfast. I went out to see her. She addressed me in a very warm manner, expressing her great gratitude to the good Society at Claremont. She said she called to show her gratitude. Her manner was most affectionate and tender to the dumb boy with us. She said she had a daughter deaf and dumb, formerly educated at Claremont, and particularly enquired for Mr. Humphreys and Mr. Hastings, and many others. Her manner was very impressive, indeed, and I was moved by it even to tears. She said, 'Oh, Sir, my daughter was a good girl; she taught her brother the way to speak on his fingers, and she has taught me the knowledge of Christ. My daughter was my chief support, by needle-work ; she was a good worker ; she was known and admired by all the neighbours. But, Sir,' she said, with great emotion and energy of manner, ' the Lord was pleased to take my child to himself ; she died at Christmas last. She died happy, and hoping to go to heaven to Jesus. You need not believe me only, you can ask the clergyman who attended her when she was sick, and he can tell you the same.'

" I called upon the Rev. Mr. ———, and he confirmed the account of the poor woman. He stated that he visited the sick dumb girl, that he had many communications with her on the state of her soul and hopes of happiness from divine truth, and that he found the state of her mind and feelings most satisfactory and cheering. He conveyed to her she would not recover, that she would soon die ; and she replied she knew she would. He asked her where she hoped to go after death, and he said her manner was most energetic and expressive, indicating her hope of going to heaven through the work of our Saviour. She asked for some passage of Scripture to comfort her, and the clergyman quoted John xi. 25, 26, ' Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live : and whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this ?' She showed she felt the full force of that important passage, and communicated to him her hope to rise with Jesus. Indeed I could not, in this hasty manner I am now writing, owing to hurry, do justice to the important communication which the Rev. Mr. ——— made to me of the happy state of the poor dumb girl's mind on her approaching death. I felt more forcibly than ever I did, the great importance of your Association, the immense value of education to the deaf and dumb, and, above all, of giving them scriptural education ; of training them up in the way they should go, that when old they may not depart from the same. I told this anecdote in the succeeding towns which I visited, and found it had a very impressive influence.

Cove.—The Rev. Mr. ——— was greatly prejudiced against your Association. He conceived the deaf and dumb boy was made up like a parrot. He undertook to examine him himself ; kept the examination for an hour and a half by his own questions, and as the dumb boy answered him very well, Mr. ——— had his prejudice removed. He then addressed the meeting, stating he had been prejudiced on entering the room ; that by the examination which he conducted himself, to try the boy, his prejudice was removed ;

that he felt the boy was well educated ; that he felt assured he could not produce a boy from his own parish school, who could have answered better ; and strongly pressed upon the meeting the importance of the Association, and its claims on their support.

“ At M—— nothing particularly worth recording occurred, except the appearance of a dumb boy who had been educated at Claremont, and testified great gratitude, and appeared a fine young man. His attention and manner towards the deputation were most pleasing.

“ At Cork meeting, a dumb boy educated at Claremont appeared. His master, a lithographic printer, gave an excellent character of him—said also he clearly understood the atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ, and testified, by his humble and holy life, that he faithfully relied on the Saviour for salvation.

“ I conceive you have much reason for encouragement throughout this route to persevere. In many places the interest felt was very great ; and indeed I am inclined to think the interest in general is co-extensive with the diffusion of the knowledge of the practical utility of your Society, or at least of the results of teaching the deaf and dumb.”

The Committee will thankfully receive any information or interesting matter relating to the Deaf and Dumb, for the correctness of which they may be enabled to vouch ; as opportunity may frequently occur, when it might appear desirable to insert such in the Quarterly Papers.

INFORMATION RESPECTING THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION, &c.

We beg to present to the members and friends of the Association a comprehensive statement of its origin, constitution, and progress, which we find much wanting, notwithstanding all the means hitherto made use of for extending a knowledge of its objects. For further particulars we request a reference to the several Annual Reports.

The Irish National Deaf and Dumb Institution, established A.D. 1816, is situated at Claremont, Glasnevin, near Dublin ; under the direction of a Committee, whose office is at 16, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin.

The Juvenile Association was established A.D. 1824, for the purpose of raising funds to pay for the education and maintenance of as many deaf and dumb children as it might be enabled to place in the Institution. The office of the Association is the same as that of the Institution.

Neither the Institution nor Juvenile Association receive any grant of money from Government.

Deaf and dumb children are admitted to the Institution by election—the members voting according to their contributions.

Printed forms of application for admission may be had at the office.

A printed list of the names and circumstances of the several candidates for admission is circulated amongst the members previous to every election, and with it are directions for voting.

There are generally three elections every year—two by the members of the Institution, and one by the Juvenile Association. The name of every child eligible for admission is submitted to the electors of each Society.

The elections of the Institution take place on the last Friday in May and November: that of the Juvenile Association on Easter Monday, at the Annual Meeting at Claremont.

There are at present one hundred and twenty Associations auxiliary to the Juvenile Association, existing in the several parts of Ireland. The names of their officers and members, and amounts of contributions, are to be found in the Annual Report, which may be had at the Committee's office.

Collecting cards, &c. may be had on application at the office; and all collections from the country are required to be paid in, one month before the annual meeting on Easter Monday: those in Dublin are received during the week before Easter.

Every subscriber or collector of ten shillings annually for the Juvenile Association, is a member (his or her name having been previously submitted to and approved by the Committee,) and has the privilege of voting at elections—this privilege is increased by every additional contribution of five shillings.

The members of the Association breakfast together at Claremont every Easter Monday, previous to the Annual Meeting; and quarterly meetings of the members are held at 16, Upper Sackville-street, in the months of March, June, September and December.

During the first year of the Juvenile Association's existence, its income was £82. 16s. 8d. The income of the tenth year, ending Easter Monday, 1834, was £2,066. 13s. 7d.

The number of pupils at present upon the books of the Juvenile Association is eighty-six: of these some have not yet been received, their admission having been necessarily delayed until the increased accommodation, now in progress, shall have been completed.

The primary object of the instruction of the deaf and dumb at Claremont is to give them a scriptural education, while at the same time they are provided with food, lodging and clothing for five years, the time usually required for their education.

Some of the pupils are instructed in shoemaking and tailoring. The Institution is open to public inspection on every Friday, between 12 and 3 o'clock.

Quarterly Paper

OF THE

JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

NUMBER II.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, 27th December, 1834, at 3 P. M., at 16, Upper Sackville-street, Mr. Charles F. Smyth in the chair.

Meeting opened with prayers.

Minutes of last meeting read, compared, and signed.

Mr. Secretary Wade read the following

REPORT :

Agreeable to the fifth and sixth resolutions adopted at last Quarterly Meeting, your Committee have printed and circulated amongst the Members and Auxiliaries, the first number of the "Quarterly Paper," which they have reason to believe has been productive of good.

On the 29th of October, the Rev. Robert Noble, accompanied by a deaf and dumb pupil, proceeded on a deputation through the south-western and western routes, in course of which he visited nineteen Auxiliaries, and formed one new at Moate. Of the meetings held at the different towns, the Committee beg to present a brief notice, extracted from the very satisfactory correspondence of Mr. Noble.

Kinsale—A good meeting; Rev. J. Browne in the chair; much interest excited.

Bandon—A very large meeting; Lord Bernard in the chair; deputation supported by Hon. Charles Bernard, Rev. Messrs. Hill, Knox, Newman, and Mr. Conolly.

Clonakilty—Same evening; overflowing meeting.

Skibbereen—No meeting assembled on arrival of deputation, as through a mistake of friends there, the meeting had been advertised for the preceding Friday, when a large assembly attended.

Dunmanway—Meeting rather small, but useful, and much interest excited.

Bantry—Meeting small, being held on market day. This is a small town, with few resident gentry. Mr. Noble preached on Sunday to a large congregation.

Kenmare—Small meeting, but friends active.

Killarney—Good meeting; kind assistance from the Rev. Messrs. Herbert and Bland, and Captain Colthurst.

Tralee—Meeting very large; for the most part of the poorer classes; much attention and interest; four deaf and dumb children discovered in one family.

Listowel—Good meeting; Rev. E. Denny in the chair.

Tarbert—A small village; crowded meeting in Methodist Meeting-house.

Limerick—Meeting much prevented by excessive wet weather; about fifty or sixty ladies and gentlemen attended.

Ennis—An excellent and crowded meeting; Rev. Mr. Adamson in the chair; deputation assisted by Rev. Messrs. Young and Elms, and Thomas Mahon, Esq.

Ennis College—An excellent and efficient Auxiliary, under the superintendence of the Rev. Luke King; the Rev. Mr. Noble preached on Sunday; collection £6 18s.

Gort—No meeting, partly in consequence of the illness of the secretary there.

Galway—An excellent meeting; Rev. Mr. Burke in the chair.

Loughrea—A very good meeting; — Darcy, Esq. in the chair.

Ballinasloe—A good meeting; Lord Clonbrock's family attended.

Athlone—A very good meeting; the Rev. Dr. Strean in the chair; Lady Castlemaine attended; many deaf and dumb discovered in this town.

Moate—In the evening an excellent meeting; the Rev. Dr. Walsh in the chair. This only was formed as a new Auxiliary during this route.

During the entire of their progress, the deputation experienced much valuable attention and kindness, to which Mr. Noble frequently bears testimony in his letters to your Committee. But they do not feel themselves at liberty more particularly to mention these esteemed friends. They cannot, however, forbear expressing their hope, that their warm and indefatigable friend, whose exertions have been so frequently devoted to their cause, may long be spared for the deaf and dumb.

The Rathdown Auxiliary was visited at Kingstown on Saturday, 29th November; meeting held in Mr. M'Caul's school-room; the Ven. the Archdeacon of Kildare in the chair. The Committee were much disappointed in their applications to several clergymen for the aid of their advocacy on this occasion. The Rev. Mr. Sillery was, however, enabled to attend, accompanied by two members of the Committee. The meeting was tolerably well attended, and appeared interested. It is hoped that there will not be any diminution in the remittance received from this valuable Auxiliary.

Visits by members of the Committee, attended in most instances by a deaf and dumb pupil, were paid to the Auxiliaries in the schools of John Lardner Burke, Esq., Bective House; Rev. T. P. Huddart, Rev. Thomas Flynn, and Daniel Flynn, Esq., previous to Christmas vacations. The usual attention to the interests and welfare of the deaf and dumb was shown by the young gentlemen, and the same kindness on the part of the principals of the several schools.

This concludes the result of your Committee's attention to this department during the interval since our last meeting; they may also mention that they have made arrangements for another deputation to the county of Meath, &c., commencing on Monday, 29th inst., at Edenderry.

The arrangements about a new edition of the Happy Mute have not yet been concluded.

The building which will contain the Girls' New School-room and Dormitory, has been roofed in, and is at present in progress.

The Committee hope at this season of the year, when the peculiar pleasures of the domestic circle are enjoyed and appreciated by so many of their friends, that the cause of the sad and isolated mute shall not be forgotten, but that as a tribute of gratitude to the bountiful Giver of all good things, many a mite will be cast into their treasury, as a heart offering which may be instrumental in affording to these deeply afflicted objects of our care, the superior capability of which they are susceptible, and in rescuing them from a state of degradation at home, or from being houseless or friendless wanderers through a bad world.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were passed:—

Resolved—That Mr. Nugent B. Duncan be requested to accept the office of Secretary to the Association, in the room of the Rev. Arthur John Wade, resigned.

Resolved—That this meeting desires to express its sense of thankfulness to the Almighty disposer of events, who has vouchsafed such a measure of success to our late deputation, as recorded in the Committee's report of this day.

Resolved—That it be proposed as a resolution of the next annual meeting, that the annual meetings of this Association be held on Easter Tuesday in each year after the year 1835.

Notice was given of a motion, to be proposed at next meeting, for the discontinuance of the annual breakfast of the members at Claremont.

Resolved—That the attendance of members at these meetings be requested punctually at three o'clock, to avoid delay in the proceedings.

Resolved—That it is with pleasure we learn that the privilege of sending letters at 2d. postage each, has been restored to the Association.

Notice of a motion for next meeting was given, to restrict the size of the Quarterly Paper to six pages, with a view to diminish the expense of printing.

EXTRACTS.

The following extract of a letter from the Rev. Edw. Nixon, who formed the deputation to the county of Meath, &c. as referred to in the Report, will, we trust, be found interesting:—

“ Clonard, 10th January, 1835.

“ In consequence of the extreme wetness of the day, we had by no means a good attendance, either at Edenderry or Mullingar. I have reason to think, however, that the interest felt in those places for your Society is undiminished, and have every hope that there will be no falling off in the contributions.

“ Although the day was not favourable, our meeting at Athboy was well attended; and I trust that the indefatigable zeal of one of the warmest friends of your Society, the Rev. R. Noble, will insure to you a continuance of support from that quarter.

“ In Navan our meeting was, as usual, extremely well attended, and a great interest on behalf of the objects of your Institution appeared to be excited. The presence of a singularly intelligent young gentleman, deaf and dumb, who had been a private pupil at Claremont, contributed much to confirm the favourable impressions of the education given at that Institution which were made by the examination of the pupil. I think you may calculate on undiminished support from this very valuable Auxiliary.

"Our meeting at Kells was not so well attended as I had hoped and expected. The interest, however, felt, and the promises of redoubled zeal made by those who were present, will, I have no doubt, raise this Auxiliary to its former efficient state. Trusting that the Lord may prosper your good work, I remain, my dear Sir, your faithful servant,

"EDW. NIXON.

"To the Secretary, &c."

We extract the following from the Christian Gleaner for September and November, 1834:

"Those countries in Europe which stand farthest removed from each other, with regard to the proportion between the number of deaf and dumb and the gross number of inhabitants, are Switzerland and Belgium, or rather Belgium and Holland conjointly; for whilst that proportion does not exceed 1 in 2847 in the latter, it is at least 1 in 500 in the former; nay, in one particular district (that of Weyach, in the Canton of Zurich,) there are no less than 11 of these unfortunate objects in a population of 688 individuals; so that 1 out of every 65 is deaf and dumb. The people at Bern, peculiarly a region of lofty mountains and deep valleys, appear to be more grievously afflicted in this respect than any of their neighbours; for there we find the proportion to be 1900 in 350,000 souls, or 1 in every 350. The average for all Europe is about 1 in 1500 or 1600."

"A question put to Clerc, a deaf mute—'What difference is there between the Abbe de l'Epee and the Abbe Sicard?' His answer—'The Abbe de l'Epee invented the mode of instructing deaf mutes; but he left much to be done. The Abbe Sicard brought it to much greater perfection; but if there had not been an Abbe de l'Epee, there would not have been an Abbe Sicard. Therefore let us offer honor, glory, and eternal gratitude to both these friends of humanity.'"

"Clerc's epitaph on the Abbe Sicard—'Thanks to the divine goodness, and the genius of this excellent Father, we are become MEN.'"

Extract from a sermon in aid of the Deaf and Dumb Institution, preached by the late lamented Rev. Robert S. Crooke, the year 1830:—

"Here are minds which no human power can control—which no legislation can change; moral beings dwelling in ignorance, and therefore setting at defiance the power and the love of God; beings who, amidst all the spread of knowledge—the improvement of art—the progress of science—the advancements of refinement, must still continue the same. Shall preacherships and lectureships be established for the rich? Shall Mechanics' Institutes multiply for the middling? Shall Sunday and daily schools abound for the poor? and shall those who most need—who most prize instruction, be neglected? Shall we listen to the cries which are wafted across the wide Atlantic or Pacific, and turn a deaf ear to our own? Shall we forget the land that bore them—our natal air which nourished them? Shall we treat them as aliens, while we adopt the children of the heathen and the stranger? No, brethren, though deaf and dumb, you can guide their feet into the paths of peace; you can point their eyes to pages replete with wisdom, and the Spirit can make intercession for their spirit with groanings which need not utterance."

The number of applicants for admission at present is forty-eight.

OF THE

JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE
DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Secretaries and Members of Auxiliaries are requested particularly to observe, that the Committee are anxious that the amount of their Collections and Subscriptions should be remitted to our office on or before 1st April, in order that due time may be afforded for determining upon the particulars of the Election.

Members of the Association are requested to take notice that, for their convenience, Breakfast will be provided as usual at Claremont on Easter Monday morning at nine o'clock—admission by tickets, which may be procured, by MEMBERS only, on Friday and Saturday, 17th and 18th April at No. 16, Upper Sackville-street.—One Shilling each.

Other necessary information respecting the Election, &c. shall be duly afforded.

It is requested that all forms of application for Candidates for admission which have not already been returned, may be sent to the office without delay.

GENERAL MEETING.

The Fourth Quarterly Meeting for the current year was held on Saturday, 14th March, 1835, at 16, Upper Sackville-street.

PHILIP MARJORIBANKS, Esq. in the Chair.

The Meeting commenced with prayer.

Minutes of last Meeting having been read and signed, Mr. Secretary Shaw read the following REPORT.

It is a cause of regret to your Committee that, during the interval which has elapsed since our last Quarterly Meeting, their exertions have not been attended with so satisfactory a result, as they could desire.

According to Report then presented, many of your Auxiliaries remained to be visited, prior to Easter Monday ; and, fully convinced how deserving this object was of their earliest and most careful attention, your Committee were unremitting in their efforts to procure the assistance of those whom they deemed competent to take charge of this important trust. Many peculiar obstacles have, however, concurred in producing disappointment in almost every case, and it is now only left to them to appeal with earnest solicitude to the good feeling of the Secretaries to those several Auxiliaries, trusting, that, when these circumstances are understood, they and the other care-takers of these your valuable helps, will feel called upon to make vigorous exertion for remedying that deficiency of interest and of zeal, which might arise from the absence of our usual deputations. Your Committee have, however, much pleasure in being able to report, that the Rev. Henry Dobbin, of Hillsborough, has kindly consented to conduct a deputation on the North Central Route, and arrangements have been made, through which, it is hoped, that the greater number of your Auxiliaries in Tyrone, Derry, and Monaghan, with some others, may yet be visited, previous to our Anniversary ; the Rev. Edward Nixon has also arranged to visit our valuable Auxiliary at Tandragee, on Tuesday next, on his return from a Home Missionary tour.

A circular, containing resolutions of your Committee has been forwarded to each of your Auxiliaries, informing them of the period at which it is necessary their accounts should be closed, namely 1st April ; in order that the necessary arrangements may be made in time, preparatory to the election, which your Committee hope they may be enabled to determine upon, as to be held at our next meeting. It is needless to remark that the number of Candidates, whom they may then pronounce to be admissible, depends entirely upon the amount of income upon which they can reasonably calculate ; and they would, therefore, anxiously express their hope, that the Members in town, as well as the Auxiliaries in the country, will not be found wanting, in the exercise of zealous energy, for the improvement of the brief but important period which remains before the return of our Anniversary.

The new buildings which have been reported to you as in process, are duly progressing, and will, it is expected, be completed in about three months—a full detail respecting them will be presented in our Annual Report, which, it is hoped, will prove satisfactory, as regards the part which your Committee have taken in their arrangement. It is pleasing, however, to be aware, that your most liberal and active exertions cannot, this year at least, place before us objects whom we shall not be able to receive, as, on the completion of the present alterations, accommodation will have been provided for about one hundred and eighty children. We trust we are not too sanguine in looking forward to the period, as not far distant, when this Association shall be enabled, under the blessing of God, to avail itself of even this ample provision.

It is expected that the funds reserved, in consequence of the delay in the admission of the children elected last Easter, will more than cover the proportion contributed by your Committee to the expense incurred by the Parent Society, in the erection of these buildings—so that the grant of this money will in no way interfere with the number of children who may be admitted at next Election; whilst, if it had not been granted, the alterations would not have been commenced, and, consequently, no pupils could have been received in addition to the number, (now ninety-eight) already in the Institution.

The Editor of the Christian Gleaner, has intimated to your Committee, that copies for the last three years of that interesting periodical, (whose pages have so constantly advocated our cause, and whose profits have been chiefly devoted to our funds), have been bound in volumes, and are ready for delivery at your office, to Members of the Association and its auxiliaries, each volume to be sold for 3s. 6d. 1s. of which may be placed to the credit of the individual's card who sells, and the remainder to be returned for defraying the expenses of publication.

It is not probable that your Committee will again have an opportunity of meeting you before Easter Monday; they would, therefore, once more, earnestly impress upon all their friends, the importance of strenuous exertion during the brief remainder of the current year—that so, many of those sixty destitute Deaf and Dumb, who are now imploring your aid and protection, may be placed within reach of the temporal and eternal blessings which our Institution is calculated to afford, and which, if denied now, may be lost to them for ever.

We only ask you to suffer your hearts to be engaged in the cause, and then we confidently commit the whole matter, under God, to your care, feeling from experience how wonderful may be the result of individual efforts, when the energies are impelled by love to God, and love to our fellow-creatures.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be adopted and printed in the Quarterly Paper of the Society.
On a consideration of the notice given at last meeting.

relative to the size of the Quarterly Paper, it was determined that no alteration be made in the rules adopted on that subject at its commencement.

It was also deemed expedient to withdraw the notice of motion relative to discontinuing the Annual Breakfast at Claremont on Easter Monday.

RESOLVED—That this Meeting, reflecting on the short space of time intervening previous to Easter, and remembering the encouragement held out to labourers of even the eleventh hour by our blessed Lord and Master, the members present do feel it to be their duty to determine that with humble dependance on the blessing of the Almighty, their exertions during the time left shall be great, confident that He who has brought us hitherto will not fail us in the day of our need.

RESOLVED—That on no account shall any gentleman be permitted to breakfast at Claremont on Easter Monday, except a Member of the Juvenile Deaf and Dumb Association, and who shall have purchased his ticket on or before the 18th day of April, and those who have been invited by the Committee.

RESOLVED—That the resolution of last Quarterly Meeting respecting the alteration of the day of our Anniversary Meeting at Claremont, be rescinded.

NOTICE OF MOTION FOR NEXT QUARTERLY MEETING.

A Member gave notice that at next Quarterly Meeting he will move that the Committee have a discretionary power of determining what parts of the general laws of the Association are actually fundamental, and what parts of them are subject to discussion and alteration at the Quarterly Meetings.

EXTRACTS.

The following letter from Mr. P. C. Atkinson, of Moate, was handed to the Rev. R. Noble, on his visit to that town in November 1834, in aid of the Association, and is inserted with a view to showing the value of a word spoken in season :

SIR—Enclosed is a Thirty-shilling note, collected at different intervals from April 1833, until the present by the bearer, a little girl named ———, (about seven years old) for the benefit of the Juvenile Claremont Institution.

About a year and a half ago, the Rev. Mr. Minchin, I think of George's Church, visited this town to preach a sermon in behalf of the Church Missionary Society. Having afterwards visited our Sunday School, in the course of an address to the children, he alluded to a beautiful and striking incident in the religious experience of the Deaf and Dumb child, whose history is written by Charlotte Elizabeth, under the title of the "Happy Mute."

Little ———, who was then a pupil in my infant class in the Sunday School, was struck with the relation. After Sunday School I took occasion to remind her of what he said, as also to explain to her something of the way in which the Deaf and Dumb children are taught—of the Institution at Claremont, and the means by which the Juvenile Association is chiefly supported. After I had gone she expressed an anxiety to her parents to become a collector, and called on me next day for instructions.

She made five circuits of the town, and the result of her application is the small sum inclosed; she requested me to act as treasurer and secretary, to which I of course gladly consented.

I am, dear Sir, respectfully yours,
P. C. ATKINSON.

A Correspondent speaking of one of the Auxiliaries' meetings during the past year says, "The interest during the examination of the pupil, was very great—one poor superannuated servant present said—'Well if God would give me power to earn my bread again, I would give the half of my wages to that school.'"

MEETINGS OF AUXILIARIES IN THE NORTH OF IRELAND.

As noticed in the foregoing Report, the meeting of our Tandragee auxiliary was held on Tuesday 17th March, when considerable interest was excited, and some new friends engaged in the cause. The remittance from the Auxiliary, exceeding by one half the liberal contributions of last year, affords a pleasing evidence of the increasing interest and zeal exercised in behalf of the Deaf and Dumb, by its patrons and officers. The Rector of the parish presided, and the Rev. Edward Nixon attended as the deputation from the Committee, accompanied by Mr. Henry Tweedy.

Letters have been received since the Quarterly Meeting from the Rev. Henry J. Dobbin, and Mr. Edward Pollock, who are engaged visiting some of the Auxiliaries in the North.

The Meeting at Fintona, was as usual numerously attended by persons of the poorer classes, who appeared to take much interest in the proceedings.

At Omagh, our proceedings were interfered with, and no meeting held, on account of the unhappy concurrence of the execution of two men convicted of murder at the assizes.

The Strabane Meeting was very well and respectably attended; much interest was excited by the examination of a young man formerly a pupil of the Institution.

An Auxiliary was formed at Letterkenny through the kind co-operation of the clergy, but the delay of a letter caused some impediment to the efficient exertions of the deputation, and a mistake arose as to the hour appointed for holding a meeting there. It is hoped, however, that this will prove a valuable Auxiliary.

A crowded and respectable meeting assembled in Ramelton on Monday evening, 23d instant. An increasing interest in the cause is felt by this Auxiliary.

On Sunday the Rev. H. Dobbin preached in Derry in aid of the Association; and at the meeting of the Auxiliary on Tuesday, a very respectable and numerous assembly attended in the Corporation Hall. The Dean of Derry very kindly took the chair, and at the conclusion expressed himself pleased with the proceedings. A collection of £5. 10s. was made at the door.

The Meeting at Coleraine was very well attended and much interested in the proceedings. A family was discovered here, three of whom are Deaf and Dumb.

The Magherafelt Meeting was also well attended.

So far have accounts been received from this deputation up to the time of putting this paper to press, the results of the continuation of the tour will be communicated in the Annual Report.

The following scale will probably prove interesting to many of the friends of the Deaf and Dumb:—

RISE AND PROGRESS OF THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION.

In the Year	Members.	Auxiliaries.	Remitted by Auxiliaries.	Total Income.	Pupils
1825	58			82 16 8	2

There are now more than sixty applicants for admission to the Institution.

Quarterly Paper

OF THE

JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

JUNE, 1835—NUMBER IV.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, 27th June, 1835, at Three o'Clock, P.M. at 16, Upper Sackville Street.

DOCTOR CHARLES ORPEN in the Chair.

Meeting opened with prayers.

Minutes of last Meeting having been read and signed,

Mr. Secretary Shaw read the following

REPORT :

Since the last Quarterly Meeting held in March, your Committee for the past year rendered a final Account of their proceedings at our Anniversary on Easter Monday, which Report, with proper Appendix, was ordered to be printed.

Your Committee hoped to have been able to present this Report complete to-day, but several circumstances have concurred to prevent its being delivered so early as usual, amongst which we may mention with much regret the protracted indisposition of your Assistant Secretary; also, irregularity in closing their accounts on the part of several Auxiliaries, and unnecessary delay at the publishers.

It is expected, however, that in about three weeks it will be ready for circulation, when we hope Members will not lose any opportunity for fulfilling its purpose to the improvement of our cause.

Your Committee may here mention, that they issued a circular early in May to each of your Auxiliaries, informing them of the result of the last Election, and urging our claims for increased exertion.

In consequence of the continued illness of your valuable Assistant Secretary, your Committee have been obliged to apply to the Parent Committee for leave to obtain the assistance of a portion of Mr. Hopper's time and experience, which he has consented to devote to our business, and which was kindly granted by them for the period required.—It is hoped that under Providence, Mr. Bourns may soon be so far recovered, as to be enabled to resume the duties of his office, which have been hitherto fulfilled with so much satisfaction to your Committee.

With respect to the six Children, whose Election remained undecided on Easter Monday, on account of the Funds calculated upon not having been paid in, your Committee have much pleasure in being enabled to report, that a sufficient amount has since been received from the Auxiliaries, to warrant the admission of the entire number, namely, thirty-seven, as originally intended.

The new apartments which have been in process of erection during the past year, are now very nearly completed, and will be ready for the reception of the female pupils on 1st July next. The Institution will then be capable of accommodating from 160 to 180 Children. Of the 26 Pupils elected on Easter Monday, 1834, 14 had been admitted before Easter Monday last, 5 have been admitted since, leaving 7 girls who will be received if sent up next week. All the Boys Elected last Easter Monday, viz. 19, were ordered for admission to Claremont, on 1st inst. 12 have already arrived, and the remainder will be received so soon as they can get their outfits of clothing completed, and the necessary documents signed. The 19 Girls Elected at same time, may be received on 1st July. The Association will then be responsible for the Education and Support of 111 Children. One of the boys elected on Easter Monday, Patrick Magowan, died on the day following, and Jane Gibbons Martin, who had obtained the largest number of votes among the unsuccessful candidates, was appointed to fill the vacancy thus occasioned.

The number of Auxiliaries in connection with our Association is 118; of which 5, namely, Corglass, Gort, Lucan, Waterford Ladies, and Mr. Falloon's School, did not make any remittances during the past year. The amount paid by Auxiliaries on account of last year, viz. £1598 12s. 5d. exceeds that of the preceding year, by the sum of £3 6s. 3d. but the amount received from the Members shows a deficiency of £5 18s. 6d. and from paying Pupils of £14 10s.; so that the total Nett Receipts of the year ending Easter Monday, 1835, as compared with the receipts of the year ending Easter Monday, 1834, show a defalcation of £4 1s. The other particulars of available income, on account of the past year, amounting to £2766 18s. 6d. will be exhibited in Cash Account, printed with the Report.

Your Committee have not yet made any arrangements for Deputations, waiting the issue of the Annual Report, but purpose immediately devoting their attention to that important part of their trust. The difficulty of prevailing upon Clergymen to undertake the duty of visiting Auxiliaries is yearly increasing, in consequence of the many claims which press upon their time and exertion; and your Committee, therefore, anxiously look for a continuance of that kind support which your Association has hitherto received in this particular, from Christian friends.

The responsibilities of the Juvenile Association are now most important, in the sight both of God and man. Let us then not be found wanting in either our contributions, our exertions, or our prayers, or in grateful acknowledgments for the goodness of Him who hath hitherto helped us.

RESOLUTIONS.

RESOLVED—That the Report now read be adopted and printed in the Quarterly Paper of the Society.

RESOLVED—That Mr. Henry J. Porter and Mr. James F. Duncan be requested to take charge of a route, for the purpose of visiting such auxiliaries as may appear advisable.

The notice of motion given at last Quarterly Meeting respecting the Laws of the Association was withdrawn, in consequence of some slight alterations having been made in the Laws at the Annual Meeting.

NOTICES OF MOTIONS FOR NEXT QUARTERLY MEETING.

A member gave notice that at next Quarterly meeting he will move that a certain sum annually be appropriated to the apprenticing of the pupils who are at present in the School at Claremont, belonging to the Juvenile Association.

Notice was also given by a member that at next Quarterly Meeting he will submit some laws for the regulation of future elections of pupils by this Association.

Mr. Porter reported that the profits arising from sale of Happy Mute, amounted to the sum of one hundred and thirty-five pounds, fourteen shillings, and three pence, viz.

Profits on first edition, sold through Associations and members	£62	8	0
Ditto on second edition, sold through booksellers chiefly in London, who deducted the usual profit to the trade	33	6	3
Sale of Copyright to Messrs. Seeley and Son, London	50	0	0
Less donation to the Parents of Happy Mute, by desire of Charlotte Elizabeth	10	0	0

Total Profits £135 14 3

EXTRACTS.

We make the following Extracts from “the First Report of the West Bromwich Juvenile Association for Promoting the Education of the Deaf and Dumb Children, at the General Institution at Edgbaston, Birmingham, 1834.”

It appears that the amount of Collections to 20th December, 1834, was £49 18s. 2½d. and that £40 had been remitted to the Parent Society. This Society, though formed in imitation of ours, is not allowed to elect pupils to the Institution, but merely to recommend their election to the Parent Committee. It appeared by a communication from the Parent Society, that a Boy named Abraham Lacy, whose admission had been recommended, was accepted, and that £25 of the sum paid in, was to be appropriated for his Diet and Education during the first year, and £15 for account of the second year.

We also make the following extracts from the 17th report of the Directors of the North American Asylum at Hartford, Connecticut, for the year ending 11th May, 1833, which we trust will be found interesting :—

The number of pupils in the Asylum is 130, of whom 105 are supported by five different States, and 25 by their friends, so that the Institution did not supply gratuitous instruction to a single child. The number of children who had passed through the asylum was 316, making the total admitted since its commencement in 1817, 446.

The following is by a young lady 19 years of age, under instruction five years, on the advantages of education to the Deaf and Dumb :—

“ An uneducated deaf and dumb person is very ignorant, and never goes to school, and her parents cannot teach her how to read or write. She is a very disobedient, obstinate, and naughty person ; also, her parents advise her not to disobey them, but she is constantly disobedient to them. She makes them unhappy, and gives them much trouble. They know that she has no knowledge of religion, &c. When she goes to church she is in a state of ignorance there, and it is tedious.

“ She has not been serious and righteous. She plays every Sabbath day, and her parents advise her not to play, but she is very cross and bad. Sometimes she sews her clothes, or works, but she is not willing to help her parents. When she is sick she does not feel serious, and dies without hope of going to Heaven. Then she dies and is buried. Poor girl, she is very unfortunate in her state of ignorance ! She does not know about the way of salvation ! She is like a beast. An educated deaf and dumb person is wise and has knowledge of many things. Her parents wish her to know about the way of salvation, but they cannot teach her, because they do not know the language of the educated deaf and dumb. They wish to let her come to the asylum, but they have not money enough. Then they are very glad to hear that the governor has money enough, who can permit her to come here. They make her clothes, and pack them in her trunk ; then they carry her to the asylum. She is very happy to stay here ; they are sorry to leave her. Before their departure they advise her not to neglect study, nor to be lazy. They wish her to be industrious, and treat the teachers and pupils with kindness. She is willing to remember these things. Her parents return to their house and converse about her. They know that she endeavours to study. She begins to learn some words, and improves slowly. She wishes to study and attend school ; then she improves fast. She respects the teachers, and obeys the laws of the asylum. She lives here four, five, or six years, and can know about the way of salvation and the world. She can talk with the girls by making signs, and understand their conversation about history. She becomes wise and intelligent, and gains enough of knowledge of religion and the world.”

SEPTEMBER, 1835. NUMBER V.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Tuesday, 15th September, 1835, at three o'clock, P.M. at No. 16, Upper Sackville-street.

DOCTOR CHARLES ORPEN in the Chair.

The meeting opened with prayer.

Minutes of last meeting having been read and signed, Mr. Secretary SHAW read the following REPORT, FOR QUARTER ENDING SEPTEMBER 15th, 1835.

Your Committee have pleasure in being able to report, that, since last Quarterly Meeting, the affairs of the Association have been progressing to their satisfaction; and in this remark they especially refer to the subject of Deputations.

They would first mention some particulars respecting pupils. The friends of Timothy Lynch, Mary Ennis, Edward Kean, and Catherine M'Kean, having refused to send them forward to the Institution, Benjamin Woodworth, William Quintin, Bridget Conlan, and Laurence Hickey, who had the next largest number of votes among the unsuccessful candidates, were appointed to fill the respective vacancies thus occasioned. Bridget Waters, one of the children elected at Easter, 1834, having left the place where she resided when proposed as a candidate, and it having been found impossible to discover her, David Holmes has been admitted in her stead. All the children who have been elected by the Association have now been received into the Institution, except the following eight, who have been detained by some delay on the part of their friends, but it is expected that they shall very soon be sent forward for admission, viz.—Henry Pray, Michael Lyons, Ellen Reilly, John Farneen, Fanny Lynan, Mary Singleton, Mary Jane Ferguson, and Lucy M'Clinton.

Agreeably to a resolution passed at our last Quarterly Meeting, Mr. Henry John Porter, and Mr. James F. Duncan, having kindly consented to the request of the Association, proceeded, on the 27th of July, accompanied by a Deaf and Dumb boy, on Deputation to the West, where the cause of your Society had been previously but little advocated, and where, consequently, the aid derived from Auxiliaries was smaller than in any other part of Ireland—the province of Connaught having contributed to your funds only in the proportion of about two shillings per annum for each Deaf and Dumb inhabitant of that district, and in the County of Mayo there did not exist any Auxiliary. We have now, however, the satisfaction of being enabled to state, that there does not remain a County in Ireland in which your Association does not possess Auxiliaries. Your Committee begin, therefore, to perceive, with much pleasure, that the principle upon which alone they have hoped, under the Divine blessing, for success commensurate with their aim, is publicly and generally recognised as proper—namely, that a National Institution, whose object and operations are approved, should be supported by national contributions.

Our valued friends succeeded in establishing, upon this route, six new auxiliaries, and visited six previously established. This Deputation returned on the 8th of August.

Your Committee, desirous to avail themselves of the advantages which the season afforded, immediately made arrangements for visiting some of the Northern Auxiliaries, and, at the recommendation of friends, and in consequence of information derived from former Deputations, to establish new Auxiliaries at several towns in the County of Down, where they conceived the interests of your Association could be advanced.

Accordingly, Mr. Theophilus Campbell, who had experience in several former Deputations, kindly undertook the duty, having been promised active assistance by clerical friends in almost all the places which it was proposed to visit. He was accompanied by a Deaf and Dumb pupil, named Keane, whose intelligence appeared to create much lively interest. This Deputation proceeded on the 26th of August, and returned on Friday, the 10th instant, having visited eight Associations, and established eight new Auxiliaries.

Your Committee have perused the accounts of these Deputations with so much pleasure, and are so strongly impressed with the utility of recording their progress, that they prefer embodying as an appendix, and printing in the same form, the interesting details which they have received, rather than abridge for the purpose of compressing them into this report. Your Committee feel assured, that all who love to watch the advancement which the cause of the Deaf and Dumb is making in Christian regard, will anxiously refer to such particulars, and, perhaps, derive from them information by which their opportunities of usefulness may be increased.

Your Committee are daily strengthened in the belief, that under the same blessing and guidance which have been hitherto vouchsafed, but with much increase of zeal and exertion, there yet remains for this Association the glorious privilege of being permitted to see the happy accomplishment, when no Deaf Mute shall seek admission to the benefits of your Institution in vain. Much, however, remains to be done before such a desirable consummation can be accomplished; yet, though the achievement may seem great in prospect, the difficulty will diminish in proportion as our cause shall be made known, for just in the same proportion has it always advanced. Let none then sin through ignorance in that they befriend not the Deaf Mutes of their native land. One penny per annum, contributed by every ten individuals, would suffice to educate all the Deaf and Dumb of Ireland. There is wanting, then, but a universal effort. Your Committee would desire that each member, and each auxiliary, should feel themselves to be responsible for the salvation of the Deaf and Dumb, in just so far as they possess the means to aid in placing within their reach the glad tidings of the Gospel.

As it was in early times necessary that there should be heresies among believers, to prove their faith, so let it be understood as necessary now that there should be Deaf and Dumb to prove our practice; and this being regarded as a Christian obligation, may God cause all our exertions to work together for the increase of his glory, and to his great name be all the praise.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be received and adopted, and printed in the Quarterly Paper of the Society.

Resolved—That the Committee be authorised to apply in future a portion of the funds of the Society, to apprentice the pupils elected by the Juvenile Association, to proper masters and mistresses, under suitable local superintendence to watch their conduct and that of their masters and mistresses.

Resolved—That a sum, not exceeding one hundred pounds annually, be appropriated from the funds of this Association, and lodged in the Savings' Bank, to commence a special fund for the purpose of apprenticing destitute pupils, elected by the Juvenile Society and educated at Claremont, according to the discretion of the Committee.

Resolved—That in the event of any balance remaining at the close of the year on account of said fund, the amount to be voted for the ensuing year shall not exceed such a sum as may, with the remainder, amount to one hundred pounds, without taking into consideration any sums specially contributed for this purpose.

Resolved—That it shall be competent for the Committee to receive subscriptions or donations for this special purpose, and that same shall be placed to the credit of a fund to be denominated, "Apprenticing Fund," of which a separate account shall be kept.

Resolved—That the following rules be adopted for the regulation of all future elections of pupils.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED AT ALL ELECTIONS OF PUPILS
BY THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION.

1. That a Sub-Committee be appointed by the Committee, consisting of at least three members of Committee, to receive the votes and enter them in the polling book ; and that no other person be permitted to interfere in the taking of the votes.

2. That the names of all candidates proposed for admission be entered in all the voting papers, and that no votes be received for any child unless his or her name be so entered.

3. That all votes of Members, and of Auxiliaries voting as such, be entered separately in the polling book.

4. That no Member or Auxiliary be allowed to vote unless they give in, in writing, the names of such children as they wish to vote for, and signed by themselves.

5. That no alteration be allowed to be made in the voting papers after they have been given in to the Sub-Committee.

6. That no person be permitted to canvass for votes, on behalf of any child, in the office of the Society.

REPORT OF THE DEPUTATION TO THE WEST OF IRELAND.

Edgeworthstown, July 27, 1835.

DEAR FRIENDS—We were introduced to the Rector of this parish after service at church on Sunday, and we found that every arrangement had been made to procure a good attendance, as our little pupil excited much interest by answering a number of questions in the church-yard, while we waited at some distance till the arrival of the clergyman. At twelve o'clock this day the chair was taken by the Rev. Robert Jessop, who opened the proceedings of the day with prayer. Our cause was also supported by the Rev. J. F. Leathley and Rev. Richard Parkinson. There were two Deaf and Dumb children brought to the meeting, who will become candidates for admission, and we have heard of several others in the county of Longford, who are uneducated and inadmissible from age. We were much gratified to hear of the happy death of a girl who was educated in the Institution at Claremont, and we hope to get a full account of her last moments from the Clergyman who attended her. We gave cards to seven collectors, and the amount received at door was £2. 2s. 9d. beside a subscription from the chairman of one pound per annum. We were much pleased with the number of persons who were present, and the kind interest felt in the welfare of your Association. We were requested, by some Christian friends from Granard, to send a Deputation to that town, as there are several Deaf and Dumb in that neighbourhood. The Rev. A. Stuart was requested to become Treasurer and Secretary, in the room of the Rev. G. Shaw, removed to Drumsna.

Longford, July 28.

We arrived here yesterday evening, and soon ascertained that the parochial clergy had given sufficient notice of the intended meeting. We accompanied one of the clergymen to the house of a lady, whose son is your most active collector here. There was considerable interest excited by the continued questions and answers of this young lad and the Deaf and Dumb boy. We visited the jail, and heard from the governor that there was an uneducated Deaf and Dumb man in some remote part of the county, and that he had been more frequently committed to prison than any other offender he had met with. We have every cause to be thankful for the crowded meeting which has just terminated ; Francis Jessop, Esq. High Sheriff of the county, took the chair, and, after prayer had been offered up by one of the clergymen of the parish, the High Sheriff commenced business by making some interesting statements concerning the Deaf and Dumb, which came within his own observation both in this country and on the continent. Resolutions were moved and seconded by the Rev. Messrs. Hugh Crawford, Frederick Goold, Arthur J. Wade, and Richard Parkinson ; and we are also much indebted to the Rev. J. S. Williams for his kind co-operation. We have heard of four Deaf and Dumb persons in the neighbourhood of this town. The collection at the door amounted to £2. 8s. 11d. and the High Sheriff also subscribed two guineas, and expressed his desire to co-operate with our Association in every way in his power. Fifteen cards were given to the collectors after the meeting, and, while we are now writing, some of the juvenile collectors have come in to meet us at dinner at the clergyman's house, and one has already collected twenty-five shillings, another sixteen, and a third nearly as much, so that we may reckon on much aid from hence.

Strokestown, July 29.

We were accompanied to this town by our late Secretary, the Rev. Arthur Wade, of Newtown Forbes ; and, having waited on Major Mahon, we received the most friendly assurance of co-operation and support, though he and Mrs. Mahon were unavoidably absent from our meeting. Captain Conroy took the chair, and resolutions were moved and seconded by the Rev. Messrs. R. Cowen, Arthur J. Wade, George Knox, and John Lloyd, and your deputation. The Court-house was filled, but principally by persons in the lower ranks of life. Miss Morton was appointed secretary and treasurer to this Auxiliary. Eleven collecting cards were issued, and £1. 9s. 6½d. was collected at the door. At Major Mahon's house we met a Deaf and Dumb man, uneducated, who was employed as an inside servant ; his interview with the pupil accompanying the Deputation was exceedingly interesting, as he attempted to explain himself by his own expressive gestures, without being able to communicate his ideas accurately.

Elphin, July 30.

At this town we were kindly received by the Rev. the Dean, who became an Annual Subscriber to the Auxiliary just established in the town. He was prevented from taking the chair by an inflammation in his eyes. The Rev. Thomas B. Popham presided at the meeting, which was very respectably attended. Resolutions were moved and seconded by Master Lloyd, Nathaniel Gore, Esq. and your deputation. The Rev. Charles Smith was appointed Secretary and Treasurer: eight collecting cards were issued, and £1. 13s. 9d. was collected at the door. We anticipate much advantage to the cause of the Deaf and Dumb from the establishment of this auxiliary.

Carrick-on-Shannon, July 31.

The meeting in this town was very numerous and respectably attended. The chair was taken by John Little, Esq. and the several resolutions were moved and seconded by the Rev. Thos. Mansfield, Rev. Coote Molloy, Rev. Edw. Eger, Rev. Thomas Keane, and your Deputation. Thirteen collecting cards were issued, and a collection amounting to £1. 13s. was made at the door. From the former efficiency of this Auxiliary, and the very kind assistance given by the Clergymen of the town and neighbourhood, we expect that the revival of the Carrick-on-Shannon auxiliary will prove of considerable advantage to your Association.

Drumsna.

In the evening of the same day we held a meeting in this town, which was very encouraging. Your valued friend, the Rev. G. Shaw, took the chair, and assisted us in our undertaking by his friendly counsel and co-operation, for which we beg leave to present our best thanks. No collection was made at the door, but eight collecting cards were issued.

Boyle, August 1.

The meeting in this town was the most important, as well as the most satisfactory, which your Deputation have yet held. A prejudice against your Association existed in this town, in consequence of a misconception with regard to the admissibility of pupils to the Institution. The child has been permitted to remain uneducated, and is now over the prescribed age. The explanations which were given publicly by your Deputation seems to have had the effect of dissipating entirely this unfriendly feeling. A girl, who is too old for admission into your school, has been taken into the daily school of this town, and, by the persevering efforts of her friends, has begun to understand the meaning of words, and to make some progress in education. A boy, about eleven years of age, who resides in Tobercorry, has been also placed under instruction, with an intelligent teacher, and is now learning with considerable advantage. The chair was taken at the meeting at Boyle by Morgan Crofton, Esq. and resolutions were moved and seconded by Captain Caleb Robertson and the Rev. John M. Maguire. The Rev. Thomas Hacket was appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. J. M. Maguire Secretary. Sixteen collecting cards were issued, and £1. 17s. collected at the door.

Carramore, Ballina, August 3.

We arrived here at twelve o'clock on Saturday night, after a journey of forty-six miles, and heard of a Deaf and Dumb boy at Tobbercorry, a little village in the mountains between Boyle and Ballina. On Sunday we met the Rector of the parish, the Rev. Joseph Verschoyle, who kindly promised his co-operation. Our meeting took place in the Court-house, and was most respectably attended. George Vaughan Jackson, Esq. was called to the chair; the Rev. Joseph Verschoyle, and the Rev. Richard St. George, moved and seconded resolutions, together with your Deputation. The Auxiliary formed here is called the North Mayo Association, and will include Crossmolina, and the neighbourhood around, as it was thought unnecessary to hold a second meeting or form a distinct auxiliary. This association promises to be a valuable one, as the son of a gentleman in the neighbourhood, though not wholly Deaf and Dumb, was educated at Claremont, and takes a deep interest in the Institution. The Rev. Richard St. George was appointed Secretary, and Arthur Perkins, Esq. Treasurer. £2. 7s. 2d. was collected at the door, and thirteen cards were distributed to collectors.

Sligo, August 5.

The meeting in Sligo was the most encouraging we have had since we left Dublin ; it was held in the school-room of St. John's Parish, which was crowded very much. There were present no less than five Deaf and Dumb persons—Edward Lloyd Graham, a very intelligent young man, who had been educated at Claremont, and is now bound to a saddler ; James Galna, who was also instructed at Claremont, and who has returned to his friends ; our pupil who accompanied us, and two children, a boy and girl, whom we hope to have admitted at Easter next—the former is so far instructed, by the kind exertions of a gentleman who keeps a school at Sligo, that he can spell well and writes a little ; the latter is wholly ignorant, was accompanied by her mother, and so great is her anxiety to have her daughter educated, that she offered a pony to a gentleman, as a present, if he would procure admission for her daughter at Claremont, adding, that she could not keep her out of mischief, and that her whole time was occupied in watching her. Sixteen cards were taken by collectors, and £2. 15s. 2d. was received at the door. The Rev. Mr. Armstrong took the chair, and the Rev. Henry Murray, Rev. Mr. Green, and Rev. Thomas Shepherd, assisted at the meeting.

Bundoran, August 6.

This is a watering village, and the inhabitants, at this season, are altogether strangers ; we were led to expect little from our visit here, and heard few would attend the meeting. We were, however, agreeably disappointed, and found many auditors, who were greatly pleased with the examination of our Deaf and Dumb pupil. We procured eleven new collectors, who, we trust, will return to the inland parts of the country as zealous advocates for the Deaf and Dumb. In this respect, we have reason to believe, our visit here was of importance. The Rev. Dr. Russell, the Rev. E. Lebat, and the Rev. Richard Webb, were present ; the two latter moved and seconded resolutions. Edward Allingham, Esq. presided, and has been appointed Treasurer and Secretary to the Bundoran Auxiliary ; the sum of £2. 17s. 6d. was contributed at the door ; and we ascertained that the members of one family abstained from attendance at a concert yesterday, given by Signor Rigondi, in order that they might have the amount of their tickets to give for the education of the Deaf and Dumb. May we not expect that such self-denial will be blessed to themselves ; and that while they desire to water others, they themselves may be abundantly watered by the Spirit of the living God ? After we left the meeting we met Colonel Connolly, on whose property this village is situated, and we enlisted his son in our cause as a collector. We trust this influential family will add much to your funds.

Ballyshannon, August 7.

The meeting at this town was the first that was ever held here for the Deaf and Dumb, and though the sum of five pounds was collected as a thankful tribute, and remitted to the Parent Society, your Association never received any aid from Ballyshannon. We succeeded in forming an Auxiliary under promising circumstances—the Rev. George Griffith and Mrs. Griffith were appointed Treasurer and Secretary : the former presided at the meeting, in the absence of his Rector, the Rev. G. Tredennick, of whose friendly co-operation we are already assured. The Rev. John Kincaid and Edward Allingham assisted your Deputation in proposing and seconding resolutions ; thirteen collectors volunteered their services, and received cards and reports, and £2. 8s. 4d. was collected at the door. Mr. Griffith informed us of five adults in the town and neighbourhood who are Deaf and Dumb, and who are beyond the age of receiving any instruction.

Enniskillen, August 8.

We called yesterday evening on the Hon. and Rev. J. C. Maude, the Rector, who regretted parochial duty prevented his attendance, but stated his sons would be with us, and that he would be happy to further the cause we were engaged in. The chair was taken by the Rev. Dr. O'Beirne, and resolutions were moved and seconded by the Rev. Rich. Cleary and the Rev. J. Moore ; the meeting was not very numerous, but most respectably attended—sixteen collectors offered assistance, and £1. 18s. 1d. was collected after the meeting. From several of the lads who are at Portora School having taken cards, we anticipate good results—they appeared much gratified with the Deaf and Dumb boy, who spent the evening before the meeting with these young gentlemen.

In concluding the report of their labours, your Deputation beg leave to state, that in the short period of fifteen days we have visited four Auxiliaries, revived two, and constituted six others which had never previously been organised. Through the kind attentions of private friends, and of the friendly supporters of your Association, your Society has been saved considerable expense ; but much unavoidable outlay has been caused by our being obliged to travel a great distance in the mail and at night. The total cost of this Deputation has been £17. 4s. 7d., for which we have travelled 530 miles, being at the rate of eight pence per mile, including all expenses ; or of 7s. 10d. per day for each person. We have met with or heard of 19 Deaf and Dumb persons uneducated, who are too old to be admitted to your Institution, and 13 uneducated Deaf and Dumb children, not previously reported to your Society, who are eligible to become candidates for admission. We have distributed 147 collecting cards ; the collections at the various meetings amounted to £23. 0s. 7d., besides annual subscriptions paid at the meetings, to the amount of £8. 9s. We have received assistance and countenance from 25 clergymen of the Church of England, scattered over every part of the country we have visited, and labouring with piety and Christian devotedness in the work of their ministry, as well as from many excellent ministers of the Dissenting Churches. And now we would ascribe unto God, who has been with us in all our goings, to help our infirmities and to direct our operations, all the glory and the praise which may follow from our humble exertions.

Signed,

J. F. DUNCAN,
HENRY JOHN PORTER.

P. S.—We would recommend the following hints, to be observed in the arrangement of all future Deputations, and printed for their use :—

1. That no Deputation should consist of less than two persons, one of whom should be intimately acquainted with the management and proceedings of the Association.

2. That they should be always furnished with some of the large placards, so as to be posted up in any town where sufficient notice may not have been given.

3. That wherever practicable, they should always arrange to be in each town the evening before the proposed meeting.

4. That whenever a meeting is fixed for the middle of the day, the hour of one o'clock should be always appointed, unless some special circumstance may make another hour more eligible.

5. That inquiries should always be made, as to the number, ages, and residences of the Deaf and Dumb poor in the vicinity.

6. That all meetings should be opened by prayer, and concluded by praise, to prove convincingly that all the operations of the Association are conducted in the fear of God, and for the glory of God.

7. That every Deputation should be furnished with a paper for each town to be visited, containing the names of the pupils who have been admitted from its vicinity, of the candidates who have applied for admission, and such other local information as may be interesting or important.

REPORT OF NORTH EAST DEPUTATION.

The Deputation started on Wednesday morning, 26th of August, and held their first meeting in Dundalk.

Dundalk, August 26.

Considering all circumstances, the day being very wet, the meeting was respectably attended—the Rev. Mr. Moloney opened the proceedings with prayer. The Rev. Dr. Brough (formerly of Carlow) seemed to take a warm interest in the cause of the Society, and promised to exert his influence among the pupils of his school. An increased subscription may be expected next year. The Deputation received much attention from Major Frood, the father of our Secretary in this town. The collection at the door amounted to 13s. 6d.

Newry, August 27.

Of the meeting in this town our Secretary writes thus :—“ On account of the weather in the morning proving rather unfavourable, the meeting was not well attended, except by young gentlemen, who appeared much interested ; indeed it would be impossible to be otherwise, from the examination of the pupil.” The Rev. Mr. Weir (Presbyterian Minister) opened the meeting with prayer. An Auxiliary was formed in the school of Mr. Lyons in this town, whose pupils were much interested in our behalf. David Wright and Jane Hill, formerly pupils at Claremont, both attended this meeting. The unremitting kindness of Captain Ogle, our Secretary, deserves the warmest thanks of the Association, as also his increasing exertions in its favour. There was not any collection at the door.

Rostrevor, August 28.

No Auxiliary previously existed in this place—the Deputation succeeded in forming a most valuable one. Our meeting was overflowing—the room crowded to excess; and the great interest excited may be conceived from the amount of subscriptions on the spot, £9. 10s. 3½d. The Rev. Edward John Evans, Rector of the Parish, commenced with prayer. Your deputation examined the pupil, and detailed the nature and object of the Association. The Rev. J. G. Jacob having then pleaded our cause, the meeting closed with an hymn. Patron, the Rev. E. J. Evans; Secretary and Treasurer, the Rev. J. G. Jacob. The Deputation cannot describe the more than common interest evinced by all in this neighbourhood for our cause, and if it but continue, we will be nobly supported hence.

Rathfriland, August 29.

Our meeting here, though small, was very interesting, and we may expect a better attendance next year. Two children, candidates for next election, were at the meeting. The Rev. Hans Elsmere, and a Presbyterian Minister, gave their warm support to our cause. The Committee owe many thanks to Dr. Alexander and Samuel Murphy, jun. Esq., for their great exertions to procure a good attendance, and in consequence of which we were enabled to form an Auxiliary here, to which Mr. Murphy was nominated Secretary and Treasurer. Though there was not any collection at the door, yet £1. was subscribed before the meeting dispersed. Many who had not attended, expressed their regret afterwards.

Downpatrick, August 31.

A large and respectable meeting was held here, and the most lively interest taken in the proceedings by all present. Colonel Ford took the chair, when the examination of the pupil commenced, and the Deputation addressed the meeting, entering into a detail of the Society's proceedings since its formation. The Rev. John F. Gordon then moved, seconded by the Rev. Mr. Canning, "That an Association be formed in this town, auxiliary to the Juvenile Association," &c. The Rev. Edward Knox, of Ardglass, (through whose kind suggestions the meeting here was held, as also at Newcastle on the following day,) and the Rev. Mr. Leahy, respectively moved and seconded the next resolution. The Chairman having then expressed his unqualified approbation of the Society, the meeting closed. Officers—Lady Selina Kerr, Patroness; Lady Harriet Ford, Treasurer; Miss Miller, Secretary. The Marquis of Downshire, who was unable to attend, sent a donation of £1. and a subscription to the same amount. If this Auxiliary but continues as it has begun, it will be a most valuable one. The collection amounted to £8. 5s.

Newcastle, September 1.

Meeting thinly attended, contrary to expectation, yet those who were present took up our cause very warmly, especially some friends from Briansford, of whom Capt. Hill showed great attention to the Deputation. Lord Annesley sent £1. towards a collection. Officers—Lord Annesley, Patron; Rev. Mr. Moore, Treasurer; Wm. Beeres, Esq. Secretary. This new Auxiliary is much indebted to the kindness of the Rev. Mr. Skelton. Collection, £3. 5s. 3½d.

Portadown, September 2.

Meeting very well and respectably attended; the Secretary said the Auxiliary will not fall back either in exertions or collections. Daniel Munroe, formerly a pupil at Claremont, attended. No collection at the door. The Deputation discovered a Deaf and Dumb boy in this town.

Banbridge, September 3.

Though not so numerous as in former years, yet the meeting expressed great interest in the Society's welfare, and satisfaction at the education which the children receive at the school, heightened by the appearance at the meeting of two pupils who had been educated at Claremont—Patrick Pray and William Magill Martin. There is a sister of the latter at present in the Institution, and another who will soon be a candidate. The Rev. Holt Waring took the chair, and explained the object of the meeting. The Rev. Mr. Dickenson, the Rector, opened with prayer. The speakers were—the Rev. Mr. Johnston, Rev. Mr. Little, and the Deputation. Your Secretary is as attentive as ever to the interests of the Society. Collection, £1. 8s. 6½d.

Hillsborough, September 4.

A thin meeting. Archdeacon Mant in the chair, who commenced with prayer, and expressed himself much gratified with the pupil's progress. The Rev. Mr. Dobbin, a tried friend of your Association, addressed the meeting. Collection 14s. 6d.

Lisburn, Sept. 5.

Meeting not very numerous, but satisfactory. James Deviney, educated at Claremont, was examined at this meeting. Edw. Johnson, Esq. your Treasurer, showed very great attention to your Deputation, as also other friends in this neighbourhood. Miss Higginson was appointed Secretary, in the room of the Rev. A. Henderson, resigned. Collection, 5s. 8d.

Carrickfergus, Sept. 7.

The deputation were much pleased with their meeting in this town, which was very well attended, and had the satisfaction to remove some prejudices against your Society, which existed in the minds of the people of this neighbourhood, in consequence of some false statements circulated by a person formerly an Assistant at Claremont, and who was dismissed for harsh treatment of some of the pupils. An Auxiliary was formed, to which Alexander Johns, Esq. was appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. L. H. Carter, Secretary. Mr. Porter, a corresponding member of Committee, aided the Deputation here. Collection, £1.

Larne, Sept. 8.

Our friends here exerted themselves much in our cause, and procured a large attendance at the meeting. In consequence of the kindness and exertions of the Rev. Stephen Gwynne, who was appointed Treasurer, we were permitted to form an Auxiliary, which, judging from the interest shown, will greatly aid the funds of the Association. The appearance of William Mitchell, (who has left Claremont now upwards of two years,) at the meeting, proved the value of the Institution. Collection, £1. 16s. 3½d.

Ballymena, Sept. 9.

The Society appears to have the same hold upon the affections of the inhabitants of this town and neighbourhood as ever. The Rev. George Kirkpatrick, of Ahogill, greatly assisted the Deputation. Collection, £1. 4s. 1½d. James Beatty, who has lately left the Institution, attended here, as also at Gracehill, Evening, Sept. 9.

The same kind attention as heretofore was shown the Society's interests, by the members of the Moravian settlement established here. The collection after meeting amounted to £3. 1s. 8½d.

Warrenpoint, Sept. 10.

In consequence of a request made to the Deputation while in Rostrevor, on their return to Dublin they visited this town, and had the pleasure of forming an Auxiliary, which they trust will prove a very valuable one, from the interest which the clergymen of all denominations, as well as other friends, evinced in the proceedings. Officers—Roger Hall, Esq., Patron; Rev. Mr. Logan, Treasurer; Rev. John Davis, jun. Secretary. No collection.

The Deputation, in summing up their proceedings, state that in this route they visited eight Auxiliaries—Dundalk, Newry, Portadown, Banbridge, Hillsborough, Lisburn, Ballymena, and Gracehill—that they formed eight new Auxiliaries, namely, in Mr. Lyons's School, Newry, in Rostrevor, Rathfriland, Downpatrick, Newcastle, Carrickfergus, Larne, and Warrenpoint—that they travelled over a space of 402 miles—that the expense amounted to £12. 19s. 4d., which is on an average, for all expenses, seven pence half-penny per mile; and the collections at the doors to £31. 4s. 8d.

In conclusion, they would take this public opportunity of expressing their warmest thanks to their friends throughout the entire route, for their uniform and undeserved kindness, and they take it as an earnest of their exertions in behalf of the Society for the future; but would at the same time ascribe all the honour, all the praise, and all the glory to Him “of whom alone cometh every good and perfect gift.”

Signed,

OF
THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION,
FOR
PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND,

Auxiliary to the National Institution at Claremont.

DECEMBER, 1835. NUMBER VI.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, 12th December, 1835, at three o'clock, P.M. at 16, Upper Sackville-street.

MR. GELSTON in the Chair.

The Meeting opened with prayer.

Minutes of last Meeting having been read and signed, Mr. Secretary DUNCAN read the following REPORT.

The lapse of a few short months has again brought round a period when your Committee should render to the Association, an abstract of their proceedings during that interval. But ere they enter on the task, they would direct attention to an event which, being of paramount importance, they here at first allude to—an event which must sincerely grieve all who love our Institution and its objects, who have been for any length of time engaged in the cause, or who are at all acquainted with the origin and progress of our Association—the retirement from active co-operation with them of your late valued and efficient Secretary, Mr. James Shaw, as also of his brother, Mr. George Shaw, late member of your Committee. Convinced as you must all be, of the warm interest ever taken in the cause of the afflicted Deaf mutes by that truly amiable family, it is almost superfluous to say, that nothing but removal to a distance from this city has deprived us of their assistance and co-operation; yet though absent in the body, in spirit are they present with us. Their hearts still throb with anxious care for our prosperity, their prayers do yet ascend before the Throne of Grace, in earnest supplications for our spiritual guidance and protection.

On the subject of an Assistant-Secretary, your Committee have to report, that feeling the great obligations your Association was under to Mr. W. H. Bournes, for the unremitting zeal and truly Christian interest he had ever displayed in its behalf, whereby his health had been materially injured, they thought it but due to him and your interests to leave the vacancy open for some time, if it might please God to restore him to such a measure of health and strength, as to admit of his resuming the duties he had before performed with so much honour to himself and profit to your Institution; that hope, however, having proved delusive, they have with reluctance proceeded to the appointment of a successor, and have nearly completed the arrangement.*

Relative to Deputations, your Committee have great pleasure in reporting, that since last Quarterly Meeting they have been enabled to send out two; and though the season of the year was not perhaps as favourable as might have been wished; yet they trust, the Lord will be pleased to bless what has been done with an abundant increase. On the 21st of September, the Rev. George Shaw, of Drumsna, accompanied by Mr. Nugent Duncan, (one of your Secretaries,) and a Pupil, visited your Auxiliaries in Tullamore, Banagher, Parsonstown, Nenagh, Roscrea, Maryborough, Mountmellick, Portarlinton, and Monastereven, and formed two, not before constituted, in Templemore and Mountrath. In some of these towns your Deputation found the interest in your cause still warm and energetic. Some appeared like the church of Laodicea, lukewarm; but all, they trust, will evince the benefit of your visit, by an increased remittance next Easter. In all the towns the attention paid to your deputation was kind and hospitable in the extreme. This route, occupying a fortnight's duration, was performed at an expense of £10. 11s., while the aggregate of the sums collected at the various meetings amounted to £16. 9s. 3½d.

On the 19th of October, your esteemed former Secretary, the Rev. Walter Harman, accompanied by a pupil, undertook the Southern Route, and visited your Auxiliaries in Cashel, Cahir, Clonmel, Dungannon, Cappoquin, Lismore, Youghal, Middleton, Cove, Cork, Mallow, Doneraile, Charleville, Mitchelstown, and Fermoy; formed one in Tallow, and revived that in Monkstown, which had been previously established but had not sent up any remittance. In almost every town on this route; although the Meetings were in general thinly attended; in consequence of the very great inclemency of the weather, yet were they exceedingly interesting, and they afforded a strong hope that much good would result from your Pupil's visit. The expense of this Deputation, occupying nearly three weeks, amounted to £14 19s. 10½d., and the total amount of Collections at the several Meetings to nearly £28. Two Sermons were also preached for your Association, by Mr. Harman: one in Lismore Cathedral, Collection £4. 10s. 0d. and one in Doneraile, Collection £4. 6s. 0d. Various circumstances have prevented the effecting any other Deputations; but it may be stated that arrangements are being made, for conducting two in the course of next month.

* Mr. George W. Robertson has been since appointed.

The following Pupils have been removed since last Quarterly Meeting—Andrew Talon, more than five years at Claremont, to be apprenticed at Kingstown—Joseph Farrell, labouring under incurable bodily ailments, sent to his relatives at Longford—Elizabeth Dignam and Johanna Brennan, having been found idiotic and incapable of receiving instruction—James Craig returned to his parents at Ballymena, having been five years in the Institution—Daniel Quigly, having been found, after two years' trial, incapable of making further progress in consequence of deficiency of intellect—James Warrane and John Howard, having been five years at Claremont, were returned to their friends to be apprenticed. The following children will also shortly leave the Institution, viz.—James Williams, Michael Cody, Robert Gardiner, Mary M'Gann, Michael Grace, John O'Brien.

Your Committee having thus briefly alluded in their Report to the various topics of interest, which occurred since last Meeting, would suggest to each Member the propriety of asking himself, What have I done to advance the cause of Ireland's Deaf Mutes since we last met? For though your Committee alone are required to give an account of their proceedings, yet have all the Members in common, duties to perform in their individual capacity. Let each then commence with his own conscience, and see, if before that tribunal, he be found wanting in zeal, in energy or in prayer. May the Lord in his infinite and gracious mercy accompanying the exercise to each of us with an abundant blessing, and the rich effusion of His Grace, so in all our several thoughts, words, and actions, as a Committee or as Members, the emancipation of the Deaf Mutes from ignorance and vice, may be speedily promoted to the honour and glory of Him, "who alone doeth wonders among the children of men." Amen.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be received, printed and circulated amongst the Members and Friends of the Society, together with such appendix as may be deemed necessary.

Resolved—That in accepting the resignation of our late Secretary, Mr. James Shaw, we cannot omit rendering our united testimony, in recording his unceasing zeal and unremitting labours for the benefit of your Association, and in awarding him our thanks as a body, and that we do appoint him a corresponding Member of our Committee.

Resolved—That Mr. Theophilus Campbell be appointed Secretary, in the room of Mr. Shaw resigned.

Resolved—That for the future the Quarterly Meetings of the Association be opened to the public generally, and that an examination of one or more pupils be held, such examination to commence at 2 o'clock.

NOTICES OF MOTIONS FOR NEXT QUARTERLY MEETING,

That for the future Corresponding Members of Committee be appointed only at the Annual Meetings of the Association, that their office shall expire, like that of the Committee at the succeeding Anniversary, and that they be subject to such restrictions as the Committee may deem fit.

That each year, at least six persons, not hitherto Members of the Committee, be appointed on the Committee.

AN APPEAL TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION.

DEAR FRIENDS.—The Committee having perceived with very great regret, the small attendance of the Members at the Quarterly Meetings of the Association, feel themselves called upon, in answer to the suggestion of a Member of the Association at the Meeting on the 12th Instant, to appeal generally to the Members resident in Dublin, in order to induce a more full attendance in future. It must be to those deeply interested and engaged in the cause of the Deaf Mutes, whether Members of the Committee or merely of the Association, a source of sorrow, that while the claims of these poor creatures are felt throughout the country, and the Meetings of the Association held in the different parts of the Island are numerous and respectably attended, yet there is such apathy and carelessness among the Members resident in Dublin, that the Quarterly Meetings of the Association can scarcely be constituted, so few are the persons attending. Doubtless our friends in the country will be surprised to hear, when our next Quarterly Paper reaches them, that out of Seventy-one Members summoned, besides the Members of the Association in the Schools in Dublin, all of whom are privileged to attend and vote as Members, only Fourteen were present. The Committee would fain hope that this arises not from apathy or neglect, and that when now so particularly noticed, it shall never occur again. They have endeavoured to make the Meetings as interesting as possible, and in order to this, as may be seen from the proceedings of last Meeting, have proposed a resolution that a quarterly examination of one or more of the Pupils shall take place, the friends of the Members and the public generally being admitted thereto. They would direct attention to the Notices of Motions for discussion at next Meeting, all of them containing matter of interest as well as moment, and would earnestly entreat the Members' attendance then. If any say the Meetings are very uninteresting—we say, they are so, because you make them so. How can they interest you, if you do not attend and take an interest in them?

Dear Friends, attend our Meetings, interest yourself in them, and be assured they will then interest you. During the intervals of Meeting, think of something that may be of benefit to the cause we have so deeply at heart, then come forward and propose it for discussion to the Members; you will thus find yourself insensibly drawn into, not only an interest, but a deep and lasting interest, which you will never have reason to regret. Hoping to see you at our next Meeting in March,

We remain,

Dear fellow labourers,

Your sincere well-wishers,

(On behalf of the Committee,)

BENJAMIN WADE, NUGENT B. DUNCAN, THEOPHILUS CAMPBELL,	}	Secretaries.

EXTRACTS FROM CORRESPONDENCE.

Maryborough.

"Your Deputation were here much pleased with the agreeable accounts concerning Martha Clinton, a former Pupil of yours, whom they had an opportunity of conversing with, at the house of a zealous friend to the cause."

Donerail.

"It is really most dispiriting to witness the apathy to aid benevolent and Christian purposes, which prevails so much in this country, and indeed in every place which I have visited; though there is wealth enough, and more than enough in our land, to relieve the temporal and spiritual wants of all our fellows, if only the hearts and hands of those possessing it could be opened."

Ditto.

"The weather on the day following was equally severe; indeed I did not expect I would have been able to hold a meeting at Mitchelstown in consequence. The Rev. Dr. Graves, his Curate, and a few Ladies were present, and as usual, the examination gave much satisfaction. Dr. Graves expressed his perfect satisfaction at the Pupil's answers, and his determination to do every thing in his power for the advancement of the cause."

THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR

PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

Auxiliary to the National Institution at Claremont.

MARCH 1836.—NUMBER VII.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, 5th of March 1836, at two o'clock P.M. at 16. Upper Sackville-street.

JOHN RINGLAND, Esq. in the Chair.

Previous to the Commencement of the ordinary business of the Association, two Male Pupils of the Claremont Institution were examined in Scripture, Geography, Arithmetic, and general subjects. Their answering elicited from a numerous and highly respectable audience the most unqualified approbation, which having concluded,—

At three o'clock P.M. the Meeting proceeded to business, which was commenced with prayer. Mr. Secretary Campbell read the following

REPORT.

Though your Committee stated at last Meeting that arrangements were being made for effecting two deputations during the past quarter, they have to report their inability to accomplish this their intention. This was owing to circumstances unavoidable on the part of the Committee, chiefly their friends, on whom they relied to form their deputations, being obliged to postpone their tour till next year.

However, the Rev. L. W. Hepenstal, a tried and valued friend to your Association, accompanied by a pupil, proceeded northward on behalf of the Society. Visiting your auxiliaries in the towns of Rathangan, Edenderry, Mullingar, Athboy, Navan, Kells, Cavan, Belturbet, and Monaghan, in all which the interest of the Association appeared to be duly appreciated, and the attention of friends rather increased than abated. He also succeeded in establishing two new Auxiliaries in the towns of Clones and Carrickmacross, owing to the very great kindness of the resident Clergy and Gentry. From the lively interest evinced in our cause, we can have no reason to doubt that we shall receive very valuable assistance from these places. The deputation thus visited nine old, and formed two new Auxiliaries, at the very trifling expense of £6 15s. 8d. Mr. Hepenstal, during the tour, preached three Sermons in favour of the cause, two in Edenderry on Sunday the 7th of February, and the other in Cavan on Sunday the 14th of same month. The collection at the former place, including that of meeting, amounted to £2. 7s. 0d. At the latter there was not any, owing to the very short notice that was unavoidably obliged to be given. A more full and detailed account of this tour will be given in an appendix.

Your Committee attended with a pupil at the Rev. T. P. Huddart's, Mountjoy-square, Rev. E. C. Allen's, Peter's-row, at Bective-house, and the Luxembourg Institution, in order to stir up the respective Auxiliaries in these schools. They were received with unvarying kindness and encouragement by the heads of the several Seminaries, and with interest by the pupils, and are led to hope for increased subscriptions from each.

Relative to pupils, your Committee have to report, that the friends of John Farneen, who was elected last Easter, having declined sending him to the Institution, Patrick Kane has been admitted in his place, agreeably to the 10th rule of the Association. Mary Singleton and Henry Pray, the former on December 4, the latter on February 8, have also been admitted. James Williams in December, Mary M'Gann and Michael Cody in January, Michael Grace and Michael Maily in February, and John O'Brien in March, have been removed from Claremont for various causes.

The above is an outline of the workings of the Society during the past quarter, which the Committee deem of general interest to the Members. The Committee are themselves employed in forwarding to, and receiving from the various Auxiliaries throughout the country, reports of their proceedings during the past year—in preparing thelection lists, which they hope to be enabled to circulate next week,—and in settling the other business of the Association, so as to render up a faithful and correct account of the trust confided to them, at the next anniversary to be held Easter Monday, April 4th, 1836.

In conclusion, we have one word to say to the Members. Last year's cash-account showed a deficiency of £4. 1s. Od. in the total received from you. Had it not been for a large sum remitted by the Parent Society, we would not have been able to have increased the number of our pupils. We trust this will not occur again, but that each member will so labour, as if the Society's existence depended on his or her individual exertions.

The Committee earnestly wish that the young gentlemen who purpose breakfasting at Claremont on Easter Monday, will apply at the office for their tickets (price 1s.) on the Friday or Saturday preceding, as, by not doing so, the Committee are ignorant how many they should provide for. It generally happens that the funds of the Society suffer in consequence. They would also feel obliged by the Members returning to the office their election lists prior to the day of meeting.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be received and printed, with such appendix as may be deemed necessary.

Resolved—That, for the future, corresponding Members of Committee be appointed only at the Annual Meetings of the Association that their office shall expire, like that of the Committee, at the succeeding Anniversary, and that they be subject to such restrictions as the Committee may deem fit.

According to a notice of motion given at the last Quarterly Meeting, relative to the appointment of Committees, a Resolution having been proposed and seconded, the following Amendment was put and carried :—

Resolved—That the custom which has hitherto been acted upon in reference to the annual appointment of the Committee (viz. that of electing three new Members,) be still adhered to.

THE FOLLOWING NOTICE OF MOTION WAS GIVEN :—

That the Committee be empowered to select from the list of unsuccessful candidates as many children as the funds and accommodation at Claremont will permit, over and above those to be elected at each anniversary;—those having the greatest number of votes to be preferred.

APPENDIX.

Report of the Rev. L. W. Hepenstal, Feb. 20 1836.

Gentlemen—

It has pleased Almighty God to allow me sufficient health to conclude the deputation which I undertook for your Society: I trust He has also blessed its progress; to Him therefore, would I devoutly offer up praises for this His mercy.

It is now my duty to lay before you a short outline of my proceedings.

I left Dublin on Friday February 5th, with a boy named George Keane, for Rathangan.

On Saturday the 8th—Held a meeting there. There was a very small attendance, partly owing to some mistake in the notices not having arrived by the boat until the following day. It had, however, been made known to several. The Rev. Mr. Tottenham advocated the cause with great warmth of heart. Though but few attended, yet we may hope much from the activity of your very intelligent Secretary here. Miss S.M. Gatchhell commenced with a Psalm, and concluded with a Hymn.—2s. 4d. collected at door.

Monday 8—After having preached twice in the church on the previous day, we had a meeting at Edenderry. Mr. Crozier, the rector, had been unexpectedly called away, on which account there was a mistake in making the collection in the usual way at the sermon. It had not been the intention to have had a meeting, as the home mission preached there that day; but I gave one out in the church for an hour previous to this, and there was a tolerable assembly. Those who did attend were much interested.—Collection at church and door £2. 7s.

Tuesday 9th—There was an excellent attendance this day of the principal inhabitants of the neighbourhood at Mullingar, all of whom took a deep interest in the examination of the boy, who answered most satisfactorily. There appeared to be a strong impression made. We were assisted by the Rev. Mr. Eaton. Two deaf and dumb boys appeared at the meeting. There were many cards taken. You have an active Secretary in Miss E. S. Smith. Many subscriptions were paid in the room.—£2. 4s. 4d.

Wednesday 10th—The attendance this day at Athboy was good, and there was much life in the meeting. The boy answered very well, and all seemed much pleased. Your tried friends, the Rev. Messrs. Noble and Harman, gave themselves heartily to the work. There were £16 subscription paid in the room—17s. 3d. collected at the door.

Thursday 11th—An overflowing meeting at Navan this day; the large room could scarcely contain those who sought admittance. There was a most lively spirit here also. We were assisted by the Hon. and Rev. Archdeacon Pakenham, Rev. Messrs. Nixon and Harman. A strange deaf and dumb boy appeared, who is at present provided for by Mr. Gerrard until Easter Monday, when it is hoped he may be admitted.—£2 collected at the door.

Friday 12th—A most respectable attendance this day, at Kells, of the principal inhabitants of the neighbourhood, who took a most lively interest in the examination of the boy, who also acquitted himself with great credit. Much of the life here may be attributed to your valuable Secretary, Mrs. Nicholson. Chair taken by Archdeacon De Lacy, who opened the meeting with your prayer. A deaf and dumb girl appeared, who could pronounce the letters of the alphabet when she saw the motion of the lips. Subscriptions to the amount of £12 received in the room—£1. 17s. collected at the door.

Monday 15th—After having preached twice on Sunday to a most respectable congregation, we had a tolerable meeting at Cavan this day. The cause is evidently gaining ground here. There were some additions made to the list of your friends from amongst the surrounding gentry, and many cards were taken. We were assisted by the Rev. Mr. Collins. Too much credit cannot be given to the zeal of your Secretary here, Miss Swanzy.—£1. 15s. collected at the door.

Tuesday 16th—A very encouraging meeting this day at Belturbet, although the weather was much against it. As usual, they were much interested. We were assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Beresford, Moffat, and Winder. Commenced with prayer and a hymn, and concluded with a hymn. A deaf and dumb boy appeared. Your Secretary here, Mrs. Kennedy,

Wednesday 17th—We this day had an overflowing meeting at Clones, when it was resolved to establish an Auxiliary Association. The persons present were particularly struck with the examination of the boy, and the details respecting operations. There is no doubt but this auxiliary will prove a most valuable one. All the cards brought to the meeting were taken; we had a considerable number, and so great was the anxiety for them, that we could keep no account of the holders. Our thanks are due to the Rev. Dean Roper for his countenance; and we may expect much from his amiable daughters, who seem to take more than common interest in every Christian work going forward. We were efficiently assisted by the curate, the Rev. Mr. Taylor.

Patron, Rev. Dean Roper; Treasurer, James Jackson, Esq.; Secretary, Miss Cochrane.—£1. 12s. 6d. collected at the door.

Thursday 18th—The meeting this day at Monaghan was not as well attended as we could wish, but the day was bitterly cold. The persons present evinced much pleasure at the proceedings. Applications were made for more cards than we had. We were assisted by your treasurer, Rev. J. Bleckly.—£1. 12s. 6d. collected at door.

Friday 19th—The school-house at Carrickmacross was filled this day, but there were not many of the gentry present. Those attending were particularly attentive to the details of the Society, and a Resolution was passed, that an Auxiliary Association should be formed. We were assisted by the Rev. Mr. Campbell, who evinced particular anxiety for the success of this our object. Two deaf and dumb boys appeared, but they were both too old for admission. Commenced with prayer, and concluded with a hymn.

Patron, — Evatt, Esq.; Treasurer, — Johnston, Esq.; Secretary, Miss Eliza Gibson.—£1. 0s. 2½ collected at the door.

I cannot conclude without most particularly adverting to the kind attention and hospitality which your deputation received from the gentry in every quarter. We were enabled to travel considerably more than 300 British miles at a cost of £6. 15s. 8d.; nor would so much have been necessary, but that the route took us off the high road on which coaches run. The thanks of the Society are partly due to the public on this ground. For myself, I feel most grateful to our several friends for that delightful and friendly communication which encouraged me so much in my journey, and was a chief support to the fulfilling that duty which in some respects is of a desirable nature.

May the Lord enable us all to fill our different places, and perform our several duties in His vineyard.

Yours faithfully,

L. W. HEPENSTAL.

The Committee, with feelings of deep regret, have to apologize to the friends and subscribers to the Juvenile Association for an apparent neglect on the part of the Committee in not having summoned every individual connected with the Association, who is within the reach of the twopenny post. They beg to assure their friends that such was actually done, but that the office messenger neglected to deliver the notices.

They cannot conclude without expressing their sincere thanks to the many Ladies who honoured the meeting with their presence. And they would further state it as their fervent hope, that the interest then excited may be the means of stimulating their kind friends to increased exertion in behalf of the Institution.

N.B. The Committee would feel obliged to the members, if they would kindly leave their present addresses at the office, No. 16. Upper Sackville street.

Quarterly Paper

OF

FOR

PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

Auxiliary to the National Institution at Claremont.

JUNE, 1836.—NUMBER VIII.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on the 11th of June, 1836, at two o'clock, P. M., at 16, Upper Sackville Street.

GEORGE FAWCETT, Esq. in the Chair.

As at the March Quarterly Meeting, a Deaf and Dumb Pupil was examined, previous to the business of the Association being entered upon, which lasted until three o'clock : to the few that attended, the answering of the Pupil appeared to be highly satisfactory. At three, P. M., Mr. Fawcett having been called to the Chair, after prayers, Mr. Campbell read the following REPORT.

Since last Annual Meeting of the Association, your Committee have not many proceedings to report. It is with great pleasure that they are enabled to state, that the funds have permitted them to elect the remaining seven children, whose admission to Claremont, it may be remembered, the Association was informed, depended on the reception of additional Subscriptions after Easter Monday. The Juvenile Association is now responsible for the education and entire maintenance of 117 children.

The Committee regret, that unavoidable circumstances, over which they have no controul, have prevented them from transmitting orders of admission as yet, for more than twelve of the successful candidates at last election.

The friends of Isabella Tiggart and Elizabeth Aldgate having declined sending them to the Institution, Robert Atkinson and *Mary Anne Pierce have been elected in their stead. Joseph Browne has been removed, at the desire of his friends, since Annual Meeting.

On the subject of deputations, your Committee have merely to report, that the Rev. C. H. Minchin, accompanied by Mr. Griffin, one of the Committee, and a Pupil, is at this time visiting your Auxiliaries in the south-east of the island. When the deputation returns, a full account of the tour shall be laid before you.

The Committee feel that they have many apologies to make for the non-appearance of the Annual Report. They assure the members that the fault lies entirely with the printer, whose excuse is, that he had not sufficient small type, and had to send to Scotland for it; he has promised it, however, in a few weeks more.

The cash account at its close shews a decrease in the income of the past year, compared with former year, of £6 3s. 3d. and in the total available income of £232 9s. Both these deficiencies can be accounted for, without the supposition that the interest in the cause has in the least abated throughout the country. The total income for the year 1834-35 included a sum of £404 16s. 7d. repayment from Parent Society; and of £299 9s. 4d. balance from preceding year: while the cash account for the year just closed (1835-36) exhibits for the former only £359 9s. 4d, and for the latter £118 8s. 10d.—the difference on the two sums, alone, exceeding the decrease in total income of past year, being £246 7s. 9d. And again—your Auxiliaries have increased their contributions by no less a sum than £81 19s. 10d. This, however, cannot counter-balance the decrease in collections by members resident in Dublin, amounting to £81 17s. 11d., and a sum of £40, purchase copyright of "Happy Mute." There has been an increase under the head of "paying Pupils" during the past year.

From all these considerations, the Committee feel themselves justified in saying that the cause, far from losing ground, is rapidly gaining on the affections of the people. Its value is being known and felt throughout the whole land, and God is raising up every where active and zealous friends in its behalf, and while to Him is every praise to be ascribed, yet, as the instruments in his hands, the Committee cannot help congratulating the Members of the Juvenile Association, for that they have been the means of raising the Institution in public estimation and confidence, and of rolling away that cloud of prejudice which seemed at its first starting into being, as if it would hide its excellence for ever.

To the Dublin members we must use a word of exhortation. Is it possible that our country friends have more zeal than you—you, whose opportunities of serving the Society must be proportionably greater? Or, is it, that the cause has less attraction now than formerly? We would fain hope not. Up then, and be doing: defer not your exertions till Easter draws near; but from this very day labour, so that at Easter, 1837, your collections may exceed those of any former years. And may God pour down on this, and on every Society for the promotion of his glory, his abundant blessing, for Christ's sake. Amen.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be received and printed in the Quarterly Paper, with such appendix as the Committee may deem necessary.

Resolved—That the Committee be called upon to state at the next Quarterly Meeting their reasons for continuing to pay the Parent Society at the rate of £18 per annum, per Pupil—such sum being considered exorbitant.

Resolved—That while we cannot but regret that our available income is this year less than in the preceding, we desire to return thanks to the Giver of all good, that the deficiency was not occasioned by any decrease on the part of the Public of that warmth they have ever felt in the cause of our Institution.

Resolved—That we regret exceedingly the non-attendance of the Members of the Association at our Quarterly Meetings; and that we do earnestly call upon them to be present at our deliberations in future, as the Committee feel that they need much the countenance of every friend they can obtain.

Note. In order to diminish the very great expense of printing the Annual Report, the Committee have come to the determination of not acknowledging any sums under One Shilling, except under one head of "Sums under One Shilling," on each card. They trust that the members of the Association will excuse this departure from general custom. The Printer's Account, in last Report, amounted to 122*l.* 8*s.* 5*d.* To diminish, if possible, this great expense, has been the reason why the Committee have not "deemed it necessary to print this part of the customary appendix."

Ballina,

May 14, 1836.

There is a Pupil of Claremont in Ballina, Marianne Corcoran, who was discharged about two years ago. Her conduct has since done credit to the Institution: and she is able, by her needle work, in some degree to assist in her maintenance.

She is very fond of reading her Bible. This testimony will, I doubt not, be a satisfaction to those who kindly devote their time and exertions to the service of their helpless fellow-creatures.

N. B.—Our friends will pardon us for reminding them that the Quarterly Meetings are open to the Public, and that this rule was established with a view to excite additional interest in the cause, by shewing to strangers what can be done for their Mute brethren.

SEPTEMBER, 1836.—NUMBER IX.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, the 24th of September, 1836, at three o'clock, P.M. at 16, Upper Sackville-street.

JOHN JOHNSTON TWEEDY, Esq. in the Chair.

The minutes of the last Meeting having been read and signed, Mr. Secretary Wade read the following report :

In coming before the Society to hand in an account of their proceedings during the past quarter, your Committee feel that their attention should first be directed to a resolution passed at the last Meeting of the Association, calling upon them to explain the reasons why they still continue to pay the sum of £18. annually to the Parent Society for each Pupil—an explanation which, to those not fully acquainted with the communications your Committee have had with that of the Parent Society, and of the position we hold with respect to them, it may be difficult to give with satisfaction. To enter into the full merits of the case, and to state the various proposals your Committee have made to the Parent Society, and the nature of the objections that have been urged against them, would occupy much more time than is usually allotted to a Quarterly Report. It remains, therefore, merely to lay before the Society the result of these proceedings, and to state how matters stand at present.

Your Committee, anxious to dispose of the funds they were entrusted with to the best advantage, and desirous that no avoidable expenditure of money should be incurred, have, long before the Society took notice of it, turned their attention to the annual payment for Pupils to the National Institution. Thinking that some other plan which suggested itself to their own minds, would at a less expense provide a sound and Scriptural Education for the Pupils, and conduct the internal arrangements of the Institution on a system by no means inferior to that at present employed, they laid it before the Committee of the Parent Society: they, however, have not seen the matter in the same light; and not only still continue to think £18. a year for each pupil a reasonable charge, but have even felt it necessary to make a further demand of £1. additional, persuaded that £19. would not more than cover their extraordinary expenses, after deducting from it £17. to be paid to the head master for clothing, feeding, washing, and, as far as his own salary is concerned, educating each pupil, added to the washing and maintenance of the assistant teachers and servants, and other necessary expenses of the household. Whether or no these conclusions be correct, is not the consideration at present—but whilst they demand £18. and refuse to receive our children for less, we have no alternative. To the present demand of £19. as a final arrangement, we have as yet given no reply; and feel that before we do so, there is need of much reflection, which, the Society may rest confident, shall be given to the subject. So little disposed is your Committee to involve the Society in any expense that might be avoided, that they deferred sending many of the children elected last Easter Monday to the Institution, because the Parent Committee had required £19. per annum for each before that period; unable, however, to have them admitted for less, and anxious not longer to resist the pressing demands from the country for their admission, they have consented to pay £19. for those only.

It may be right to mention that another plan has been lately under the consideration of both Committees, but has not as yet been decided upon; should it be adopted, however, the present demand of £19. would of course be set aside, and the principles of it, in which your Committee fully concur, would, they have no doubt, be conducive to the interests of both Societies.

On the subject of deputations, your Committee are happy to have it in their power to report favourably. Two have as yet been sent out, and have returned with gratifying accounts of their success. The first, consisting of the Rev. C. H. Minchin, Mr. Griffin, and a pupil, visited the following Auxiliaries, having commenced on Friday, the 10th of June, and concluded on Thursday, the 23d of June, viz.—Wicklow, Rathdrum, Gorey, Enniscorthy, Wexford, New Ross, Thomastown, Kilkenny, Carlow, Tullow, and Baltinglass. The second, consisting of the Rev. Walter Harman and a pupil, commenced on Tuesday, the 2d of August, and concluded on Tuesday, the 16th of August, and visited the following places, viz.—Dundalk, Newry, Warrenpoint, Rosstrevor, Rathfriland, Newcastle, Downpatrick, Banbridge, Portadown, Hillsborough, Lisburn, Carrickfergus, Ballymena, and Gracehill.

It is proposed to send out a third early in October, consisting of the Rev. R. S. Clifford, a member of Committee, and a pupil, to visit your Auxiliaries in the south-western route. On Thursday last, a Meeting was held of your Auxiliary in the town of Bray; a deputation attended, consisting of one of the Secretaries, a member of Committee, and a pupil, who were aided by the valuable co-operation of the clergymen of the parish, and other ministers residing in the town. The Meeting was very well attended, much interest excited by the examination of the pupil, and many collectors engaged in the cause, who will prove, we trust, by their future exertions, that their interest was not the result of a merely momentary excitement, but of a deep and abiding compassion for the unhappy objects of our concern.

Your Committee beg to inform the Association, that Mr. Robertson's connection with the Society as Assistant Secretary has ceased during the past quarter.

The Quarter we are now closing has been one of much difficulty and trial to your Committee; they have had to encounter many troubles, the particulars of which it is unnecessary to detail to the Society, as it is their results merely that can affect its interests. But amidst all these unpleasant circumstances, they should feel themselves wanting in gratitude to Him from whom blessings as well as trials proceed, if they were not thankful to acknowledge that whilst they have certainly experienced the latter, they have not been denied more of the former than they deserved. The zeal of some of our valued friends in the ministry who have co-operated with us in visiting our Auxiliaries, instead of cooling by time, seems to be gaining more warmth by experience; and no deputation has hitherto been sent out without returning with gratifying accounts of its success. For all this, they would desire to give the praise to Him who has watered their exertions, and to entreat, that both they themselves and their fellow-members may be actuated by one single motive in all their future endeavours, a pure zeal for His glory and love for their fellow-creatures.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be adopted and printed with the customary appendix.

Resolved—That the reasons assigned by the Committee in their Report, for continuing to pay the Parent Society the sum of £18. per annum for each pupil, appear to this meeting to be consistent with their desire to study the greatest economy in the outlay of the funds committed to their charge.

Resolved—That the Society cannot let the opportunity of this Meeting pass, without an expression of confidence in the anxious zeal with which the Committee continue under many difficulties to fulfil the arduous duties entrusted to them.

Notice of Motion for next Meeting.

That in consequence of the very bad attendance of members at the Quarterly Meetings, for the future it be optional with the Committee to summon same; and that any business specially mentioned in the summonses may be brought forward and decided without previous notice.

SOUTH-EASTERN DEPUTATION.

REPORT OF REV. C. H. MINCHIN, AND JOHN N. GRIFFIN, ESQ.

Wicklow, June 10th.

The meeting here, though small, was very interesting, and all seemed greatly pleased with the examination of the pupil. The Rev. Mr. Dickson opened the meeting with prayer. A lady, near this, has kindly undertaken to instruct, as far as she is able, Mary M'Daniel, a Deaf and Dumb girl, sister to Garret M'Daniel, who was elected last Easter Monday. She is already acquainted with the Manual Alphabet, and will in due time become a candidate for admission. The collection at the door amounted to £1. 15s. 8d.

Rathdrum, June 11th.

We had but a small meeting here, partly owing to the inconvenient hour at which it commenced. The Rev. W. S.

Guinness opened the Meeting with prayer, and gave a very pleasing account of a Deaf and Dumb girl who had been educated at Claremont, named Eliza Correll, who died, believing and rejoicing in the truth. There seems to have been some interest excited here by James M'Cormick, now in the Institution, from this place. Collected at the door, 10s. 4d.

Gorey, June 19th.

A very large and respectable Meeting was held here; the Court-house could not contain all who sought admission. The lively interest in your Society which exists here, may be attributed to the unwearied labours of your Secretary and other friends, whose increasing exertions in the cause, and kindness to your Deputation, cannot be spoken of in adequate terms. The Rev. H. G. Webbe commenced proceedings with prayer. The Chair was taken by John Beauman, Esq. when the cause of your Society was warmly advocated by the Rev. J. Mooney. Collection after Meeting amounted to £4. 3s. 4d.

Enniscorthy, June 15th.

The Meeting this day was small, in consequence of a circumstance which unavoidably prevented almost all the respectable families in the town and neighbourhood from attending. The Rev. J. M. Charters took the Chair; the Meeting opened with prayer. We were glad to hear of the good conduct of a Deaf and Dumb servant, who was educated at Claremont; a Deaf and Dumb child appeared in the Meeting. Collected at the door 12s. 3½d.

Wexford, June 16th.

The Meeting in this town was well and respectably attended; a Deaf and Dumb boy of the name of Furlong, who will be a candidate next Easter Monday, appeared here. Rev. John K. Robinson in the Chair. The answering of the boy gained the approbation of the entire Meeting; the Rev. E. Dillon, and Mr. Harley, aided your deputation; the latter consented to form an Auxiliary in his school. The Meeting commenced with prayer and closed with a hymn. Collection at door amounted to £4. 5s. 4d.

New Ross, June 17th.

We had a good Meeting here; there were a great number of poor people present, who paid the greatest attention to the proceedings; the Rev. H. Helsham read the Report of this Auxiliary, and urged the members to renewed exertions in the work. Though there was a decrease in last year's remittance, yet much may be expected from the activity and support of some friends. Collected at door £2. 3s. 3d.

Thomastown, June 18th.

Our Meeting here was thinly but respectably attended; several families were prevented from coming into town, the fever being prevalent. All expressed themselves greatly pleased at the examination of the boy. The Rev. J. L. Irwin opened the Meeting with prayer; at the close of the Meeting several poor people went to a gentleman to borrow money to give at the door, they were so delighted. Collection amounted to £2. 12s. 7½d.

Kilkenny, June 20th:

We have great reason to bless God for the Meeting that has just terminated; the large room in the Tholsel was crowded to excess, numbers were standing outside, and the clergymen who attended had not a place to sit down. Commenced proceedings with prayer. The Chair was taken by the Rev. Dr. Baillie, who with great zeal advocated the cause of your Society; the boy here answered remarkably well, and elicited from the Meeting their warmest approbation. The Rev. Messrs. H. Caulfield, and John Alcock, with your deputation, severally addressed the Meeting. Concluded with a hymn. The Collection amounted to £4. 13s. 3½d. The cause gained considerable ground here. All are anxious to further the work.

Carlow, June 21st.

Rather a small Meeting here, owing partly to the day being wet, and also to not sufficient notice being given; many persons, after the Meeting was over, said, they had not heard of it. The Rev. J. Jameson opened the Meeting with prayer, and closed with a hymn. We heard of a Deaf and Dumb child here, but it was too old for admission. Collected at door £2. 0s. 8½d.

Tullow, June 22d.

We had but a very small Meeting here, mostly composed of children and poor people. We found two Deaf and Dumb children in one family of the name of Waters. Their father was greatly pleased with the pupil, and said, he would collect Ten Pounds if the eldest were elected on Easter Monday. Collection 1s. 11d.

Baltinglass, June 23d.

The Meeting was very well attended. A number of poor people were present, who seemed much pleased; in short,

~~all~~ expressed themselves gratified with the pupil's progress. The Rev. H. Scott assisted your deputation. Collection £1.11s.

NORTH-EASTERN DEPUTATION.

REV. WALTER HARMAN'S REPORT.

Dundalk, August 2, 1836.

The Meeting was very respectable, and the most numerous attended. I was informed, of any heretofore held; the Rev. Dr. Thackery, Rector of the Parish, took the Chair, and made some observations approbatory of your Society's objects, &c. The Rev. Messrs. Maloney and Allpress also assisted me. The answers given by your pupil to questions proposed by the Meeting gave much satisfaction; and testified to the value of your Society, though the child is very young, and had never previously been examined in public, and was consequently timid. The collection at the door exceeded £2.

Newry, August 3, 1836.

The Meeting was very thinly attended, as I understand all Meetings here are. The Rev. Mr. Shields commenced with prayer; after which I made a very brief statement in your behalf. Needham Thompson, Esq. kindly assisted. Some cards were distributed. Two Deaf and Dumb children were in attendance, Mary M'Keown, a most intelligent looking child, one of your lately elected pupils, and David Wright, a former pupil, now an apprentice to a tailor in Newry, from whom I received the most satisfactory account of his general conduct. From no place have so many children been elected as from Newry; and though the Meeting was thinly attended, I trust that our friends there will extend to your Society their accustomed liberality, remembering the claims it has upon them.

Warrenpoint, August 4, 1836.

In consequence of the absence in England of your Secretary, the Rev. Mr. Davis, no intimation had been given of a Meeting to be held in Warrenpoint previously to my arrival; however, with the assistance of your valuable friend, Captain Ogle, I had notice given to the inhabitants, and a very few persons assembled in the Court-house. The Chair was taken by Edward Anderson, Esq.; the Rev. Mr. Logan opened the Meeting with prayer, and advocated your cause. Notwithstanding the unfavourable circumstances of sufficient notice not having been given, and of the absence of many influential friends of your Society, I trust that the Meeting will be attended with some advantage:

Rosstrevor, August 5, 1836.

The Meeting here was very respectably attended, though the village is not at this season so full as usually. Our business commenced with a hymn, and the offering up of prayer by the Rev. B. Jacob, who cordially co-operated with me. Eliza Wilson, lately a pupil at Claremont, was presented to the Meeting, and much interest was excited by the boy who accompanied me examining her. When the Meeting had concluded with a hymn, a collection was made amounting to £5. 9s., including an annual subscription from Lady Walsh of £2. 2s. and of £1. from Miss Ramadge.

Rathfriland, August 6, 1836.

The good attendance at the Meeting to-day, in this small and apparently poor village, agreeably surprised me ; it is mainly attributable to your very efficient Secretary, Samuel Murphy, Esq. The Rev. Mr. Archer was a valuable assistant in the examination of your pupil, whose answers were satisfactory ; your Society may, I think, calculate upon a continuance of the support which it has received from this place.

Newcastle, August 8, 1836.

A very crowded meeting assembled in the Methodist chapel. The Treasurer and Secretary, W. Beers, Esq. and Rev. Mr. Moore, were unavoidably absent ; but every requisite arrangement had been made by the Rev. Mr. Beers, who is a valuable assistant. The Rev. Matthew Fox commenced with prayer, after which a hymn was sung. The collection amounted to £4. 14s. 1d. including £1. from the Earl of Roden, who, with his family, was present. A deaf and dumb girl was present, who is not yet old enough to be eligible.

THE JUVENILE ASSOCIATION

FOR

PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF
AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

Auxiliary to the National Institution at Claremont.

DECEMBER, 1836.—NUMBER X.

NOTICE.

The Committee particularly request that all applications on behalf of Candidates for admission at the Election to be held on Easter Monday, may be returned to the Office, on or before the 1st of February next, in order that sufficient time may be afforded for the circulation of the voting papers before the Annual Meeting.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, the 10th of December, 1836, at three o'clock, P.M. at 16, Upper Sackville-street.

W. H. GELSTON, Esq. in the Chair.

Meeting opened with prayers:

Minutes of last Meeting read and signed.

Mr. Secretary Campbell read the following

REPORT:

Since last Meeting of the Association, your Committee have very few proceedings to report: not that they have been idle during the past quarter, but because their acts have not been characterised by any new feature of general interest. They have principally been employed in endeavouring to obtain from the Parent Committee a new regulation as to the payments for the pupils they may place in the Institution. They have not as yet succeeded quite as they would wish; yet they trust that the negotiation is at present on such a footing, as to leave but little doubt that their object will be speedily accomplished. They have also suggested to the Parent Committee some alterations in the present management of the School, which, they hope, will be attended to, as they feel confident that the general interests of both Societies will be increased by adopting them.

Your Committee conceive that they have succeeded, in the matter of Deputations, better, up to this period, than in any former year. Two have been sent out, and have returned since their last communication to the Society. In the month of October, the Rev. George Shaw, of Drumsna, on the former part of the route, and the Rev. R. S. Clifford, of Carrick-on-Shannon on the latter, accompanied by Mr. J. J. Tweedy, and a pupil, visited your auxiliaries in the towns of Moate, Athlone, Loughrea, Galway, Gort, Ennis, Limerick, Tarbert, Listowel, Tralee, Killarney, Kenmare, Bantry, Skibbereen, Dunmanway, Clonakilty, Bandon, Kinsale; and formed two, one in Roscommon, and the other in the Rev. Dr. Browne's school, Bandon. They had purposed visiting the town of Ballinasloe; but, as the great annual fair was held at that time, it was deemed expedient not to hold any meeting there. This Deputation returned on the 30th of October. The total expense amounted to £30. 12s. 3d.; and the collections at the Meetings, to £44. 11s. 10d.

In the months of October and November, the Rev. L. W. Henestral, of Annamoe, accompanied by a pupil, visited, on behalf of your Association, the southern route, consisting of the towns of Cahir, Cashel, Clonmel, Dungarvan, Cappoquin, Lisamore, Tallow, Youghal, Cloyne, Middleton, Monkstown, Cork, Mallow, Charleville, Doneraile, Mitchelstown, Fermoy. He returned on the 20th of November. The expense incurred was £14. 4s.; and the collections at the Meetings, £20. 7s. 10d. On both these routes many cards were distributed, and many new collectors enrolled among the members of the Association.

On the 7th of October, the Rev. W. B. Kirkpatrick, of the Scots' Church, and one of your Secretaries, Dr. N. B. Duncan, with a pupil, held a very interesting Meeting at Kingstown. Another route is in preparation to be visited the latter end of this month, through some of the inland counties.

It is with much regret your Committee announce the death of one of your pupils, a girl of the name of Mary Magennis. Her stay in the Institution (being only one year and three months) was too short to allow the Committee to state any thing satisfactory as to the benefit she may have received from the instruction given her.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That the Report now read be received, and printed with the customary appendix.

The motion of which notice was given at last Quarterly Meeting, was withdrawn.

Notice of Motion for next Meeting.

That a Half-yearly Meeting of this Association be held in the month of October, or such other month as may appear most expedient, in order that the still increasing claims of the Deaf Mute may be laid before a sympathising public; and that we will use our best exertions to render such Meeting as interesting as possible.

NORTH-EASTERN DEPUTATION.

REV. WALTER HARMAN'S REPORT.

(Concluded from p. 64.)

Downpatrick, Aug. 9, 1836.

An excellent Meeting was held here. It would, however, have been more numerously attended, but for the death of Lord Dufferin, a day or two previously; which caused the absence of Lord Bangor, Colonel and Lady Harriet Forde, and others. In the absence of Lord Bangor, the Chair was taken by Mr. Miller. The Rev. Dr. Hincks, Messrs. Gordon, Campbell, Alder, and Leahy were present, and moved or seconded resolutions, and advocated your cause. The examination, conducted by the Clergy principally, continued for more than an hour, and gave very much satisfaction. The collection amounted to £6. 12s. 4d.; including £2. an annual subscription from Colonel Forde, and £1. from Lady Harriet Forde.

Banbridge, Aug. 10, 1836.

The Meeting, I understand, was larger than usual. James Reilly, Esq. took the Chair, and spoke in favour of the Society. In the advocacy of your cause, I was further aided by the Rev. Messrs. Mitchell, Yates, and Filgate. The Rev. Mr. Dickenson, Rector of Banbridge, was also present. Though, in my several journeys as a Deputation from your Society, I have discovered many Deaf and Dumb Children, I do not know any part of Ireland in which there are so many of that afflicted class as in this. There are four in one family residing near Banbridge, three in another, some of whom will be candidates for admission soon; and I was informed by a brother clergyman, that, not far from his residence, there are seven deaf and dumb persons in a family consisting of eight individuals, but they are beyond the ages of admission, are of rather a respectable class in life, and have been taught to write. In a circuit of about twelve miles here, I am sure there are not less than from twenty to thirty Deaf and Dumb persons.

Portadown, Aug. 11, 1836.

The Rev. C. K. Irwin received the Deputation, having previously made every necessary arrangement for our Meeting; which, though the attendance was not numerous, I was informed was an average one. There are very few resident gentry, which I was surprised to hear, as the annual remittance is considerable. Indeed, Portadown is one of the most efficient auxiliaries in the county; and, as your local friends are so active, I am sure it will not relax its exertions. The Rev. Mr. Alexander, Rector, was present.

Hillsborough, Aug. 12, 1836.

The attendance was very small, though the notices had been circulated more widely than usual by your Secretary; but several circumstances combined to prevent a full assemblage. The recent death of the Dowager Marchioness of Downshire prevented the attendance of some persons; and that of Lord Dufferin caused the absence of Archdeacon Mant, who feels a warm interest in the Society's welfare. The Rev. Messrs. Lett and Garrett were present; and the former opened the Meeting with prayer. There was a small collection.

Lisburn, Aug. 13, 1836.

Our Meeting was very badly attended, considering the respectability of the town and neighbourhood; though I was informed that it was larger than the last. The Very Rev. Dean Stannus introduced the Deputation, and assisted at the examination. Collection 18s. I am sorry to find that the annual remittance from Lisburn has been gradually decreasing, and that it is now one-half less than what it once was. This ought not to be: and I trust that, as our friends there have every evidence of the value of the Society, and as another child has been admitted from the neighbourhood, they will feel it their duty to exert themselves more strenuously in its behalf. James Deviney, a former pupil, was examined in geography, arithmetic, and Scripture, and his answers gave much satisfaction. In the course of my present tour, I have had frequent opportunities of meeting with children who were educated at Claremont, and, from their respective masters and friends, have had the satisfaction of receiving favourable answers to my enquiries respecting their general conduct.

Carrickfergus, Aug. 15, 1836.

Our Meeting at Carrickfergus was respectably but not numerously attended. The Rev. Mr. Carter and Alex. Johns, Esq. gave me much assistance. The Rev. Dr. Townley, of Limerick, was also present, and assisted at the examination, which gave much satisfaction. Collection about £1. 10s.

Ballymena, Aug. 16, 1836.

The Meeting would have been much better attended, were it not that many of the neighbouring gentry are now at the seaside. We had, however, a very respectable assemblage; all of whom appeared to be highly interested in the proceedings, which went on with much animation, in consequence of the appearance and examination of two fine boys, formerly pupils of your Society. The Chair was taken by the Rev. Mr. Cumming, who spoke in favour of your cause, and has kindly consented to accept the office of Secretary. I was much pleased with our proceedings here. Collection £1. I heard of five Deaf and Dumb persons in the neighbourhood.

Gracehill, Tuesday Evening.

The Meeting, which was held at seven o'clock, commenced and concluded with prayer and praise. The Rev. Mr. Beck assisted. Collection between £2. and £3. Thus ended my tour for your Society: to Him who graciously conducted me through my journey, be ascribed the praise for any measure of success with which my imperfect labours may be crowned.

SOUTH-WESTERN DEPUTATION.

REPORT OF REV. G. SHAW, REV. RICHARD S. CLIFFORD, AND JOHN J. TWEEDY, ESQ.

Moate, Oct. 4, 1836.

We held our first Meeting here this day: it was not as numerously or as respectably attended as might have been expected. This may be partly attributed to some mistake having occurred in the circulation of the notices and placards. With the aid of our zealous Secretary, Mr. Atkinson, we succeeded in collecting together about thirty persons; and the cause of the Society was advocated by the Rev. Dr. Walsh and your Deputation. No collection, in consequence of the smallness of the Meeting.

Athlone, Oct. 5, 1836.

Our Meeting here was attended by about 150 persons, chiefly of the lower order, who seemed to take a great interest in the examination of the pupil. The Rev. James James was appointed Secretary. Collection £1. 11s. 4d.

Roscommon, Oct. 6, 1836.

The Meeting here was very well attended, and many of the neighbouring gentry and clergy were present. A great interest was excited, as this was the first time a Deputation visited Roscommon. The Rev. Mr. Day, from whom your Deputation received much kindness, took the Chair, and opened the Meeting with an appropriate prayer; and the cause of the Society was eloquently advocated by two Clergymen. An auxiliary was formed, to which the Rev. Mr. Day was appointed Secretary, and John Carson, Esq. Treasurer. Collection £1. 9s. 2d.

Loughrea, Oct. 8, 1836.

A very small Meeting was held here this day. The Rev. Mr. Medicott presided, and opened the proceedings with the Society's prayer. The Rev. E. G. Cuthbert undertook the office of Secretary. Collection £1. 0s. 6d.

Galway, Oct. 10, 1836.

Our Meeting here was very well attended, owing to the zealous exertions of our valuable Secretary. The Chair was taken by — Hughes, Esq., and the Rev. Mr. Medicott commenced with prayer. The examination was then proceeded with, and gave great satisfaction to all present. Resolutions in favour of the Society were proposed and seconded by the Rev. Messrs. Fisher, Darcy, Maunsell, and Medicott. Collection £1. 4s. 10d.

Gort, Oct. 11, 1836.

The Meeting, though not large, was attended by some respectable inhabitants of the county, who were much pleased with the clear and intelligent answers our pupil gave to their questions. The Rev. Mr. Roe takes a deep interest in the Society's welfare, and will do us much service in this place. Collection 19s. 4d.

Ennis, Oct. 12, 1836.

Our Meeting here was very cheering; a large school-room was filled with a very respectable audience. The Rev. Mr. Adamson, a warm friend of our Society, presided, and commenced with prayer. Our valued friends, the Rev. Messrs. Young and Elmes, advocated our cause in forcible and eloquent terms. The Rev. Dr. King and the Gentlemen of Ennis College attended, and were highly pleased with the proceedings of the day. The collection exceeded £5.

Limerick, Oct. 13, 1836.

The Meeting to-day was, we were informed, the largest and most respectable ever held for our Society in this city. The examination of the pupil appeared to gratify the Meeting very much. Your Deputation received much valuable aid from the Rev. Dr. Townley and Mr. Maunsell. We discovered, in one family, four Deaf and Dumb children; all of whom were, unfortunately, too old for admission. Collection £6. 12s. 1d.

Tarbert, Oct. 15, 1836.

About twenty-five respectable persons assembled here to receive your Deputation. We succeeded in reviving the auxiliary which formerly existed in this town. Mrs. Leslie undertook the office of Treasurer, and Miss Sandes that of Secretary. Collection 10s. 9d.

Listowel, Oct. 17, 1836.

Our Meeting here was thinly attended. We received much kind attention from the Rev. Edward Denny, who cooperated with us most efficiently in forwarding the objects of the Society. Collection £1. 3s.

Tralee, Oct. 18, 1836.

We had an excellent Meeting here. The Rev. Mr. Denny presided; and our valued friends, the Rev. Messrs. Alcock and Rowan, supported powerfully the interests of the Society. Collection £6. 10s. 4d.; which our excellent Secretary, Mr. Fitzgerald, took charge of.

Killarney, Oct. 19, 1836.

The Meeting was thinly attended; the Rev. Mr. Herbert presided. The Society is much indebted to Captain Colthurst for his kind exertions in its behalf. We received much kind attention from the Rev. Mr. Maunsell, who takes a deep interest in the Society. Collection £1. 11s.

Kenmare, Oct. 21, 1836.

Though the Meeting here was small, we hope that some advantage will result from the visit of your Deputation. Collection £1. 12s. 2½d.

Bantry, Oct. 22, 1836.

The Meeting here was likewise small. Our valuable friend, the Rev. Mr. Sadlier, kindly granted the use of his church for a charity sermon. The collection amounted to £3. There appears to be a great interest about the Society in this town.

Skibbereen, Oct. 24, 1836.

Our Meeting here was interesting, and the proceedings appeared to be satisfactory to the persons present. We received much Christian kindness from the Rev. Mr. Macartney. Collection £1. 3s. 7½d.

Dunmanway, Oct. 25, 1836.

Here we had a good Meeting. The Rev. Mr. Lord assisted your Deputation. Collection 12s. 7d.

Clonakilty, Oct. 26, 1836.

We had a very excellent Meeting here. In the absence of the Rev. Mr. Townsend, the Rev. J. Bleakley, to whom we are indebted for much valuable aid, presided, and made some appropriate remarks relative to the Society. Coll. about £2.

Bandon, Oct. 27, 1836.

One of the most numerous and highly respectable Meetings we witnessed for a long time, was held here this day. Lord Bandon kindly took the Chair, and seemed highly delighted with the examination of our pupil. Resolutions were proposed and seconded by the Rev. Messrs. Newman, Townsend, and your Deputation. Collection £6. 11s. We had the pleasure of forming an auxiliary in the school of the Rev. Dr. Brown; and, from the zeal evinced by the young gentlemen, we have reason to think that it will be a valuable aid to the Society.

Kinsale, Oct. 28, 1836.

The Meeting was well attended. The Rev. Mr. Townsend took the Chair; and your Deputation advocated the cause of the Society. Collection £1.

SOUTHERN DEPUTATION.

EXTRACTS FROM REV. L. W. HEPENSTAL'S REPORT.

Cahir, Oct. 28, 1836.

The day being very wet, our Meeting was but small. The Hon. and Rev. Mr. Cavendish is a warm supporter of your Society. Collection 6s. 6d.

Cashel, Oct. 29, 1836.

The Meeting here was better attended; the Mayor in the Chair. I was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Overend, who examined the boy. Your Treasurer, Mr. Pennefather, gave every testimony of approbation in his power. Collection £1. 19s. 1d.

Clonmel, Oct. 31, 1836.

I preached here yesterday on behalf of the Society, but no collection was allowed. The Meeting to-day was well attended. I was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Bell, Rev. Robert Bell, and Rev. Messrs. Maunsell, Dee, and Wood. Major-Gen. Sir Hugh Gough became a subscriber, and showed much kindness to your Deputation. Collection £6. 5s. 6d.

Dungarvan, Nov. 2, 1836.

The Meeting was small, but composed of sincere friends of the Society. I received much kind attention from the Rev. Mr. Dickson. Collection 13s. 1d.

Cappoquin, Nov. 3, 1836.

The Meeting was small, but much interest was excited. The Rev. Mr. Archdall was particularly kind to your Deputation. Collection 14s.

Lismore, Nov. 4, 1836.

The Meeting here was very small. The Rev. Messrs. Sparks, Mockler, and Archdall were present; and also Dean Cotton, who appeared much interested, and became a permanent subscriber.

Tallow, Nov. 5, 1836.

Our Meeting here was better attended, though the day was most unfavourable. The Rev. Mr. Jackson and the Rev. Mr. Greene were present. The Rev. Mr. Percival was kind and attentive to your Deputation. Collection £1. 2s. 1½d.

Youghal, Nov. 7, 1836.

I preached yesterday; but there was not any collection made. A good Meeting was held this evening: many questions were asked, which your pupil answered well. The demand for cards was so great, that I was unable to supply all who applied; but promised to have them sent down. I was assisted by the Rev. Messrs. Aldworth, Swanzy, Neville, &c. Collection £3. 18s. 2d.

Cloyne, Nov. 8, 1836.

We had a very good Meeting here; and it would have been an overflowing one, but for the tempestuous state of the weather. The Rev. Dr. Hingston and Rev. Messrs. Rogers and Burton gave valuable assistance. An auxiliary was formed, and the following Officers appointed:—Patron, Rev. Dr. Hingston; Patroness, Mrs. Longfield; Treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Butt; Secretary, Miss Allen. Collection 11s. 1d.

Middleton, Nov. 9, 1836.

The weather was dreadfully severe; and the Meeting, consequently, was very small. The Rev. Mr. Jones and Rev. Mr. Cotter evinced much interest. Collection 8s. 10d.

Monkstown, Nov. 10, 1836.

In consequence of my not being aware, in sufficient time, that the Meeting was to be held at Passage, I passed by a very respectable assemblage; and, when I returned, it was too late to hold the Meeting.

Cork, Nov. 11, 1836.

The Meeting was not such as might be expected here. Another was attempted in the evening, but was poorly attended; the Rev. Mr. Beaufort presided. The Rev. Mr. Wigmore evinced a continued anxiety for your success. Coll. £1. 11s.

Mallow, Nov. 12, 1836.

The weather was very severe, and the Meeting, consequently, thin. Mr. Jephson, who was present, with his family, became a subscriber. The Rev. Messrs. Hamilton and Baldwin, and your Secretary, the Rev. Mr. Chester, attended, and were much interested. Collection £1. 4s. 3d.

Charleville, Nov. 15, 1836.

Here we had a tolerable Meeting; the Rev. Mr. Willis presided. All the persons present seemed to be much interested in the cause. Collection £1. 19s. 3d.

Doneraile, Nov. 16, 1836.

We should have had a large Meeting but for the severity of the weather. Mr. Hill and Admiral Evans, and families, came from a distance, and evinced a determination to advance your cause. Lady Doneraile examined your pupil, and contributed £1. to the collection.

Mitchelstown, Nov. 17, 1836.

In consequence of the severity of the weather, we had no Meeting, except the children of the poor-school. Miss Thornhill undertook the office of Treasurer. Collection 2s. 2d.

Fermoy, Nov. 18, 1836.

The Meeting was respectable; and appeared to be much interested in the examination of the boy, who answered very well. The Rev. Archdeacon Ryder presided. The Rev. Mr. White showed much kindness and hospitality to your Deputation. Collection £1 10s. 6d.

In concluding this very short statement, your Deputation would hope, that, although external circumstances seemed to be against success, yet that the real value of the Institution will be so observable, that, upon next Easter Monday, there will not be any diminution in the remittances from the places they have visited.

Quarterly Paper
OF
FOR
PROMOTING THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF AND DUMB POOR OF IRELAND.

Auxiliary to the National Institution at Claremont.

MARCH, 1837.—NUMBER XI.

A Quarterly Meeting of the Association was held on Saturday, the 18th of March, 1837, at three o'clock, P.M. at 16, Upper Sackville-street.

The Rev. C. H. MINCHIN, in the Chair.

Meeting opened with prayers:
Minutes of last Meeting read and signed.

In consequence of the near approach of the Annual Meeting, at which the Report of the proceedings of the past year was to be presented; the Committee did not upon this occasion present the usual Quarterly Report.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved—That a Half-yearly Meeting of this Association be held in the month of October, or such other month as may appear most expedient, in order that the still increasing claims of the Deaf Mute may be laid before a sympathising public; and that we will use our best exertions to render such Meeting as interesting as possible. And that in order to carry the objects of the meeting into effect, an examination of the pupils be held on the occasion, and that the clergy be requested to participate in our proceedings.

Resolved—That it seems expedient to this Meeting, in future only to print a Half-yearly Report, to be passed at the Half-yearly Meeting, now agreed on to be held in the month of October.

REPORT OF HOME DEPUTATION.

DEAR FRIENDS—I left Dublin on Thursday, the 16th of February, accompanied by John Waddy, one of your pupils, to visit your auxiliaries in the towns of Edenderry, Mullingar, Athboy, Navan, and Kells. And in laying before you a short account of my proceedings, I cannot but give it as my firm persuasion, that the Lord recognises this as his own work, by raising up throughout the country so many of his children, to promote the interest of your Institution.

Friday Morning, the day on which the Meeting was held in Edenderry, I was joined by the Rev. Walter George Harman, who left his parish to assist your deputation. Before the hour of Meeting we waited on your Secretary, the Rev. Graham P. Crozier, who had previously made every necessary arrangement. After the examination of the pupil, the Rev. Messrs. Huson and Harman addressed the Meeting, which was very well attended; several clergymen were present. In consequence of the extreme wetness of the day, when we went at the usual hour to the Court-house, at Mullingar, there were no persons there, with the exception of one family, who though residing some miles in the country came in; however, after an hour the day became finer, and your Secretary's family, were enabled to attend. The Rev. Walter G. Harman having examined the pupil, made a very forcible statement of the awful condition in which the uneducated Deaf Mute is found, and thence urged their claims upon our support. Though circumstances were unfavorable to our holding a Meeting, it is to be hoped that your auxiliary here will still continue to give that valuable aid which it has hitherto done. We held a very interesting Meeting at Athboy. The examination seemed to afford much satisfaction. The boy who was with me undertook the part of Examiner, and proposed questions that proved him to have made a considerable progress in learning. The Rev. Robert Noble, at whose house your deputation remained from Saturday till Tuesday, brought us in his own carriage to Navan, where we found a good Meeting assembled. The Rev. R. Noble examined the pupil, who answered remarkably well. The Chair was taken by the Rev. J. Moreton. The Hon. Archdeacon Pakenham spoke very warmly in favour of your Society. The Meeting was also addressed by the Rev. Walter G. Harman, the Rev. Edward Nixon, and your deputation.

In speaking of Navan, I would say, that the Dublin Members ought to follow the example of this small town, when we consider that last year it sent up the sum of £53 17s., and this year its remittance amounted to £61 8s., a sum which in proportion far exceeds that collected by the Dublin Members. After the Meeting the Rev. Edward Nixon brought me home with him, and the following day accompanied me to the Meeting at Kells, which was respectably but not numerously attended.

Christopher Nicholson, Esq. took the Chair. The Rev. Messrs. Nixon and Booth addressed the Meeting, as also the Rev. Robert Noble, who attended from Athboy.

In conclusion, I would only remind the friends of the Deaf and Dumb of the unhappy fact, that in consequence of the state of the funds the committee were enabled to elect but Five out of Fifty-four applicants, and were obliged to exclude one who will not be eligible at any future election. I conceive that this one circumstance should urge every individual Member to increased exertions, that we may be enabled to pluck those children as brands from the burning. May He, who is the author and giver of every good thing, grant, that with a single eye to his glory, we may persevere in this our work and labour of love; that in that day when he shall make up his jewels, many of them may be found to be his.

JOHN NASH GRIFFIN.

The Committee regret to inform the Members of the Society, that the Cash Account of the year ending Easter Monday, 1857, shows a decrease in the total income as compared with the receipts of the preceding year, of £33 6s. 6d. There is also a decrease of £71 10s. 6d. under the head of auxiliaries; and of £4 17s. 6d., under the head of paying pupils. There is an increase of £11 0s. 6d. in the Collections from Members. On Easter Monday the deficiency was considerably greater; but the receipts since then, up to the time of closing the accounts finally (20th April) have reduced it to the above sum. The Committee have determined on publishing a Second edition of "The Children of Sorrow," which they hope to have ready for delivery early in May. The Committee hope to have the Annual Report ready for publication about the 25th of May; and they request, that the Secretaries of Auxiliaries, will have the kindness to write to the office on or before that time, stating the number of Reports and Cards they will require for next year; and also, whether they can point out any way of sending the parcels free of expense.

DESCRIPTION OF MUSIC BY A DEAF AND DUMB PERSON.

"Music is a copy or rule of voice. While a person sings he looks in a musical book, and sings according to the musical rule. I was told that music is very lively. I know it is far more delicious than the fine food and drink. It is wonderful that music has the virtue of exciting the heart. It inspires persons who are discouraged or look downcast. Martial music makes the soul brave. Melancholy music drops the tears from the eyes of persons. Many persons are transported by the sweet music. It is especially more striking that the sweet music is the sovereign remedy against the craziness caused by the bite of a Tarantula, a great and poisonous spider.—Having been bitten by this spider a person becomes crazy; a number of musicians are immediately called. They play upon musical instruments before him. He is moved by hearing the sweet music. It removes this fatal craziness from him, and he becomes quiet and is delivered from death. He cannot recognise his past craziness. The music cast the recollection of his craziness into oblivion. But the music cannot heal the Deaf and Dumb of this fatal craziness! But the Deaf and Dumb should be very careful and flee from the Tarantulas. The Deaf and Dumb cannot enjoy music, because they are destitute of the organ of hearing; but they should be contented, because they can be moved by Poetry while they read poems."

Deaf and Dumb Institution.

Office, No. 16, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin.

June, 1835.

THE Committee of the Deaf and Dumb Institution at Claremont, near Dublin, direct me to acquaint you, that they have now nearly completed an additional range of new Buildings, containing School-rooms, Dormitories, &c. &c. for the accommodation of the Female Pupils, which will make the Institution capable of containing altogether, about 160 or perhaps 180 Children; and as at present the Funds collected in various ways only permit the reception of about 130 pupils, they wish to suggest to all persons, interested in the immediate admission of particular children, a plan by which they may without much trouble or inconvenience obtain that object, and thus be instrumental in extending the advantages of the Institution to those who could not otherwise perhaps for a long time enjoy them.

By the 7th Law of the Institution, the Committee are empowered, without any Election by the Subscribers at large, to admit any child whose family, friends, landlord, patrons, or richer neighbours, undertake to pay the annual cost of their support and education, &c. and many children have already been admitted in this way. The Committee think that in cases where the immediate relatives of a child can contribute only a very small proportion of the necessary annual sum, it would be quite practicable for any person or persons, interested in his or her admission, to induce a sufficient number of benevolent individuals resident on the spot, and therefore acquainted with the circumstances of the child, to contribute each a small annual sum, towards a Fund for defraying the expenses of maintenance, clothing, education, &c. at the Institution; and as there is now ample room for a considerable additional number of Children, no delay would occur in admitting pupils in this way, and the uncertainties and losses of time by waiting for the half-yearly or yearly Elections, would be avoided. They therefore earnestly recommend the adoption of this plan to the friends and neighbours of Deaf and Dumb children of the eligible age throughout Ireland, especially as they are persuaded that in consequence of its simplicity and practicability, it is capable of being applied to the case of almost every child now suffering under the great privations, to which without Education they are exposed; and also, because they feel that no person possessed of the feelings of humanity would refuse a trifling annual contribution, for the purpose of alleviating the afflictions of a fellow-creature, and particularly of a neighbour. By a very little exertion in this way the friends and neighbours of each of the 32 candidates, at present on the list of applicants, might get them admitted at once, by which means the Institution would be immediately filled, and the list of candidates exhausted, until filled up again by new applications. The 7th Law referred to above is as follows:—

“Any person or persons, shall have a right to place an indigent child, approved by the Committee, in the Institution, on giving them a satisfactory bond to pay a sum of £—— (never more than 20 Guineas) annually, during the education of such pupil, or an equivalent sum at once; for which sum the Committee will educate, maintain and clothe the pupil. When the parents or friends of a Deaf and Dumb child are not absolutely indigent, and yet able to pay only a part of the expense of maintenance, clothing and education, the Committee shall fix what sum they shall become bound to pay. The payments shall be quarterly, in advance. No such pupils will be admitted for a less term than five years.”

Signed by order,

CHARLES EDWARD HERBERT ORPEN, M.D.

Secretary.
